A MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN

The Methodist Pulpits Again Occupied on Sunday by Lay Representatives.

In the Methodist churches of the district Sunday was observed as the second and final Sunday of the missionary campaign. One of the services in each church was in charge of laymen representatives. A. T. Ingram, Toronto, was one of the outside speakers, giving addresses in Sydenham street in the morning and Queen street at night. C. A. Winters, Ormstown, spoke in Princess street Sunday evening, having occupied the pulpit at Gananoque in the morning. Local laymen were speakers in other district churches. Speaking in Sydenham street in the morning A. T. Ingram gave an excellent appeal for the missionary cause taking as his topic "Making Canada Christian" and referring particularly to the home missionary work. Reviewing the work of the missionary board he pointed out that the board during the past few years has been working against a deficit which has been materially reduced but still exists. Increased contributions are being asked from the churches.

He also spoke of the great work that is being done in the Canadian West and in city missions with the immigrants who are coming to Canada. He declared that if we do not make these Christians they will affect us.

DEATH AT ARDEN.

John Mosier Was a Life-Long Resident of That Place.

Arden, Ont., Sept. 25.—Death claimed another of our old landmarks in the person of John Mosier, in his 78th year. He was a life resident of this place. The beautiful floral offerings went to show the high esteem in which deceased was held. He leaves to mourn his loss, four brothers and one sister, Peter Mosier and Gideon Mosier, of this place; David, of Plevna, and Daniel, of Manitoba; and Miss Margaret Mosier, of this place. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Stockett. The remains were laid to rest in Arden cemetery. The pall-bearers were G. Hughes, T. Hawley, F. L. Wormworth, D. L. Parks and S. Barker. Deceased was buried with Orange honors. He was a member of this order for a number of years. A number from here spent a few days in Kingston at the fair. The W.M.S. meeting on Wednesday afternoon was well attended. Mrs. Thomas Hughes paid a visit to Mrs. S. Krings on Friday.

FROST NIPS GARDEN STUFF.

Farmers Around Echo Lake Engaged in Ploughing.

Echo Lake, Sept. 25.—The heavy frost has destroyed nearly all the garden stuff. Some of the farmers have started their fall ploughing. A good many from here attended the fair at Parham and also the ball in the evening. Miss E. McCleod spent a few days at the Toronto Exhibition. Mrs. M. Topah spent a few days with her brother, J. Cronk. Mrs. J. Cronk spent the week-end with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Topah. Mr. and Mrs. C. Gowdy visited at D. McCleod's, also J. Leveque's. Mr. Timkermen is moving to Moscow.

Cormack-Toner.

The wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Napanee, by Rev. Mr. Terrill, on Wednesday, Sept. 20th of Miss Norma C. Toner, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Toner, Strathcona, and P. J. Cormack, son of Mrs. Cormack and the late Robert Cormack, Portland, Oregon. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel E. Toner, while G. S. Toner performed the duties of groomsmen. After the marriage, the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cormack left, amidst showers of rice and good wishes, on an extended honeymoon by motor through the United States to California, Oregon and British Columbia. On returning they will reside in Detroit, Michigan.

Queen's Lady Graduate Passes.

Rev. Dr. R. J. and Mrs. Wilson left Sunday night for Toronto to attend the burial of the wife of the former's brother, Rev. Dr. Philip H. Wilson, Chicago. The late Mrs. Wilson, who died on Friday morning, was formerly Miss Harriette Smirle, Ottawa, who graduated as master of arts at Queen's University, Kingston, in 1903, and who was a very brilliant student in her college days. Later she developed a taste for writing and published several little dramatic works. Lately, despite her illness of heart trouble, she was working upon a book, which she had hoped to publish during the next year, but her death leaves it unfinished. Mrs. Wilson was the niece of Robert Cowley, chief inspector of public schools, Toronto, and formerly of Ottawa. The funeral took place from High Park Presbyterian church, Toronto, Monday afternoon.

Appointments Gazetted.

The appointment of Louis Dolphus Villard to the position of industrial guard mason and of Arthur O. Fraser to the position of guard in the Portsmouth penitentiary have been announced in the Canada Gazette.

Depth of Rock Bed.

Workmen are determining the depth of bed rock on the proposed site for Queen's new library building. This is in preparation of information for the contractors.
