SPORTING NEWS

SOME PLAYERS WITH LIMESTONES' LINE-UP

Some Old Ones and Many New Ones Appear at the Regular Practices.

When the Limestones' rugby club turns out for practice every evening there are many working steadily in the ranks who have never before been considered as rugby prospects. Then, again, there are others whose names have rung out over the field in joyful acclaim as they battled for the honor of Queen's or Royal Military College in days gone by.

From the ranks of the recruits many amazing players have developed and the showing of some of the veterans has been even more surprising, in view of the fact that many of them have been away from active participation in the game for years.

So good has been the showing of the team that they were requested to stage an exhibition match on Labor Day, but could not see their way clear to doing so on account of the need for more detailed preparation. The risk of a comparatively poor showing before the public at this early date, when the players have had little chance to get into shape, would be too great.

On Labor Day there will be a "dress parade" of the squad in uniform and it is expected that they will cut quite a dash on the cricket field with their new uniforms and black and gold colors.

It is rather interesting to note where the players figured before in the public eye and in what sport. Here are some of them: Squires, rugby, Gananogue; baseball, Kingston Ponies; Evans, rugby, K.C.I.; baseball, Kingston Ponies; Vanalsteyne, rugby, K.C.I. and Queen's; hockey, K.C.I. and Queen's; Smith, hockey, Kingston Frontenacs; Wilkinson, rugby, K.C.I. and Queen's; hockey, K.C.I. and Queen's; Sugel, basketball, rugby, baseball, hockey, K.C.I. and Queen's; Aykroyd, rugby, K.C.I.; Angrove, hockey, city league, K.C.I.; rugby, K.C.I.; Steacy, hockey and rugby at different schools; Watts, hockey, Kingston Frontenacs; baseball, Lakeview, Red Sox, etc.; Stein, basketball, K.C.I. and Y.M.C.A.; rugby and hockey at K.C.I.; Nickle, rugby at K.C.I.; hockey, K.C.I. and Kingston Frontenacs; Edgar, rugby and hockey with K.C.I.; Matthews, rugby and hockey at K.C.I.; Elliott, rugby, hockey, boxing, basketball, etc., at K.C.I. and Queen's University; veteran of a dozen championships; besides there are Black, Clark, McIlroy and many other players of whom there is no definite record.

A glance at this list will show that most of these men are athletes who have made good in other branches of sport besides rugby, and it would indeed be interesting to trace their separate histories.

The Limestones are coming along fine, their only trouble being a rather discouraging lack of interest in financing their season by Kingston men. However, as soon as the team has been viewed by some of the men in the city they expect this condition to remedy itself easily.

LAST OF SCHEDULED DINGHY RACES SAILED

W. Casey Wins the Hartly Trophy—An "Exchange" Race on Monday.

The last of the regular scheduled contests in the Kingston Yacht Club's dinghy race series was sailed Friday afternoon and as a result W. Casey is the winner of the Hartly Trophy. The final race was watched with interest as W. Casey and H. Hill were tied with 85 points on the summer's races. As the result of Friday's contests W. Casey has a season's standing of 90 points while H. Hill is in second place with 87.

Twenty-five regular contests and about five sail-off matches have been held during the summer and the fact that the last race decided the winner of the trophy is an indicator of the keenness of the competition. The trophy was donated by W. Hartly, Jr., as a perpetual trophy to the dinghy sailor who wins the highest number of points in each season's competition.

The results of Friday's races were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Points. Class A—Start, 5.30. Finish. H. Hora 6.14.50, D. Jemmett 6.16.26, S. Hill 6.17.36, H. Hill 6.18.14, B. Taylor 6.18.24.

The standing in points of the sailors at the end of the series is as follows:

Hoppes, who defeated E. Walsh and W. Chapman; and to G. Vanhorne and J. S. Asselstine who defeated Jos. Newman and H. F. Price.

In two interesting ladder games E. Williamson and W. Frizell beat H. D. Bibby and G. Lawes and J. M. Elliott and W. R. Givens won from J. F. McMillan and J. Baker.

C series of the club doubles has practically been won by W. B. Givens and R. N. F. McFarlane, who have but two losses, J. McFarlane and A. McMahon, the next highest, having been defeated three times.

Over thirty bowlers have entered their names for the Labor Day tournament.

THE OTHER DAY.

(Crawf. C. Slack)

The other day, well so it seems, I revelled deep in youthful dreams. I strolled through bowers where white-throats sing.

Then life was one eternal spring. My youthful hopes were buoyant. To be worth while was my intent; 'Twas then I sought my guiding star, Which signalled to me from afar; I chanted then a sweet love lay, And it seems just the other day.

The rhythm of wave, the gleam of sand, The tree-arched road, the sun-kissed land, The fragrant flowers, the ferns and vines, Are much the same among the pines; Still there the wood-bird hides her nest, Still there the black-caps ripen best, Still yet the path leads to the spring.

No change in scarcely anything, Except my hair, now flecked with grey, And it was black the other day.

The other day, a maiden fair, With dimpled cheek and flaxen hair, Stood there demurely by my side, And whispered that she'd be my bride.

Faithful and true, up through the years, Through disappointments, smiles and tears, With youthful spirit in her heart, Evermore she has played her part, And still is hopeful, blithe and gay, Too, loving as the other day.

A woman's love inspires the man, Therefore the precept must not wan. But, ah! My star seems far away, To what it was the other day, It does not seem to be so bright, Nor does it signal me at night, I've seeming lost the signal code, And straying from the star-lit road I'm wandering aimlessly along; No worth-while deed, no worth-while song.

I wonder: Are all men the same? Do streaks of gray ambition tame? Oh Youth! Oh Hope! Come back and stay With me from just the other day.

Safe. While an English politician was speaking on taxation he was interrupted by a man shouting: "Are you going to tax my food?" "Are you going to tax my food?" "Are you in the rear of the hall sung out:

"Oh, stop your braying; thistles will never be taxed."

Condensed Milk in Arabia. Although a greater part of the inhabitants of the Red Sea district of Arabia are herdsmen and shepherds deriving a constant supply of milk from their flocks and herds, condensed milk is always in demand in their larger cities.

Heat in Water Fall. A waterfall is hotter at the bottom than at the top—the falling particles of water, on striking the ground, generate heat.

WEDDED AT HARLEM.

The White-Richards Nuptials, on 28th August.

Harlem, Sept. 1.—On Monday evening, August 28th, at 8 o'clock, a happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Richards, Harlem, when their eldest daughter, Miss Amy Kathleen, and Thomas White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin White, Soperton, were united in marriage by Rev. J. Holt Murray, Delta, in the presence of a few near relatives and friends. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march Lohengrin played by the bride's sister, Miss Ruby, and stood beneath an arch of evergreens with a white motto of their names, White-Richards. The bride looked charming in a gown of gray silk crepe de chine trimmed with tristle rope and bugle beads and bridal veil with wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. After the ceremony and congratulations were extended the wedding party entered the dining room where a sumptuous repast was partaken of. Later on Mr. and Mrs. White took the midnight train for Toronto and Niagara Falls. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge, with pink silk crepe de chine blouse and hat to match. The happy young couple will return on Friday evening to the home of the bride's parents where there will be a reception held and a large number of invited guests are expected to be present. Mr. and Mrs. White will reside at Soperton as the groom is a prosperous farmer of that place. Previous to their marriage the bride was given a shower when a large number met at the home of her parents with a large display of beautiful gifts.

Remnant of Third Eye. The small pineal body which arises from the middle of the human brain is believed to be the remnant of a third eye which animals had in the tops of their heads millions of years ago.

If our minds are not improving we may be sure they are degenerating. Like a tree, when a mind ceases to grow it begins to die. It is sometimes necessary to play the fool to avoid being deceived by cunning men.

The Roman mile was one thousand paces, of five feet each. In meeting others the Arabians shake hands six or eight times.

She Lingered to Count. Fred had come upon Flora dosing on the sofa, and when she woke up she accused him of stealing a kiss. "Well," said Fred, "I will admit that the temptation was too strong to be resisted. I did steal one little kiss."

"One!" exclaimed Flora, indignantly. "Why, I counted eight before I woke up!"

Read both halves of the news

LOOKING over all the normal activities of life which hold your interest—your city, your church, your school, your sport, your good works, there is not a single one that has not been promoted and fostered by having public attention focused upon it in the Daily Newspapers of your community.

Facts about personal happenings of this kind have come to be called news; facts about retail business are spoken of as "advertising." There is no actual difference between the two. Read both.

As a consumer you have as much interest in the day's advertising news as any person has in civic, religious and recreational events. How else can you keep informed of what is newest and best to eat, to wear and to use; how can you know who is selling on the best terms and pledging his name and resources to back the quality and worth of his brand and trademark?

Daily Newspaper advertising is the sole in which new comforts and economies are grown daily for your benefit. It is news of value and interest to every one of us who must spend money daily just to live.
