The golden sunshine of Saturday softened by the soft blue September haze made ideal weather for the tennis tournament at the Country Club when the club team played off for the Leslie shield, General Emsley and Miss Edith Carruthers winning the honor of having their names engraved on the shield as the champions of 1922. The other players were General Hill and Miss Ritchie, Dr. McKee and Miss Eleanor Phelan, Major Dunbar and Miss Louise Hill, Capt. Lee and Miss Jessie Torrance. Mrs. J. F. Foulkes made tea at the table decorated with autumn flowers. Several tables of bridge were arranged on the verandah for the devotees of that game and those not playing watched the tennis. Among those present were, General and Mrs. R. W. Rutherford, General and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Major and Mrs. Bevan Dunbar, Mrs. James Cappon, Col. and Mrs. Norman Leslie, Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. W. H. Macnee, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. Hubert Ryan, Miss Hora, Miss Helen Fraser, Miss Loretta Swift, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Louise Hill, Miss Jessie Torrance, Miss Laura Kilborn, Miss Alleen Rogers, Capt. Lee, Dr. McKee.

Mrs. W. G. Bailey, Princess street, was the hostess of a delightful children's party on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter Margaret's eleventh birthday. The festivity was a complete surprise to the guest of honor and a merry afternoon and evening was spent playing game and dancing to the music supplied by Miss Frances Devlin, who assisted the hostess. The tea table was gaily decorated with red streamers caught to the lights over head and making a canopy by ending at each place attached to a cracker containing gay caps which when worn by the small guests added to the pretty scene. A huge birthday cake with eleven candles later blown out by Miss Margaret centred the table. The guests included the Messrs. Frances Samwell, Frances McAuley, Rose Mary Gibson, Mary Mahar, Theresa Pilley, Eileen O'Connor, Kathleen Tye, Grace Davis, Marguerite King, Rita McMillan and Isabel Sargent.

Mrs. Ethel White, Ottawa, entertained at the tea hour last week for her cousin, Miss Julia Horsey, who, with Mrs. George Horsey, has removed from Rochester, N.Y., to their old home, Ottawa.

The marriage of Miss Carol Gorman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Gorman, Ottawa, to Major Frank Aldham Smythe, son of the late Dr. Edward H. Smythe, K.C., Kingston, has been arranged to take place quietly on Oct. 17th.

Mrs. J. R. Booth, jr., Ottawa, was hostess at a charmingly arranged luncheon party at the Royal Ottawa Golf Club in honor of Miss Esther Lemieux, whose marriage takes place to-day.

Mrs. Charles Clark and her little daughter, Bessie, Keelerville, are spending the week visiting Mrs. R. J. Stanley, Stella.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, who were in town for their son's wedding on Saturday, have returned to Welland.

Mrs. Everett Birdsall, Birdsall, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kent, "Somersby House."

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston have arrived from their tour through western Canada and the central states. While on the trip they spent some time with their son, Dr. R. K. Johnston, Brock, and their daughter, Mrs. A. McLean, Brownlee. Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Segsworth, who were in town for the Howell-Murray wedding, have returned to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fair, King street, motored to Campbellford on Saturday to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cleugh. They returned today, bringing Arnold Fair, who has been in Campbellford for several months, back with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pearson, who were in town from Toronto for the Howell-Murray wedding, have returned home.

Mrs. Frederick Brownfield arrived from Toronto today to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. Carson, King street.

Miss Carol Gorman, who spent the week-end with Mrs. W. B. Dalton, West street, returned to Ottawa today.

Miss Esther Wagner, Earl street, left for Belleville today, to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. Lingham Wagner.

General and Mrs. Henri Panet, Toronto, spent the week-end in London, Ont., the guests of Hon. C. S. Hyman and Mrs. Hyman, "Idelwyld."

Mr and Mrs. Farrell Dyde and their children, who have been with Principal and Mrs. S. W. Dyde at Loughboro Lake, are now with Mrs. Dyde's father, Rev. J. G. Stuart, London, Ont. Mr. Dyde leaves shortly for New York for research work at Columbia University.

Rev. Cecil Whalley and Mrs. Whalley, Brookville, left for Ottawa today and will be the guests of Rev. Canon Arthur H. and Mrs. Whalley. Mrs. Cecil Whalley expects to remain in Ottawa for a month.

J. P. Gildersleeve, who has spent some months in Denver, Col., with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gildersleeve, returned to town on Saturday, bringing his granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Gildersleeve, with him to spend some time in Kingston.

Dr. Dennis Jordan, Toronto, is in town for the meeting of Queen's Athletic Board, and is with Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, Barrie street.

HOW TO FURNISH A DAUGHTER'S ROOM

Girls' rooms should be dainty, bright and frivolous. Surrounded by her things, a girl finds great contentment in sewing, reading and entertaining her friends. Her personality, even at a very tender age, will clearly be disclosed by the way she cares for her room and the manner in which she places the chairs, makes her bed, and arranges the articles on the dressing-table.

There is no need of a great expenditure of money in buying furniture or hangings for a girl's room. It is necessary, however, to keep in mind the durability and lasting qualities of light-colored materials. They are so tempting and so easily bought, but soon regretted because they either fade or will not wash. Of course, a dressing-table, chairs, a big box, and if possible, a desk, are the necessary things.

With a pretty soft, gray-rose all-over paper, which I have in mind, painted or natural wood furniture could be used. The color scheme of the room we will establish by using dotted swiss—white swiss with a tiny rose dot—for a bed-spread. The pillow-sham is of the same material trimmed with three-inch ruffles. The short curtains, finished with the same width ruffles at the bottom, have as valance a straight strip of the material with three ruffles attached, to match those on the bed-spread. These are held back with tiny bands of rose-colored sateen. The dressing-table and the big box have flounces of rose sateen bound and finished with gray cotton tape; a straight wooden chair painted gray, to correspond with the desk and bed, has a tiny outline of rose-colored paint. A natural wicker chair with a cushion of rose-and-gray flowered cretonne introduces a cheerful note. Rag rugs or dark-gray chenille carpet will make durable and appropriate floor coverings. The lamp-base might be a Dresden-china figure with a shade of silk, dotted swiss, or rose-colored paper. Hat-boxes, plenty of hooks for skirts and waists, an attractive sewing-box, a waste-basket, pin-

Efficient Housekeeping

In the warm months of the year, the sandwiches in the carried lunch-box may be made with delicate and not necessarily nourishing fillings. But in fall and winter, sandwich fillings should be heavier. Try some of the following sandwiches in your child's school lunch, or in the carried lunch for business of factory people:

Nourishing Cheese Sandwiches: Rub one-half pound of mild American cheese through a sieve and put it into a bowl with four tablespoons of butter, four tablespoons of top-milk, one teaspoon of vinegar, a pinch of salt, a pinch of pepper (leave out for a child's lunch) and mix these ingredients together, mashing well, till they form a smooth paste. Sprinkle a few chopped walnut-meats over it and wash these in well, too; or add, instead, a teaspoonful of chopped celery or cucumber. Spread this mixture thickly on buttered bread and cover with another slice of buttered bread.

Beef Loaf Sandwiches: Simply put a thin slice of cooked beef loaf between two slices of buttered white bread. To make the Beef Loaf: Have your butcher put through his meat grinder one and one-half pounds of beef off the rump. Put this chopped beef into a bowl and mix with it three soda crackers rolled finely, one well-beaten egg, one teaspoon of salt, a pinch of sage and a pinch of pepper. Put it into a bread pan, patting it down; pour a very little boiling water on top of it and slip it into a hot oven for two hours. Let cool, then slice for sandwiches.

Mincied Ham Sandwiches: Buy a slice of ham and broil it till tender. Then put it through your meat grinder and mix with it just enough bottled Mayonnaise salad dressing to form a thick paste. Spread this paste onto buttered slices of any kind of bread.

Fried Egg Sandwiches: These are made simply by frying an egg, and letting it cool. Then put it between two buttered slices of bread. It makes a sandwich that is more delicious than one would think who had not tried one.

Macaroni Cheese Sandwiches: Bake a dish of macaroni and cheese in the usual way, using very little milk, however; when cold, slice it rather thickly and put a slice between two pieces of buttered bread. To make this Baked Cheese Macaroni Dish: Boil one-half a package of macaroni (or 1-4 pound) in salted water to cover, and when tender, drain well. Place the cooked, drained macaroni in a small baking dish cushions, perfume bottles and a place for photographs and books will make any girl's room "a thing of beauty and joy forever."

RIGHT WORSHIP.
O Brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother;
Where pity dwells, the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other,
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example
Of Him whose holy work was "doing good";
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
—John Greenleaf Whittier.

A lot of men sing their own praises, yet still have no ear for music. Bread and water love is never immune from relapse.

What the Editor Hears

That the local members of the I.O. D.E. are looking forward to the provincial quarterly meeting to be held in Kingston on Oct. 12th and 13th.

That the members of the Anglican Provincial Synod meeting in London, Ont., were given the freedom of the city by the mayor.

That the girls and women who sold tags for the Kingston General Hospital say that very often it was the rich man who gave the quarter and the poor man the dollar.

That the appreciation of the Child Welfare tent at the Kingston exhibition should encourage the Woman's Institute, always foremost in good works, to establish baby clinics in every village.

That the pumpkins for sale on the market on Saturday gave promise to the boys and girls of their favorite pumpkin pie.

That the promised car line will open up the northern side of the city to the tourists who little realize what fine wide streets and good houses with shaven lawns and gay flowers lie to the north of Princess street.

No rug is really clean until this dirt is removed

Let us show you how the Royal gets the unsanitary embedded dirt

The worst dirt is in your rug—not on it. The jar-of-water laboratory test shows that a large part of the dirt is embedded in the rug. (It sinks because heavier—the surface litter floats.) This embedded dirt is full of sharp grit that cuts and ruins your rugs. And it is the unsanitary dirt—the worst kind of dirt. The jar-of-water test shows how the Royal Electric Cleaner gets this embedded dirt in the only way it can be removed—with a powerful suction scientifically applied. The Royal gets more than surface litter—it gets ALL the dirt. Let our Royal Man clean a rug for you in your home—free, and show you how the Royal gets the embedded dirt—the worst dirt.
