INTERCOUNTY STANDING ON AUG. 12

Sydenham and Wolfe Island Tied When Parham Defaulted to Latter—First Play-off August 16th—Trent Valley League for O.B.A.A.

There were no scheduled games in ship and the league representatives will probably meet the champions of the Trent Valley league in the semi-finals of the O.B.A.A. The local league is requested by the O.B.A.A. to have its title decided by August 26th at the very latest.

had safe in 12 games in which he garnered 18 safe blows in 48 times at the bat for a percentage of .376 and scored 9 times.

Babe Ruth of the Yankees, after scoring ten runs in 7 straight games, was stopped by the Indians on Aug. 3rd.

Sydenham vs. Tanners. Although the Tanners secured six hits to the three of the Sydenham team in an exhibition game at the classic village on Saturday afternoon, they came out on the short end of a 6 to 1 score. The Kingston team brought along all sorts of reinforcement for their lines but might have been better off had they played their regular team as they were up against an aggregation with a record for few fielding errors.

Karl Quinn, in seven innings on the mound, struck out five, and Cherry, following in the eighth and ninth, fanned one. The feat was duplicated by Sydenham when A. Lee, in the first seven rounds, sent five back to the bench and Young fanned one in the last two innings.

The teams: Tanners—A. Quinn, cf and ss; Bowen, 1b; Cherry, cf, ss and p; Daley, 2b; Edward, lf; K. Quinn, p and cf; J. Quinn, c; Barrett, rf; Mills, rf; Fowler, 3b.

Sydenham—Foxton, rf; Bliss, 2b; Perry, lf; A. Lee, p and ss; Young, 3b and p; H. Lee, ss and cf; Dubois, cf and 3b; Knapp, 1b; Blake, c. Umpire—W. Perry. Tonight—Border single.

Where Left-Handers Thrive. The left-hander's main hope in sport seems to be baseball. Lew Tendler is one of the few in polite boxes who has got anywhere.

There have been great left-handed tennis players, with Norman Brookes the highlight, but the majority vote is the other way, including Thibon, Johnston, Richards, Williams, Patterson, etc.

At the recent open golf championship from a field of 327 starters there was no sign of a left-hander on the field. No left-hander has ever won a national open or amateur championship, either here or in Great Britain.

But baseball welcomes them home. Siler and Cobb are left-handed hitters. So are Speaker, Ruth, Williams, Collins, Daubert and most of the elite, with Hornsby the great exception.

And if Hornsby were a left-hander, with the shorter right field fences to aim at, his home-run mark to-day would be nearer forty than thirty.

The Man o' War Foal. The first Man o' War foal will be offered for sale at Saratoga by Jas. K. Maddux. This weaning has been named Friendship II, because of the fact that the service was donated by Samuel D. Riddle, owner of the wonderful horse, while the mare was lent by J. Temple Gwathey.

This youngster will go into the sales ring on the night of August 21st. Sea Name, the dam of this weaning, is a daughter of Seahorse II, Captain Maddux was in a measure responsible for the purchase of Man o' War by Mr. Riddle, for he picked the colt as a yearling. Sea Name is also catalogued to be sold.

When George Daus of the Tigers, beat the Red Sox on Aug. 4th, it made 5 straight wins for him.

Hubert Pruet of the Browns, after losing 5 games in a row, beat the Senators on Aug. 9th.

Harry Hooper of the White Sox, on Aug. 9th, was stopped by Rommel and Harris of the Athletics, after he

TO-NIGHT.

Plumbers and Lakeviews are at it this evening at the cricket field and will put up some lively exhibition. One old baseball fan says, "If the Plumbers had uniforms, they'd win out, and I'm pretty strong for their chances anyway." Others don't seem to think that the Mercantile Champions are in the same class as the ex-County Leaguers. This evening will tell the tale, at any rate, and whichever team wins, the fans will be assured of an interesting exhibition from the first inning to the last.

YANKS BAT WEAKLY WHEN MAYS PITCHES

Submarine Hurler Gets Little Help in Runs From Team Mates.

The inability of the Yankees to score runs for Carl Mays this season shows how the law of average usually operates in baseball. In 1920 and 1921, especially last year, Mays had more runs to work upon than any other pitcher in baseball.

Mays pitched well last season, but time after time Carl was able to loaf home. There was a solid month in which the Yanks did not score less than ten runs for Carl. Without having the exact figures available we venture to say that fully one third of the 948 runs scored by the Yanks last season came with Carl in the box.

The Yanks stopped scoring behind Mays in the world's series, when he lost the fourth and seventh games of the series by scores of 4 and 2 to 1.

Last season when Carl was announced as New York's pitcher all of the Yanks felt a big batting day come upon them. This year the pendulum has swung to the other extreme. The Yanks have been in a batting trance whenever Carl has pitched. This season they have scored less runs for him than any other pitcher on the Yankee staff.

No Wonder. Howard Lohr, former big league outfielder, whom the Leafs were after a short time ago, is one chap at least who is cleaning up in independent baseball. Howard receives $150 a week for playing five nights a week with a local twilight team. On Saturdays and Sundays he plays with and manages the Paterson Silk Sox team and gets $75 a game. In addition, he makes $200 a month in an office job with a railroad. The other day a certain major league club offered Lohr a contract and he laughed at the figure in it.

The Playfellow Case. Saratoga, Aug. 12.—The Playfellow case is not ended, it seems. James F. Johnson, the Brooklyn turfman, who sold the colt, a full brother of the famous Man o' War, to Harry F. Sinclair, of the Rancocas Stable, and took him back again after the Supreme Court decided against him, said here to-day that he was going to appeal the case. Playfellow, Mr. Johnson said, had been watched every minute for fifteen days at a stretch, and had shown no signs of being a wind sucker.

Do not be so absorbed in your own ambitions as to be blind to the roses that nod at you as you pass.

Giants' Best Chance To Secure Shortstop

Though almost every major league club in the country is after Joe Boley, the splendid shortstop of the Baltimore Club and the Orioles' leading hitter, it is said that the Giants are almost certain to get him and the price tag will reach $100,000. Any way, it is the one best bet that Boley will not be with the Orioles next season. Dunn has made up his mind in regard to that.

A DISTRIBUTING CENTRE.

For the Towns in Western Ontario is Proposed.

St. Thomas, Aug. 12.—As a proposed means of relieving the coal shortage, which threatens to become acute in this district in a very few weeks, the plan of using Erieau as a soft coal distributing centre for the cities and town of western Ontario has been recommended to Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, by the cities of St. Thomas, Kitchener, Galt, and other places, and it is learned that Hugh C. McKillop, M.P. for West Elgin, is also backing the movement.

All the cork used in the world in a year is said to weigh little more than 1200 tons.
