TORTURED BY KIDNEY TROUBLE

Quickly Relieved By Short Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MADAM LALONDE
170 CHAMPLAIN ST., MONTREAL, P.Q.
"I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. This fruit medicine relieved me when I had given up all hope of recovering my health.
"I suffered terribly from Kidney Trouble, Dyspepsia and Weakness. I had these troubles for years and all the medicine I took did not do me any good.
"I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' and I tried them. After I had taken a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Kidney Trouble, and Dyspepsia, and had gained in strength.
"I hope those who suffer with Kidney Trouble, Dyspepsia and Weakness will take 'Fruit-a-tives' to recover their health."
JEANNETTE LALONDE.
50s a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A Real Progressive.
The editor of the Deseronto Post has joined the ranks of the Progressives. This move has no political significance, however. He has purchased a limotype.—Tweed News.

Visited The Exhibition.
Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Keyes returned from Toronto on Thursday. While there they visited the Exhibition, and Mr. Keyes attended the Convention of the Ontario Funeral Service Association.

After a Divorce.
Charles Phillip Roy McCabe, of the township of Fredericksburgh, farmer, will apply to parliament at the next session for a bill of divorce from his wife, Kathleen McCabe, on the ground of adultery.

Cleaning The Building.
The old medical building at Queen's is being refreshed for the opening of the session at the end of the month. The walls of the halls have been freshly kalsomined and the wood work is being repainted.

Killed a Fox.
A few nights ago, Mel. Lee, Lanark, was motoring home from Carleton Place when he noticed what he thought was a dog running ahead of his car. Suddenly it turned and ran into his car and was killed. It was a fox.

Is Progressing Well.
Jack J. Walsh, Bagot street, who broke his right leg while alighting from a street car in Toronto last Friday, is progressing well in the Hotel Dieu hospital here. He is local representative of the Imperial Tobacco Company.

Favorable Recovery.
The many friends of Master Alex. Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parks, Perth, who broke his leg about two weeks ago will be pleased to know he is recovering nicely and it is hoped to see him playing around again with his usual brightness.

Going To School.
The Park kiddies, who were with the Rex company here last season, are now at their home in Michigan and will go to school for the next year. Their mother found it difficult to keep them on the stage and also keep up their education.

A London Paper to Hand.
The Whig is indebted to R. J. Carson, visiting in England and France, for a copy of the London Evening Standard of Aug. 23rd, giving lengthy notices of the assassination of Michael Collins, as well as vivid stories of his career. The paper is well illustrated.

Much American Money Here.
Not in ten years has there been so much American money floating about Kingston as just now. The influx of American visitors this past summer was large and they left much of their bills and coins. Almost every other silver bit now given in stores as change is American silver.

Tendered A Gift.
On the occasion of her leaving the employ of the Whig, Miss V. M. Wartman, who will be quietly married the middle of the month, was presented with a silver casserole by the office staff. The gift was accompanied by an address and L. A. Gifford in a few words expressed the sentiments of the staff.

Engagement Announced.
Mrs. William McDiarmid, Carleton Place, announces the engagement of her daughter, Jane Leonora Mary, to Dr. Rosslyn Montague Ferguson, Smith's Falls, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ferguson, Smith's Falls, the marriage to take place quietly Thursday, Sept. 21st.

Motor Boat Burned.
A motor boat, valued at $3,000 was destroyed by fire near Alexandria Bay, N.Y. It was owned by R. Massey. He was trying to start the engine, when it suddenly backfired, setting fire to the boat. He tried in vain to extinguish the flames and was about ready to jump overboard and swim ashore when rescued by W. Duclon, who arrived in a skiff.

P.C.I. Student Wins Scholarship.
Miss Jessie C. Richmond, Perth Collegiate, has been successful in winning the Lettich Memorial scholarship at Queen's University. This scholarship has a total value of $100. Miss Richmond, says the Perth Courier, was singularly successful at the Honor Matriculation examination, securing honors on every one of the twelve papers on which she wrote. Jessie richly deserves her excellent success as she was a most faithful student. Her achievement has brought honor not only to herself but also to the P.C.I.

Trial in December.
Walter Griffith, the negro convict who escaped from the prison train, and who was Thursday remanded for trial, will likely come before the general sessions of the county court in December. At the preliminary hearing little evidence was taken. The prisoner entered a plea of not guilty and evidence was given by officers who were on the train.

Attended The Meeting.
The Westlake quarterly meeting of Friends was held at Thirteen Island Lake, north of Kingston. Five members from Wellington attended. Alva Bowerman, Picton, drove the party in his car, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arkett, Seaborn Cronk and James Wild. They had a safe journey over the rough roads that lay between Verona and Thirteen Island Lake.

Kingston's Assessment.
Edward Meoors, assessment commissioner, is now busily engaged in preparing the schedules of 1922 assessment. It is not likely that the amount of the assessment will be very much in advance of that of 1921. It is understood also, that the population, even under the adverse circumstances of unemployment, will not be below, but rather above that of last year.

Had Fine Fishing Outing.
The following party spent the last ten days fishing at Long Lake. E. Trudeau, Stoco, D. A. Montani, Dr. Montani and E. Sylvester, of Youngstown, Ohio, G. Guerrieri and son, New York. They report a fine catch of bass, a twenty-pound pike, measuring thirty-seven inches from nose to tail. In appreciation of the splendid week's fishing afforded them by Mr. Trudeau, the party presented Mr. Trudeau with a fine gasoline camp lamp.

Died at Lanark Village.
Recently there passed away in Lanark village an old resident in the person of James Johnson, son of the late Nathaniel Johnson. He was born on the 11th line of Bathurst in 1832, and was therefore in his ninetieth year. He was the last survivor of his family, five brothers and two sisters having predeceased him. He lived at Playfairville for upwards of fifty years, his health failing, he sold his place there a few years ago and moved to Lanark village.

Gallipoli Graves.
The First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Lee of Fareham, in the course of a visit to Gallipoli, expressed to the officer in charge of the Imperial War Graves Commissions operations at Anzac, Sulva and Helles, his appreciation of the dignity of design and the simplicity of the treatment of the cemeteries at those places. Lord Lee further commended the spirit in which the work upon the cemeteries is being carried out and the care displayed by those concerned in it.

A GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR THE CHILDREN

Mothers—the surest way of keeping your little ones well and happy; whether it is the new-born babe or the growing child is to keep their bowels regular and their stomach sweet. Nine-tenths of all childhood ailments are the result of clogged bowels and sour stomach. The most necessary and the best medicine for little ones is a gentle laxative—something that will relieve constipation; sweeten the stomach and promote rest and natural sleep. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are absolutely guaranteed free from opiates or other injurious drugs and may be given to the youngest infant with perfect safety. They banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and give the baby that health and happiness which all children should have. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Recalled the Past.
During their stay in Carleton Place, Mrs. S. J. Allen, Smith's Falls, and Mrs. Dulmage and her mother, Mrs. Green, Kingston, happened to meet together at a friend's home near Miss Margaret Sullivan's. All three were former residents of Appleton, as was Maggie, now an invalid. One proposed and all became instantly disposed, to make a call. They did so, themselves in such high spirits as to overflow into the invalid's, an hour of joyous reunion wherein the Appleton and vicinities, its frolics and its fashions, formed the chief basis of their animated discourse. The visitors, through their wholesome humor, the fragrance of their disposition, with good sense ever on the reel, gave the patient home-dweller a most pleasant afternoon.
