Goodfriend, of Wolfe Island, who was last year's leading pitcher, when he beat such men as Jack Williams, of Verona, has apparently recovered...

Sydenham continues to lead in team batting with an average of .308; Wolfe Island keeps close with .293; Parham and Verona are batting .284 and .292 respectively.

The league leaders of August 5th are also showing the way in fielding with .913; Wolfe Island, .896; Verona, .885; Parham, .846.

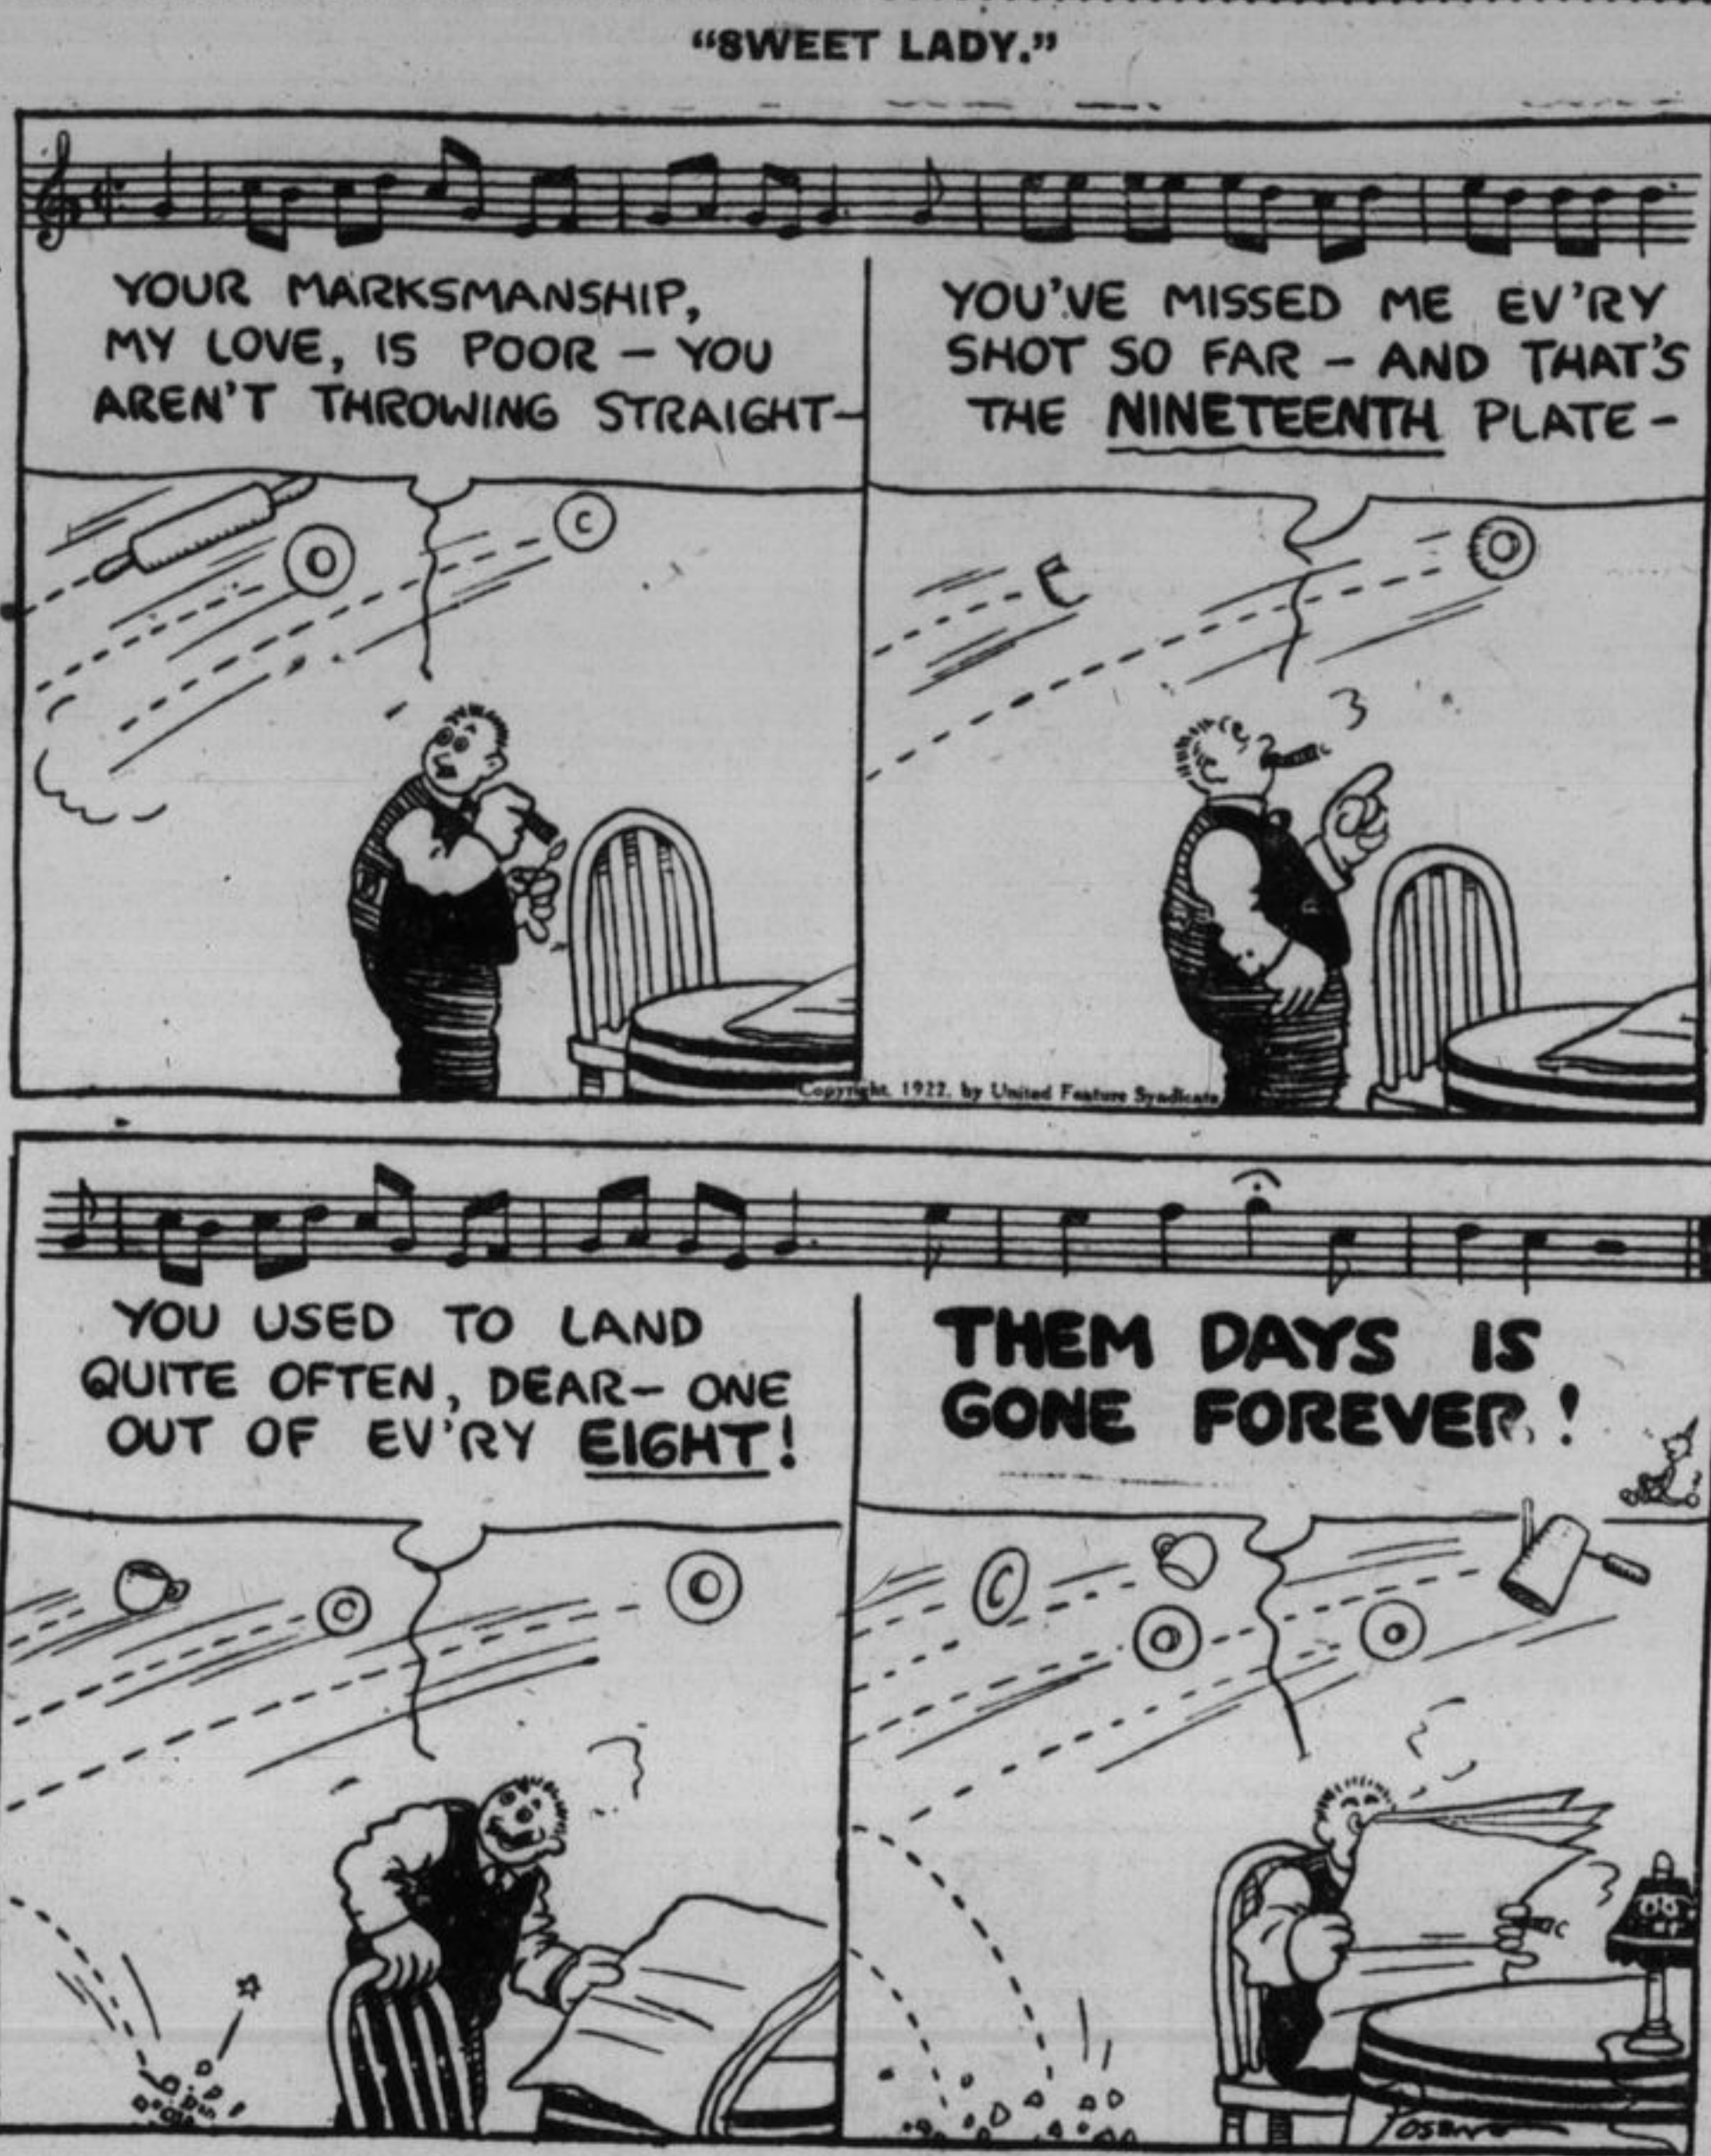

In the individual pitching honors a great race is on between Spoor, of Wolfe Island, and Bliss, of Sydenham. The veteran Sydenhamite, with all his thirty-eight years, is playing ball that made him the hero of many a game in his pitching days.

last six games, according to betting averages released today and which include games of last Wednesday. Cobb is topping the league list with an average of .415, compared with .418 a week ago, while Sisler continues to be the runner-up with .405, a gain of one point over his mark of last week.

The other two members of the "Big Four," are tagging along behind the leading pair. Tris Speaker, manager of the Indians, was third with .364, and Harry Hellmuth of the Tigers next with .357.

Blue of the Tigers took the honors of best run-getter from Sisler by registering 91 tallies and Ken Williams, Sisler's team mate, deprived George of the total base honors by boosting his total to 238, eight better than Sisler's record. However, Sisler's mark of 34 stolen bases is far above that of any other player.

Ken Williams gave the home run hitters something to shoot at when he cracked out six homers in as many days and ran his string of four base blows to 28, giving him the lead for the season among the major league home run clerks, his closest rival being Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Nationals, who held the honor for several weeks. "Billie" Walker of the Athletics has bagged 25 four-baggers and Babe Ruth is trailing with 19.

Other leading batters for 80 or more games: Ed Miller, Philadelphia .349; Basler, Detroit, .345; Tobin .341; McManus, St. Louis, .330; Blue, Detroit, .330; Witt, New York, .323.

Rogers Hornsby, star of the Cardinals, was deprived of some of his honors during the last week, although he continues to lead the batters of the National League with an average of .381. This, however, is a falling off of seven points from his mark of a week ago.

He bagged only one circuit driver and brought his string of four baggers to 27. Max Carey, the speedy outfielder of the Pirates, also took another honor from the St. Louis favorite, when he showed a sudden burst of speed and stepped out in front as a run-geter. Max scored 87 times, while Hornsby's total is 86. Carey also stole four more bases and is showing the way to the base stealers with 31 thefts. Hornsby, however, in addition to being the leading batsman and home run hitter in the league, has a good grip on the total base record with a mark of .280. His hits include, besides his home runs, 39 doubles and seven triples.

Other leading batters for 80 or more games: Grimes, Chicago, .363; Hollicher, Chicago, .360; Daubert, Cincinnati, .357; J. Johnston, Brooklyn, .355; Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .352; E. Miller, Chicago, .348; Carey, Pittsburgh, .342; Kelly, New York, .337; Bancroft, New York, .336.

Ty Cobb, the Detroit American's pilot, continued to sock the ball with marked consistency while George Sisler, the St. Louis star, fared better than the Tiger leader during the last week, as he made a gain of one point over his mark of the previous week.
