Sunflowers for Silo.
A farmer in the township of Thurlow has five acres of sunflowers which he intends mixing with the corn in the silo. He followed this practice last year with excellent results. He claims that his milk records show an increase from feeding sunflowers over corn alone. When ensiling he puts a load of each alternately in the silo, and in that way has been enabled to test the two crops as a silage feed.

Site for a Memorial.
The proposed memorial to Deseronto's fallen soldiers in the late war has been held up until a suitable location has been provided. This memorial is the gift of an old Deserontoby, Thomas C. Brown, Schenectady, N.Y. It is probable that the council will be asked to choose a site for Mr. Brown's gift—a grey granite slab weighing over seven tons and taking up a ground space of about three by six feet.

Call to Queen's Graduate.

The pallbearers were relatives. After the religious service the cortege proceeded to Sand Hill cemetery where interment was made.

Annual Meeting in January.
A special meeting of the executive of Kingston branch of the Red Cross Society was held on Friday to arrange for a garden party and also for the Red Cross tent which will be one of the features of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition. Co-operation with the V.O.N. was arranged for and members will be appointed to be in attendance. On receipt of a request from head quarters, it was decided to hold the annual meeting in January of 1923 instead of October, 1922, as this date is more convenient from a business standpoint.

TEN CANADIAN CHIEFS AT INTERNATIONAL MEET
British and Canadian flags Much in Evidence at San Francisco.

British and Canadian flags were much in evidence at the recent convention of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, held at San Francisco, according to Fire Chief Armstrong, who is back in the city after attending this big convention and also the convention of the Dominion fire chiefs held at Chatham, Ont., where he had the honor of being elected secretary for his eighth term. Chief Armstrong was accompanied by Mrs. Armstrong, who had had a most delightful trip to the coast. Report had it that there was some friction over flags, and that as a result Canadian chiefs would be conspicuous by their absence at the convention.

Interviewed by the Whig on Saturday morning, Chief Armstrong stated that there were ten Canadian fire chiefs at the convention held at the coast, and that in all fifteen Canadians were in attendance. The convention city was decorated with flags of all nations, the Kingston chief pointing out that he had his photograph taken beside a British ensign. The delegates to the big convention were received with the community band playing "God Save The King." This convention marked the 50th annual meeting of the international association, and it is of interest to note that delegates were present from France, China, Japan and even from the Philippine Islands. It was one of the biggest gatherings in the history of the association, and was marked by important and interesting discussions, some very fine exhibits of fire apparatus, and splendid entertainment for the delegates. Kingston's chief had special invitations for gatherings held by the Commercial, Lions, and Kiwanis clubs, and had the honor of speaking at a big dinner held in the Oakland hotel attended by 1,200 people. The chief was selected to represent Canada. The Chief and Mrs. Armstrong stopped at Chicago on their way to the coast, and on their trip home. They arrived back in Kingston on August 24th, and the chief left at midnight the same day for Chatham, Ont., where he attended another splendid convention held by the dominion chiefs.

The international convention selected Richmond, Virginia, as the meeting place for next year's convention, and Chief Armstrong was elected as a delegate. The next convention of the dominion chiefs will be held in Vancouver. This association elected the following officers: President, Chief Carlisle, Vancouver, B.C.; first vice-president, Chief Debeau, Verdun, Quebec; second vice-president, Chief McLeod, Port Arthur; treasurer, Chief Keyes, Galt; secretary, Chief Armstrong, Kingston. Among the many important resolutions passed was one asking legislation to prohibit inflammable moving picture films after January, 1923, commercially safe films now being available. This matter was strongly recommended from France. Legislation introduced in the senate at Ottawa, but which was not passed, was also strongly endorsed, calling for the regulation of the importation, manufacture, sale and use of matches. During the sessions of the Chatham convention, the delegates received important instruction on first aid work from Col. Hodgett, director-
