What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

Katherine MacDonald Is Coming in Big Picture

"The Woman's Side," an intensely dramatic production starring Katherine MacDonald and released as a First National attraction, is to be presented at the Allen Theatre on Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

Where this picture has already been shown it has been heralded as well towards the top in the few really dramatic films which have been turned out this year. It is the story of a beautiful and wealthy girl who devoted much of her time to the betterment of the waifs of her city and who suddenly learns that she, too, is a waif and not the daughter of the wealthy home in which she has been reared.

The story is based on a chain of unlooked-for events which are interwoven with a background of political treachery. It is the story of a woman who matches her heart and mind against the cunning of men crooked through instinct. In the end the beautiful heroine finds her side the winner and with the entire sympathy of the audience with her at the termination of a strong denouement.

"The Woman's Side" is interpreted with a smoothness which demands Miss MacDonald's recognition as one of the screen's foremost actresses.

The production was directed by J. A. Barry, who also wrote the story. Appearing opposite the star is an excellent cast, headed by Edward Burns in the leading masculine role, and including such well known players as Henry Barrows, Dwight Crutten, Ora Devereaux and Wade Boteler.

THE FARMERS' UNION PURELY IN POLITICS

New Party Will Be Organized to Hold Political Powers of Farmers.

Saskatoon, Sask., July 26.—"The Farmers' Union is purely in politics in every way. Legislation affects its members," according to the statement of policy issued last night by L. P. MacNamee, chairman of the newly formed Farmers' Union of Canada, in convention here. The union does not intend to create any new party or platform, but to co-ordinate and consolidate the farmers' political strength of the province in support of a new national policy and progressive party.

SEVEN TEAMS SEEK FAST SALE OF STOCK

Canvass of City Being Made For Stanley & Aylward, Ltd.

A meeting was held on Wednesday morning when the city was laid out into seven districts and a member of the industries-committee, accompanied by one citizen commenced the canvass for stock subscriptions for the Stanley & Aylward, Ltd., concern. It is hoped that the $15,000 needed will be subscribed before Thursday night. Among those who have already subscribed are the following: W. W. Sands, W. P. Peters, H. L. Richardson, Elmer Davis, J. M. Campbell, Capt. J. Donnelly, George Bawden, Steacy's Limited, R. Easton Burns, R. Crawford, I. Cohen, H. F. Richardson, W. F. Nickle, W. R. Givens, H. C. Nickle.

The subscriptions are payable when the company is organized and the plant and head office located in Kingston. A bonus of twenty-five per cent of the par value of the shares taken is given in common stock, or, if a jeweller, he may purchase goods from the company at a discount of ten per cent, until the amount due him on his subscription is refunded by such discount.

RAIL WORKERS RIOT NEAR CHICAGO SHOPS

Percentage of Strikers Will Remain as a Fighting Force.

Chicago, July 26.—Rioting broke out near the Burnside shops of the Illinois Central, here early, to-day. The police were forced to fire several shots and use their clubs freely before order was restored. The riots started when a number of striking shopmen gathered at the home of Paul Misko, Illinois Central employee, and urged him to quit his job. Misko refused and the mob beat him severely. The police made several arrests.

Reports from several shop centres indicated that many of the striking shopmen have taken other jobs. This indicated that the Shopmen's Union was cutting the active strikers to a "fighting force" as exclusively stated by the United Press. Plans of union officials are to use only about twenty per cent of the strikers to "carry on," the remaining eighty per cent being allowed to accept other work.

The ban on Canadian cattle cannot be lifted until next autumn.

SPORTING NEWS

IN AN EXCITING GAME.

Sydenham Street Defeated Princess Street Nine by 9 to 8. A close and exciting game in the second round of the S.S.A.A.A. senior baseball schedule was played on the Victoria Park diamond Tuesday evening, when Sydenham street defeated Princess street nine, by a score of 9-8. The Williamsville team were short several of their regular players, while the Sydenham team played a couple of juniors. The game was "good stuff" and was only won in the last inning, when M. Stone, after walloping a double, stole third and got home on a wild throw. Sydenham street started off in the 'rad with two runs in the second, and continued in the van until the sixth when Princess street passed in five, tying the game.

CHP pitched stellar ball for Princess, walk Ball, Sydenham, is improving every game. The two teams are now on even terms, each having defeated the other. One of the prettiest plays was a fine catch by Crawford, who travelled half the way across the field to nab a "beauty." The teams were: Sydenham—Ball, Hartley, M. Stone, Godwin, Inman, H. Stone, Crawford, Hewitt, G. Stone. Princess Street—Cornelius, W. Whiskin, E. Karl, F. Timms, H. Cliff, G. Harpell, W. Karl, K. Hull, R. Grabam, G. Timms. Umpire—McCutcheon.

ALL-STARS IN LEAD DEFEAT LAKEVIEWS 9-3

Large Crowd Saw Snappy Game at Cricket Field Tuesday Evening.

After last evening's game, in which Allstars defeated Lakeviews 9 to 3 and took revenge for the tie game played a short time ago, the opinion of the majority of the fans is, "We want to see them play again." These two teams have been giving us the best baseball we have seen here this year and certainly should be encouraged. If last evening's performance was any indication of the popularity of their games, they are assured of crowds whenever they play. Cherry figured in the box during the entire game for the All-stars but Scrimmager, Lakeviews' star hurler, was forced to withdraw in the fourth and was replaced by Chadwick. Runs and hits were well scattered on both sides, with the exception of the third inning, when All-stars drove four count-ers across the plate and brought about the change of pitchers in their opponents' lineup.

The Stars opened the scoring in the very first round and worked one across the plate. Lakeviews came back and made the game double interesting by running in two in the second inning and jumping into the lead. Then came the third, which lost the game for Lakeviews.

The fourth, fifth and sixth innings were scoreless and tight baseball prevailed. Then Stars banged out two in the seventh and two more in the eighth. Lakeviews made a belated rally in the eighth and worked one run across, but could not keep it up and the score finally stood at 9 to 3.

The game was featured by the performance of "Bert" Daley, who made his first baseball appearance of the year on the initial sack for the Stars. The Stars looked strangely like Ponies, at that, with Cherry in the box, Daley first, Arnell second, Evans short and Twigg third, to say nothing of "Chuck" Coyne up in his beloved left field. Chadwick was the only newcomer on the lineup of the Lakeviews and the former county league team turned in a fine performance against a senior team. The teams:

All-stars—A. Quinn, cf; Spencer, cf; W. Evans, ss; Twigg, 3b; Daley, 1b; Ada, rf; Cherry, p; Coyne, lf; Arnell, 2b; J. Quinn, c. Lakeviews—Bird, ss; Compeau, 2b; Purvis, 1b; Scrimmager, p and cf; Rice, 3b; McCullough, 2b; Watts, cf; J. Blomley, rf; Briceland, c; Chadwick, p. Umpire—George Sullivan.

The scoring: All-stars . . . 1 0 4 0 0 0 2 2 0 9 Lakeviews . . . 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 3

With the Bowlers.

The bowlers had another big time on Tuesday evening. Three rink games were run off and they resulted in Skip F. Crozier winning from L. Sleeth, 12-10; Skip J. M. Elliott from Skip H. W. Newman, 19-12; Skip E. Green from Skip A. Treadgold, 13-12. The scheduled doubles games resulted in a win for Joseph Newman and H. Price, who defeated G. Lawas and F. Frizzell, 12-10. In a game of club doubles in advance, F. Kinnear and C. Warwick won from G. Vanborne and J. Asselstine, 14-11.

The challenge games played were between the team of H. W. Newman and W. M. Campbell, who defeated J. M. Elliott and W. R. Givens, the former winning and remaining at the top of the series. In the same group W. N. Linton and Joseph Newman defeated M. Manahan and F. Crozier.

Summer School Sports.

Sydenham street Sunday school ladies' baseball team took sweet revenge for the defeat given them by the summer school team last Saturday when, Tuesday evening, they defeated the eastern team of the summer school ladies by a score of 21-8. The score tells the story of a "blow-up" of the students. The men's game was between the Erie team and the easterners, the former winning 11-3.

The tennis series is slated to finish next Friday on which evening the prizes will be presented. Consolation prizes will also be awarded.

Civic Holiday Celebration.

The management of the Driving and Matinee Club announce the programme for Civic Holiday, Monday, July 31st, and feel proud in offering to the public one of the best entertainments ever scheduled in the city. Cobourg and Colborne ball teams have been secured to play an exhibition game, and is an attraction of exceptional interest to all ball fans. Wolfe Island and Retalbers will also play, and will make a game of considerable interest. The diamond is being put in condition for these games.

The race programme will also be a big attraction. C. B. Fletcher, Evans Mills, N.Y., will officiate as starter.

OBITUARY

The Late John Smart Rowland.

Death from heart failure came suddenly on Sunday night to John Smart Rowland, Toronto, for the past twenty-three years a member of the Ontario Civil Service. His health recently had not been such as to cause anxiety, and his passing came as a great shock to his wife, who was with him at the time the seizure occurred. He was aged fifty-two years.

Born in Kingston, and the son of the late Fleming Rowland, the deceased was educated in the Kingston public schools, the Collegiate Institute, and Queen's University. Upon leaving the last-named institution, it was his intention to follow law, but a government appointment diverted him into the channels of public service work. He always prided himself on being a "civil servant" and he held a high regard at the parliament buildings for promoting the efficiency of the administrative departments with which he had been connected. Of late years his work had been in the Department of Succession duties.

In religion he was a Presbyterian, the church which he attended on Sunday. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada M. Rowland. The funeral is being held on Monday evening at his late residence at No. 16 Cotswold Court, Cumberland street. The body will be taken to Kingston for interment.

The Late Mrs. John Dundon.

At her home in Taylor, on Saturday, July 15th, Mrs. John Dundon passed away after an illness of over three months borne in christian spirit. Deceased was sixty-nine years of age and, until the past year, had led a very active life. She was of a bright and kindly disposition and her death leaves in the community in which she lived many pleasant memories. Her funeral, which was largely attended, took place from the family home on Monday morning at nine o'clock to St. Barnaby's church, Brewer's Mills. Rev. Father Traynor sang the solemn requiem mass, assisted by Miss Mary Deane, organist, and members of the Ganaoque choir. Mrs. Dundon leaves a sorrowing family of three children, J. Leo Dundon, Taylor; Mrs. D. V. Reid, Rockport and Mrs. B. J. Murray, Kingston. Her husband predeceased her a year and a half ago. The pall bearers were Richard Managan, Thomas Root, Andrew Reid, Thomas Shortall, Robert John Leeder and John Murray. There were many spiritual offerings.

The Late Mrs. Alexander Mackie.

Mrs. Mary A. Mackie passed away at her residence, 44 Clergy street, on Wednesday morning, after an illness of some duration. The deceased was the widow of the late Alexander Mackie and was born in Kingston being Miss Mary A. McIver. She was sixty-seven years of age and resided here all her life. In religion she was a Presbyterian and a member of St. Andrew's church. There are surviving several step-children, Mrs. E. M. Henry, Ottawa, Miss May, New York City, George M., Montreal and William, England.

Henry, Ottawa, Miss May, New York City, George M., Montreal and William, England.

The Late Robert Sutherland.

There passed away early this morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Rees, 109 Gore street, Robert Sutherland, eldest son of the late Alexander Sutherland. The late Mr. Sutherland was one of Kingston's oldest and most respected residents. He was born at Guion, near Ballynahinch, County Down, Ireland, in 1833. His boyhood days were spent in Scotland and at the age of seven he came to America, going to Wisconsin, where he experienced pioneer days. He came to Kingston in 1859, where he has since resided. The late Mr. Sutherland was an Anglican in religion, attending St. Paul's church. He was a very strong, life-long Conservative in politics.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. E. A. Rees, and one son, Harry W. Sutherland, residing in St. Louis; and the following brothers and sisters: Sam G. St. Louis; Jack H. and James T., this city; Mrs. R. H. Abbott, Amherstburg, Ont., and Mrs. T. D. Minnes, and "Miss Elizabeth, this city. The funeral which will be private will take place Friday morning at ten o'clock, from his daughter's residence at 103 Gore street. The service will be held at St. Paul's church and interment at Cataragui cemetery.

REFUSED TO SUPPORT WIFE.

Charge Was Made Against John Cameron in Police Court.

In the police court on Wednesday morning John Cameron, Cataragui, was charged by his wife with non-support. Mrs. Cameron stated that since her marriage, in 1920, her husband had deprived her of necessary money to purchase her wearing apparel and furnishings for her house. As a result she had been compelled to have boarders and to work in homes in Kingston in addition to her own heavy housework. She had given her husband money at various times and on several occasions she claimed that he had assaulted her. Cameron put in a plea of not guilty and in questioning his wife charged her with taking money from his clothes. She denied this accusation and the case was enlarged for a week to permit an understanding.

A merry heart goes all the day, & sad tires in a mile.
