NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

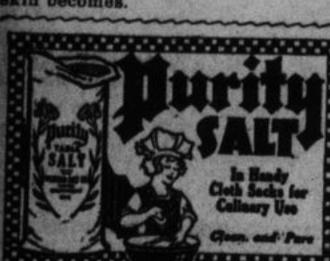

Life's Social Side

hone 243. Private phone 837w.

hands, and the same girl win an Cartwright, Miss Madele Wilde. and relatives in Campbellford, prior early-Victorian gown, ringlets and (New York), Miss Phyllis Kaight, to proceeding to their home in Kingwas a picture which had been hurg in the Reyal Academy. A young Miss Hattie Chown, Clergy street, street, has returned from a motor English girl with a kitten was an al- has returned to town from Europe, trip which included Belleville, To-

to a bottle containing three ounces of the Lake region, and Glasgow, sail- Ir. and Mrs. Norman Miller, King-Orchard White, which any drug store ing from Grenock on Aug. 23rd, and stor, attended the Van Palter-Macwill supply for a few cents, shake arriving safely in Canada after a pherron wedding in Prescott on Satthe best freckle and tan bleach, and complexion whitener

Massage this sweetly fragrant emon lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how Y.W.C.A. entertained the board at M.ss Thyra Eggeling, a missionfreckles and blemishes bleach out and U-Auto Camp and the cottage, gay ary from Nyasaland, South Africa, is

FOR

Stores

"Stores of Better Values" Corner Princess and Barrie Sts. Cor. Montreal and Ragian Rd. roceteria: 175 Princess Street Kingston's Largest Retail Grocers.

400 baskets No. 1 Peaches.

150 baskets Select Plums

100 Baskets Gages 50 baskets Bartlett

Lowest prices in town. Come personally or phone your requirements.

WE DELIVER!

Editor of Woman's Page, Tele- drenched (anadian atmosphere, were among the gems. Two interiors, the artist's s.udio with a shaft of sun- Collin's Bay. Mir. Thomas Seccombe, Queen's light touching the figure of a model University, entertained at the 12a and making a patch of gold upon the his holidays with Mrs. T. D. R. Hemhour on Tuesday, in honor of her wall, and a room with a whatan's ming, George street, will return to sor-in-law, Allan Barr, a young Eng- figure, fowers and a glimpse of bine Toronto on Thursday. Hab artist, who is her guest. Mrs. sea through an open window, were Keith Hicks and Mrs. James Miller good pieces of work. Among those B.S.M. of the Royal Military College poured tea and coffee at the tea table who had the pleasure of seeing the in 1921, and who has spent the last centied with asters, and after tea pictures were General and Mrs. Hill six months abroad, was in Kingston the suests were given a view of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rutherford, Mrs. T. for the week-end, leaving for Toron-Barr's interesting work. A portrait I. R. Hemming, Mrs. W. F. Ninkle, to on Tuesday. of lie wife was considered an ex- Mrs. Bruce Taylor, Col. and Mrs. cellent likeness and was much ad- Norman Leslie, Dr. and Mrs. W. Mormired for the cleverly drawn figure, gan. Dr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mis. bert and Jack, motored from Kingthe life-like flesh tints and the ar- A. P. Kn.ght, Prof. and Mrs. Keith ston on Wednesday and were the tistic coloring and fine execution of Hicks. Mrs W. H. Macnee, Dr. and guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Roche, the sown and accessories. Two pic- Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Err- Havelock. tures painted from the same model, cet Scott, (New York), Mrs. A. Keua profile of a girl in a soft grey mody, Mrs. F. S. Johnson, Mrs. R H the past two months at their summer frock, with a bon bon box in her Waddell, Miss Hora, Miss Mollie cottage, Oak Lake, called on friends together charming bit. Perhaps the where she spent the holidays with a ronto and Hamilton. trait of Lieut.-General Sir George party of 250 Canadian teachers. The Munn, was one of the most admired; battlefields of France and Flanders, have returned from Toronto after at-Mr. Barr had only been given three the points where the men of our tending the exhibition. sittings of a little more than an young dominion held the line against hour yet ac one could doubt tae ex- the trained soldiers of Germany, a guest at an informal dinner party cellence of the likeness. Allan Barr Ypres, Vimy and the Somme; Paris, at Watertown, N.Y., in honor of Dr. is not a potrait painter only and where the teachers laid a wreath Mabel Furey, Flint, Mich. Mrs. Secrombe's guests admircd h's upon the grave of the unknown lanuscases next, a 14th century French soldier buried beneath the the past month with her sister, Mrs bridge near Oxford; "The Braza- Arc de Triumph, the cemeteries John Glover, Sudbury, and Miss Hyamouth flands," a bit of Hyde Park, where the rows of crosses mark the cinth Smith, who was also Mrs. Glovwith lovely effects of shadow and last resting place of many a Canad- er's guest on her return trip from sunlight, tieated with a true artistic ian lad, were among the continental Thessalon, arrived home yesterday. touch, and a glimpse of Cataraqui places visited. In London, the par- Mr. and Mrs. Eugent Reitzel have Golf Links with blue Lake Ontario ty, which was under the direction of left for their home in Waterloo after in the distance, the English artist Major Ney, an efficient guide, were spending several weeks at their cotbaving caught and held the sun-entertained by the Archbishop of tage on Wolfe Island. Canterbury at Lambeth Palace, visited Westminster Abbey and laid a wreath upon the grave of the un- St. Louis, and their daughter, Mrs. known British soldier. Miss Chown Sherry, who have been camping for BLEACHES FRECKLES visited some of her relatives at their the summer at Stella Point, cams to home in Devonshire, joining the partie on Tuesday by the steamer Mrs. Constantine and her children Squeeze the juice of two lemons in- land, where they visited Edinburgh, home in St. Louis, on Wednesday.

> ing the Girls' Fellowship Club of the ray Fay. with the first colored leaves of au- the guest of Miss Buhliq, Y.M.C.A., tumn and the September flowers, was Johnson street. much admired by the guests. Tea was served at the long table, where Scot's, is visiting her brother, A. D. oak leaves were used as place cards Ross, 413 King street. and some bright speeches made by Miss Florence Wilson, camp president, and Miss Myrtle Teepell, the ren, who have spent the past month president of the club. Mrs. W. E. with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Irwin and McNiell and Miss Van Straubenzie re- Mr. Irwin, have returned to their plying for the board. There were home in Montreal West. sw.mming and races for the girls, beating for the visitors, and a singsong for every one, as they gamered to wait for the cars to take them home on top of the Fort hill, where the full moon bathed the old fortifications and the still water in her silvery light. The board members present were, Mrs. Ws E. McNiell, Mrs. W. Jackson, Miss Van Straubenzes, Miss E. Lyman, Miss 13. freiand, Mrs. H. F. Geary and Miss Haitie Chown, who was welcomed home from Europe and closely questioned about her interesting trip. At the marriage of Miss Frances Kathleen Heney, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Heney, Ottawa, and Lieut.-Col. Lawrence T. Martin, D.S.O., son of the late Thomas Martin and of Mrs. Martin, of Renfrew, which will take place on Tuesday morning next, September 12th, at St. Joseph's church, the bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Nan Heney as maid of honor, and by Miss Kathleen Gough, Toronto, as bridesmaid. Little Miss Catherine Gorman, Renfrew, a niece of the groom, will be flower girl. T. J. Gillies. Sudbury, will be best man, and those who will act as ushers are Messrs. Jack O'Brien, Renfrew: Leonard Smith, Haileybury; Hugh Quinlan. Montreal, and Dr. V. P. Heney, the latter a brother of the bride.

After a pleasant visit to their relatives, Mr and Mrs. William A. James, 209 University avenue, Miss Bessie E. James and Mr. Lawrence P. James, have returned to their home in Memphis, Tenn.
Timothy J. James, Memphis. Tenn., is in the city renewing old acquaintances. Guests who will be in Toronto shortly for the Dalton-Tyrrell wedding on September 12th, comprise Mrs. R. F. Segsworth, South Drive; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dalton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. Dalton, W. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Calvin and Miss Callaghan, Kingston, and

Dr. Thomas Gibson, Ottawa. Mrs. Bruce Taylor, the Principal's Residence, Queen's University, is giving a dance on Wednesday. Sept. 13th, for Miss Lesslie Taylor and Bruce Taylor.

The last dance of the season will be held at the Yacht Club this evening, and several small dinners have been arranged from which the suests will go on to the dance.

. . . The visiting committee of the Red Cross Sir'ety, with the aid of some of the people who gladly lend the'r cars for the soldiers, took about sixteen paties ts from Sydenham hospital out to the lake shore bar nd Collin & Fay on Saturday afternoon, and a picnic, much enjoyed by the whole party, arranged.

Prof. and Mrs. A. S. Ferguson, who have spent the summer at Prince Edward Island, will spend part of September at "Elm Lodge,"

Misses Claire and Eloise Darling

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sutherland

urday. Cci. and Mrs. Normal Leslie, Em-On Monday afternoon and even- liy street, have returned from Mur-

Miss A. Ross, R.N., Roberta, Nova

Mrs. A. L. Morgan and her calld-

Oriental Cream

For Keeping Tidy

THE ROYAL is quite equal to all occasions—for this machine with its attachments eleans everything! Its cleansing air-stream gets all the dirt—not merely lint, threads and surface litter, but the germ-breeding dirt embedded in rugs, clinging to draperies and upholstery—hidden in and upholstery - hidden in out-of-the-way places.

It leaves every room in the house sweet—clean—sanitary. And it cannot injure even the finest rugs or fab-

Made in Canada IMMONS BROS.

Distributed by Edwin Chewn & Son SOLD BY R. J. REID & SONS 230 Princess St.

Whole Grains Vegetables Fruits

TOOD scientists advise I these for hot weather as ideal foods, because they alkalinize and "cool the Roman Meal, because of its Flaxose, is the only alkaline cereal sold. Very delicious. It "cools the blood," clears the skin, sids digestion, positively relieves constipation. Saves you money, keeps you fit.

Ottawa, motored to Kingston for the trol and optimism early in life. week-end, and were the guests of W. A. Newlands and the Misses Newlands, Barrie street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burroughs and Prof. and Mrs. Small, Montreal, motored to Kingston, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Laidley. Princess street.

Miss Florence O'Donnell, Arch street, is in Rochester, N.Y.

William O'Donnell, New York, and Mrs. W. B. Reid, Rochester, N.Y. are visitors at 621 Arch street. Mrs. Buxton Smith and Miss

Jessie Smith are settled in their flat in the Sydenham apartments. Mrs. Gillibian, with her family, who have spent the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Laidley, Princess street, have ty again for their trip through Scot- Prockville, and will return to their Mrs. Constantine and her children were at Metis Beach with Mrs. J. B. Carruthers.

returned to their home in Chicago,

Miss Keitha Smith, Division street, ground. left on Monday for Ottawa to join the public school staff.

street, left on Monday for Verona, where she will act as a junior teach- town as in any of the larger cities, er in the public school.

The marriage of Miss Esther Josemieux, Ottawa, to Major Frederick J. not such a bad place after all. Alderson, D.S.O., of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, of Kingston. son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alderson, Kingston, will take place time to dry, would have made the soft-haired brush as you clean the answered in these columns in their

Mr. and Mrs. John Waddell, Earl street, announce the engagement of Cargill, formerly of Mynensingh, Iudia, and now of London, Eng. T 10

(Continued on Page 15).

TO-DAY'S FASHION By Vera Winston.

This Youthful Bathing Suit is Made of Black Surf Satin. The bloomer suit seems to be gaining in popularity. Often, one sees bloomers peeping from beneath the straight bathing dress of silk or taffeta, or else gingham bloomers are worn with the gingham bathing

The black surf satin model sketched here discards the skirt portion altogether and attaches its bloomers directly to the walst. White linen forms the collar and binds the short

The rubber cap carries out the black and white color contrast.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE By Genevieve Kemble

THURSDAY, SEPT. 7.

Both the lunar transit and mutual aspect this day may be considered unfortunate, according to the astrologers. The major malefice hold sway. bringing confusion into business affairs and also discouraging all manner of new ventures or constructive operations. The mental outlook is likely to be gloomy and melancholy. with the disposition toward rash movements. The health should receive attention, and all morbid tendencies should be suppressed. Guard against disputes and litigation, and beware deception or fraud.

Those whose birthday it is have the presage of a possibly unsatisfactory year, with the health giving cause for concern. It would be well to shun disputes and law, and to be on guard against deception or fraud. A child born on this day may be disposed to be rash and impulsive, and their daughters, Enid and Flora, and may be given to worrying over trifles Miss Isabel La Fleur, First avenue, unless thoroughly trained in self-con-

What the Editor Hears

That the healthy, happy sunburns children made a pleasant sight as they wended their way to school on Tuesday morning.

and happy family parties sought the necessary. For instance, I once country by boat or car and enjoyed watched an inexperienced housethe last holiday of the summer to keeper clean her floors, then use work an hour too soon on Tuesday needed to be done over again! morning and others, taking advantage of the chance of another forty glaring mistakes. Yet, for the sake

That much as we may admire tions: long skirts for dress occasions, we don't want to turn ourselves into bric-a-brac from the room. Clean the street sweepers, and should keep our large rugs with a vacuum cleaner. suits five or six inches from the but take the small ones out of doors several shops in which to choose cleaner attachments to uphoistered Miss Winnifred Guild, Division their clothes, and will be able to furniture. buy as smart frocks in their home and for a more reasonable price.

the coal profiteers.

Have KEEN'S MUSTARD with all your meals Freshly Mixed Aids

BARNUM'S

BAKERY

FRESH EVERY DAY

PIES-Blueberry, Raisin, Apple. TARTS-Blueberry, Honey. DELICIOUS CAKES AND PASTRY.

Etticieni

Cleaning Your Rooms the Right

Many women, in cleaning a room, That Labor Day had ideal weather make more work for themselves than wool wall-mop on her walls, with the do such work. Floors are also re-That some people came down to received a fine sprinkling of dust and

Of course few of us make such wings, took fifty, and were too late. of the Beginner Housekeeper, I am going to give the following sugges-

Step One: Dust and remove al to receive a thorough sweeping and That Kingston women have now shaking. Also apply the vacuum

Step Two: Cover the cleaned upholstered furniture with sheets, and roll up the large cleaned rugs, cov- would don a sweeping cap and volu-That the people are coming back brush your curtains with a soft work. phine Lemieux, elder daughter of from the lakes and rivers, the moun- brush to dislodge dust which may Tomorrow-More Recipes Auguste Lemieux, K.C., and Mrs. Le- tains and the sea, and finding home cling to them, and pin them back. Cover a broom with a white broombag (or use a clean white wall mop) That there is plenty of wood in the and go over the ceiling and walls. forests of Canada, which, if cut in Dust back of all pictures with a Housekeeping" department will be on the radiator, the next step is to kattor.

1 go over the bare wood foor with soft-haired brush and sweep all the dust into a pile in the middle; take up this pile by brushing it onto newspapers (to be burned later), then go over the floor with an oiled mop. If furniturue or woodwork is to be waxed at this stage. The work is now practically finished. All that remains is to uncover the furniture and rugs, bring back the small rugs from outside, replace bric-a-brac, and clean the vacuum cleaner and the other tools of work before putting them away in the cleaning closet. There is a very real satisfaction in "doing things right." A room cleaned thoroughly and efficiently, as I have just described, can defy the inspection of the most critical,

I have not mentioned the garb of the housekeeper who does such cleaning, for I have assumed that even an inexperienced housewife mirous apron before attempting such Reader Friends.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient turn. This requires considerable Step Three: Having brushed down time, however, owing to the great ceiling, walls, picture-backs, gone aumber received. So if a personal or That it is satisfactory to hear into crevices in woodwork, dusted quicker reply is desired, a stamped the'r daughter, Elizabeth Gwendo- everywhere of the abundant harvest furniture, cleaned windows if neces- and self-addressed envelope must be line, to Richard Emil Dudley Cargill, for if we are cold this winter we sary, and used a long-handled brush enclosed with the question—The

That the twenty pretty Montreal the time of their lives at present, and when all their friends are wearing marriage to take place in the latter girls who have sworn not to wear are wearing out their old frocks. The suits with skirts 5 or 6 inches longer, their skirt a fraction less than twelve Montreal dressmakers, however, say and they become conscious of dis-inches from the ground, are having there will be another story to tell playing an awkward length of limbs,

THE will to win-the purpose to performthese are the elements of success which are nourished and sustained by Grape-Nuts, the food for winners.

Grape-Nuts is made from wheat and malted barley, scientifically baked and partially pre-

It contains all the nutritive and mineral elements required to build and maintain healthy tissue, strong nerves, sturdy bodies, and robust

Crisp and delicious Grape-Nuts, with milk or cream, is a complete food—an appetizing treat, always ready to serve for breakfast, luncheon, or supper.

"There's a Reason"

Made by Canadian Postum Careal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Outario