TO TRY AND AMICABLY FIX LOCAL COAL PRICES

Mayor Corbett Calling Conference of Finance Committee and Coal Dealers.

Mayor Corbett is calling a conference of the civic finance committee and the local coal dealers to try and agree upon coal prices for Kingston without referring the matter to Fuel Controller Ellis. Monday morning the city controller received a letter from the fuel controller stating that the price of hard coal in Toronto had been fixed at $15.50 a ton, and that if Kingston wished him to set a price for coal to be sold here a request should be made by the city council and that representatives of the council and the Kingston coal dealers should appear before him at Toronto. Mayor Corbett thinks that the civic finance committee may be able to arrange satisfactory prices by holding a conference with the dealers here. At present hard coal is selling in Kingston from $16.50 to $17.50, according to size.

A MUSICAL SERVICE

Held in Queen Street Methodist Church Sunday Evening.

A special musical service was rendered at Queen street Methodist church on Sunday evening in place of the regular service. This was due to the absence of Rev. Dr. Lennon.

E. W. Skinner conducted the service and gave an interesting address on hymns ancient and modern.

The musical programme was rendered under the able direction of Miss Pearl Nesbitt, organist and choir leader. It consisted of the popular anthem "Son of My Soul" (Dunstan); duet, soprano and baritone (Verdi) by Mrs. Evans and Judge Lavell; male quartette by Messrs. Middleton, Corfield, Allen and McCallum; solo, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" (Liddle) by Mrs. J. Crawford; trio from the cantata "Ruth" (Farewell) by Mrs. J. Evans, Mrs. Crawford, Miss M. Stagg; anthem, "O Clasp Your Hands Together."

Dr. Hafner, Belleville, sang a solo at the morning service.

Suits

Beautiful Suits tailored from all-wool materials—many in plain tailor-ed styles. For business and general wear nothing is perhaps more ser-viceable than the plain tailored suits. Developed from all-wool Tricotine, expertly tailored and nicely trim-med with braid embroidery or but-tons. Others are tailored from soft fabrics, richly embroidered and trimmed with fur.

$38.00 up.

Coats

Luxurious fur-trimmed Coats, tail-ored from soft pile fabrics. Fur is used lavishly on the Coats this year and Fashion has picked this out for her favorite trimming. Some Coats use the fur alone, while others have pretty embroidery work and fancy buttons. Velour, Bolivia, Duvetyn and Pony Cloth are the popular ma-terials, and all shades of brown are very fashionable. Grey, Navy, Sand, Taupe and Black are also very good.

$25.00 up.

Frocks

All Wool Serge and Tricotine Dresses, made in the season's newest styles. They come with longer skirts, novel sleeve effects and pretty trim-mings. Many possess elaborate em-broidery work; others have fancy heading, braid trimming or fancy buttons. All are decidedly pretty, ex-ceptly made and the season's newest style features and trimmings.

$10.00 up.

Draped gowns are very, very new for the present season. De-veloped from rich Silks in a host of new shades—$25.00.
