THE GARDEN DANCE HALL

Madame Cohan Receives Her Diploma as Master of Dancing Teachers.

"Dance—whether you be young or old—dance and the world steps with you—dance and you will lighten your woes and add to your span of life. Age is nothing—it's never too late to learn."

Such is the essence of an interview by a Whig reporter who sought information of the benefits to be derived by knowledge and practice of the "terpichorean" art from Madame S. Cohan, professor of dancing, and manager of Garden Hall, who has recently returned from the annual convention of the International Association of Masters of Dancing held at the Hotel Commodore, New York.

A visit on a Saturday night, or any old time when dancing is held, to the Garden Hall on Brock street, will convince the most skeptical as to the merits of this universal pastime. This well-known dancing academy attracts scores of people, young and old, to the various novelty dances conducted there, and the hall is everything that might be desired as to equipment, orchestra, and modern ventilating, heating, cooling and lighting systems. There is always a friendly and sociable feeling uppermost, and the stranger who visits the hall is soon made "right-at-home". In addition to the regular dances, instruction in the latest steps is given, and private instruction may be obtained if desired. The dances are carefully supervised by Madame Cohan, and nothing objectionable to even the most objective is allowed.

Madame Cohan spent several weeks of the past summer in New York city, where she attended the normal school for dancing instructors and the big convention in the Hotel Commodore. While there she was the pupil of such masters as Prof. Oscar Duryea, Parisian dancer par excellence, and President Lynch of the International Association. She received her diploma as master or dancing teachers after a very intensive course of training and study while visiting Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, Bradley Beach, N. J., Belmont, N. Y., Montreal, in the interests of her art. A study was made of the latest ball-room dances, the fox-trot waltz and the tango at New York, and classes are now being opened at the Garden Hall where the latest steps will be taught.

At one of the dances a week ago, Madame Cohan demonstrated the Parisian fox-trot of sixty-four steps and on Monday night of this week she introduced the modern "radio wave waltz" of fifty-four steps. Various other dances will be taught during the winter season and an endeavor will be made to give the young people of Kingston a golden opportunity to learn the most modern steps in the art as practiced in the larger cities of the United States and Canada. Novelty dances will also be held and a special programme of entertainment has been planned, one of the features being the probable visit to Kingston for one month of Miss Gilmore, New York, a pupil of M. Mensell, and one of the premier toe-dancers in the world. Madame Cohan has had an experience of over fourteen years in dance instruction. These are only a few of the features to be obtained at the Garden Hall, and the novelty events will be advertised in this paper as they appear. Dancing is the great diversion for people who are inclined to take their troubles home, and it replaces that weary expression with a bright smiling face. In other words—enter dancing, exit worry. Let's go to the Garden.

TO ENJOY PERFECT HEALTH

Every Woman's Wish—Read Mrs. Cassidy's Experience

Paris, Ontario.—"For five years I suffered with pains in my back and from other troubles women often have. All of this time I was unfit for work and was taking the different medicines that I thought were good. I saw the advertisement in the papers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have taken it faithfully. I am now in good health and do all my own work. I recommend it to others and give you permission to publish the letter in your little books and in the newspapers as a testimonial."—Mrs. D. CASSEY, Box 461, Paris, Ontario.

This medicine which helped Mrs. Cassidy so much is worthy of your confidence. If you are troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, irregularities, or other forms of female weakness you should give it a trial now. Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. This book contains valuable information.

SOCIAL HYGIENE.

Dr. Bates, Toronto, Gives Address—To Educate the People.

An interesting lecture on social hygiene and the campaign against venereal diseases was given by Dr. Gordon Bates, Toronto, in the Board of Trade rooms on Tuesday evening. The speaker is one of the leaders in government research work and the campaign waged by the Canadian Social Hygiene Council. Several other speakers suggested plans for the formation of a local council to have charge of this educational work here.

In 1921, the Dominion Government voted $400,000 to assist in this work, while $125,000 is now being spent each year by the Ontario legislature in keeping up sixty clinics throughout the province. The present campaign is largely due to the education obtained during the late war, after which the government was interested in forming a society in educating the people in the prevention and stamping out of these various diseases. The speaker remarked that there were several great fundamentals which must be worked on if the problem is to be dealt with. In the Hamilton schools at the present time, social hygiene was taught to the children.

Dr. L. J. Austin addressed the gathering and advocated the formation of a local committee to combat the diseases and to stage an educational programme. It was a problem for the entire community, not for just a few of the citizens. Dr. Austin was later appointed a convener of a committee to be chosen to look into the matter and to interest representative citizens in the work. Dr. Bates will probably visit this city again in the near future, when the plans of the committee will be worked out.

WHAT MINISTERS SAID.

When a Resolution Was Before Conference.

At Toronto, the Methodist General Conference launched into a vigorous debate on Monday on the part Canada was to play should Britain go to war with the Turks. The resolution offered was sent back to the committee as too sweeping.

"Only half a century ago Great Britain deliberately closed the Dardanelles," said Rev. W. G. McCall, of Brockville. "As I understand it, this is not a question of protecting the liberties of Christians in Asia Minor at all. It is merely political, a question of re-opening the Dardanelles. I am not ready to lay down the life of my boy to keep the Dardanelles opened or closed."

"If Britain goes to war with the Turks it will be a religious war," said Rev. Charles D. Baldwin, Sherbrooke. "The Turks will make it a religious war and will do their utmost to break the Christian religion hip and thigh. We might put in the resolution that the Methodists would do their duty. If the Methodists believe it their duty to be in this war, they'll be there. Who can speak for Methodists if we can't?"

OVER HALF CENTURY.

A Lady Lived in Napanee—Died On Tuesday

(From Our Own Correspondent) Napanee, Oct. 4.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas McGraw took place Tuesday morning. Mrs. McGraw passed away on Sunday at the residence of her son, James McGraw. For the past year she has been confined to her bed but throughout all her illness was bright and cheerful. Deceased was eighty-three years of age and had been a resident of Napanee for over fifty years. She leaves one son, James McGraw, Napanee and one daughter, Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, to mourn the loss of a loving mother.

Mrs. M. C. Bogart was taken suddenly ill last Sunday, and lies in a very serious condition. She was seized with a stroke of apoplexy early Sunday morning.

Herbert Wilson is home from the Kingston Hospital where he underwent an operation a couple of weeks ago for appendicitis.

Mrs. George Lewis is in the Kingston General Hospital where she underwent an operation. Miss Diana Miller is visiting friends in New Brunswick.

Dance in Ontario Hall.

The first dance in Ontario Hall this season was held on Tuesday evening, when Graeme (Ray) Gardner and his orchestra, formerly of the Venetian Gardens, Montreal, supplied delightful music for the very enjoyable affair. There was a splendid attendance of young people and the light fantastic was tripped until the wee sma' hours this morning. This well-known orchestra is on tour of Eastern Canada and the United States, before returning to New York city, and it is understood that they will return here about the end of the month to stage a dance in one of the local halls.

Attended Funeral.

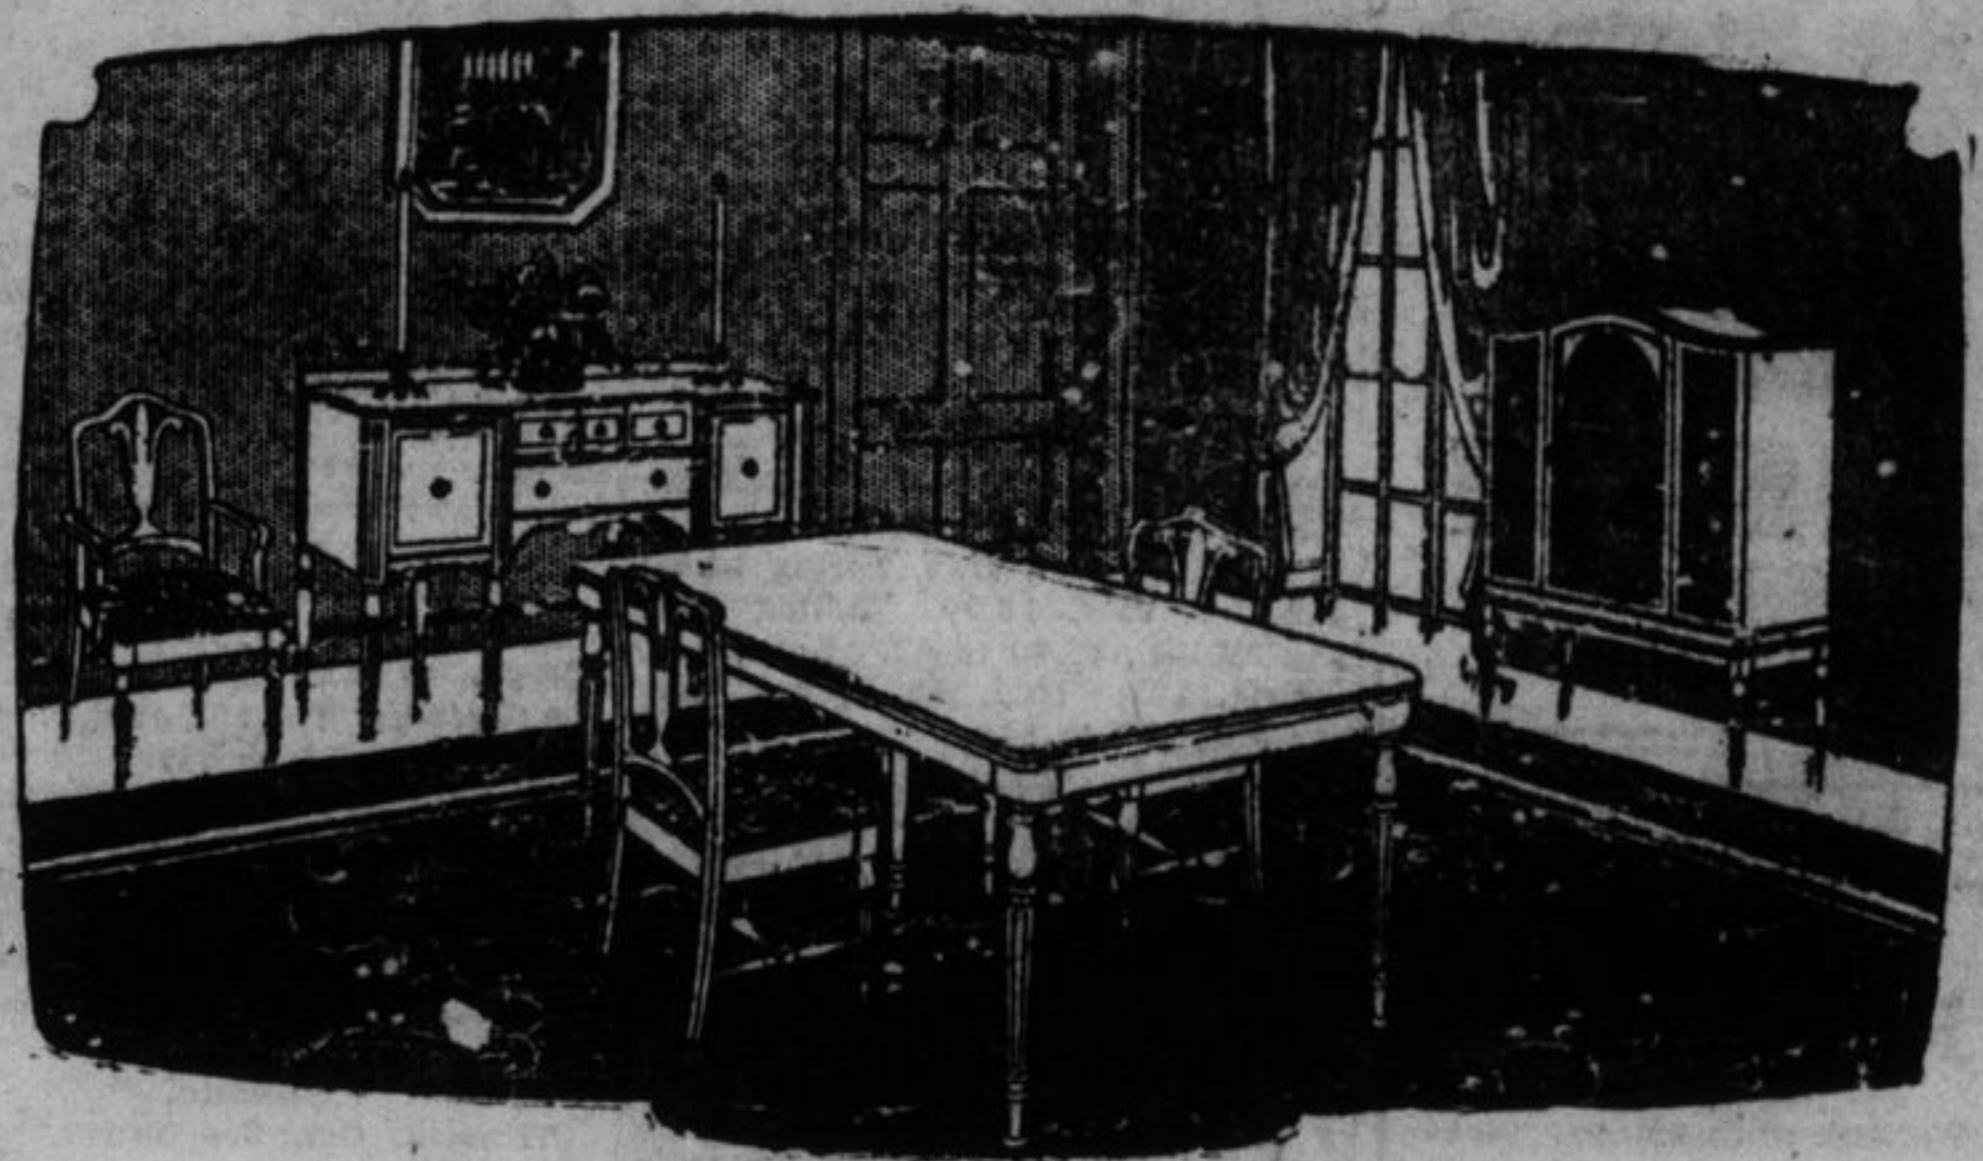

Mrs. A. McCorney, Napanee, returned from Syracuse, N.Y., where she has been to see her brother, who is seriously ill at the Crouse Irving hospital. She also attended the military funeral of her cousin, Irving G. Culver, who was killed in the sham battle on the state fair grounds.
