A Thousand Miles of River and Sea"

—spread over two full weeks of sheer enjoyment, beautiful scenery on either hand, the deck of a fine steamer beneath our feet and the light, joyous breezes chasing away dull care. Truly a holiday worth while.

Two Weeks Cruise to Newfoundland

This is the most refreshing and restful of all vacations. It affords personal comfort of a high order and recuperation not possible in any other form of recreation.

All the beauty spots between Montreal and the sea passing before you in one never-ending panorama—Quebec—dotted hamlets on both shores—Murray Bay—Tadoussac—and later the picturesque Gaspe coast with the massive Perce Rock, rugged and inaccessible, then Prince Edward Island with its gardens of fruits and flowers. Our steamer stops at Charlottetown before crossing to St. John's, where we dock for two days prior to the return journey.

Every Saturday, steamer de luxe "Cape Eternity," leaves Montreal at 7 p.m. for an extended cruise to Quebec, lower St. Lawrence River Resorts, Tadoussac and the Saguenay River, arriving back at Montreal the following Friday.

6-Day Cruise to The Saguenay

S.S. "Manoa" leaves Montreal Saturday, August 5th, and every second Saturday thereafter.
