

From the Countryside

Frontenac

COLE LAKE.

Oct. 3.—The ground is so dry and the water in the wells so low that a good rain would be welcome. Roy Butterill has returned from Belleville. Mrs. A. E. Sturgess, Whitby, and Mrs. Magee, Toronto, are visiting at William Shillington's. Mrs. Vauoughnet, Murvale, at George Potters. Mr. and Mrs. R. Jackson. Miss Hazel Peters and Jack Kennedy motored to the Ore Chimney Mines. Northbrook, Sunday last. Miss Annie Fitzgerald spent Sunday at Chipewas.

MYERS CAVE.

Oct. 2.—Rain is badly needed as the roads are awfully dusty and the water is very low in the wells. E. J. Perry returned on Thursday after attending the wedding of his son, James, on Tuesday at Centreville. Harvey Spencer spent last Sunday at Joseph Perry's. Herby and Levi Hawley called at the Cave Tuesday. Rowland Hamilton spent a few days at his home at Arden. Scotty MacGregor and William MacCauleid called at Joseph Perry's Sunday afternoon. William MacGregor and Ebb Perry spent a few days at Bon Echo last week. William Schwager and John Bay took dinner at the Cave, Friday. Charles MacGregor returned home after an extended trip among relatives and friends at Odessa. Mr. and Mrs. G. Salmund at Cleyne on Saturday evening.

PARHAM.

Oct. 3.—Corn Huskings are the order of the day. A number of the men went to Wagarville on Friday to help fight the fire which destroyed Everett Cronk's barn and drive ahead. He carried insurance. Harry Clow is at home. The Bank of Montreal staff have moved into their new premises. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Howes, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howes and Mrs. Black, Wagarville were at T. B. Wagar's on Sunday. T. A. Wagar had the misfortune to lose two of his foxes. Miss Green and Miss Ritchie are in the city. S. A. Truscott visited the school on Friday. L. Frink and family, Harrowamith, at S. Barr's. Mr. and Mrs. W. Howes and son have returned to North Cobak after spending their holidays here. Keith Black is home for the week-end. A. B. Howes gave a farewell party on Monday evening for Mr. Easton.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.

Oct. 3.—Husking bees are the order of the day. Mr. and Mrs. J. Card, Rev. Mr. Webster and D. J. Cronk attended the R. E. C. convention at Tamworth on Friday. W. W. Hill and A. Parker are both seriously ill with pneumonia. Dr. Moon, Sharbot Lake, is in attendance. Miss McKnight, Godfrey, has secured a position at R. Coulter's. Wilfrid Price has returned home from Selby, accompanied by Messrs. George and Everett Price, also Miss Kathleen Price. A number are attending Arden Fair today. Miss M. McNight, Godfrey, is at J. Godfrey's. Mr. and Mrs. P. Gray at E. Godfrey's; O. Cronk, Long Lake, at J. Price's; Mr. and Mrs. William Barr at Walter Barr's. Mrs. E. Hughes has returned to her home at Pleasant Valley, accompanied by her niece, Miss Nora Cowdy. D. Bell spent the week-end at his home near Odessa. Mr. McCann is relieving at the station, during the illness of W. Hill. Mrs. L. Solder, Tamworth, is at J. Card's. J. Erwin loaded pigs here on Saturday paying 10 1-2 cents a pound.

Leeds

PORTLAND.

Oct. 3.—The cottages on the lake are about all closed for the season. W. H. and Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. Lyons spent the week-end at Lyn, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Lyons. Clare Freeland has moved into A. Gallagher's house on Water street. Mrs. Gore and daughter, Newboro.

spent a couple of days in the village calling on friends. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, who have been visiting Mrs. E. Morris for the past week, returned to Montreal on Saturday. Earl and Mrs. Bolton and Stanley Heath spent Sunday in Brockville.

CHARLESTON.

Oct. 2.—The continued warm weather causes many to linger at the lake. Sunday brought many from a distance in cars and other vehicles. Miss Hazel Burns has taken a position in the drug store of J. P. Lamb & Son, Athens. Mrs. C. Slack and son, Bennie, and Mrs. M. J. Kavanagh and children motored to Brewer's Mills on Sunday and spent the day there and at Joyceville. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelsey has been very ill but is better. It is thought that the corn borer is a thing of the past as farmers do not complain of the pest this year.

CROSBY.

Oct. 3.—Another serious accident occurred here on Saturday when John McCann had one finger severed and two broken on his right hand by an ensilage cutter while filling silos in a manner got caught in the carriers. They rushed him to Dr. Dunn's. Eigin, and had his hand dressed. Then they proceeded to the Hospital in Brockville, to have an X-ray examination. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer and Miss McNamee spent Sunday at P. J. McNamee's, Toledo. Mrs. Thompson, Burridge, spent a few days last week visiting her niece, Mrs. Blake Merriman. George Godkin, Oak Leaf, spent Sunday at W. J. Proud's. W. C. Taylor, Burridge, spent Sunday at Harry Barkers.

JUNETOWN.

Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Earl, and sons, also E. V. Dyke, Fairfield East, spent Sunday at W. H. Franklin's. Splendid weather has assisted the farmers to complete their silo-filling. Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott and son Hubert, Yonge Mills, were guests on Sunday at Herbert Scott's. William Hall has returned home after a week's visit with friends at Apple Hill and Maxville. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Turner, who lately returned from Winnipeg, are comfortably settled on their farm here. Mrs. E. Summers, Mallorytown, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Herbison. Cliff Breakell, and mother, Brockville, spent Sunday at Norris Ferguson's. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Marshall and Vada, Grahamton, were Sunday guests at J. Kirk's.

Lanark

FALL RIVER.

Sept. 30.—The weather has been very favorable for the fall fair. The hum of the threshing mill is heard in this vicinity. A number from around here attended Maberly fair on Sept. 27th. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gray have returned home after spending a week at Kingston exhibition. Rev. Mr. Lehigh, Maberly, held service in the schoolhouse last Wednesday evening. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. S. Ferguson spent Sunday at George McFarlane's; Mrs. Frank Davison and son Archie, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gray; Mr. Alden and Elwood Gray spent Sunday at Wilfrid Wesley's.

FALLBROOK.

Oct. 3.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Lee was held on Wednesday last from the home of Fred Buffin.

WATCH 'EM GO, MISTER

DURING AUTOMOBILE OPPORTUNITY DAYS:

The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ralph. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Mrs. Lee was a much-loved and respected resident and the community has suffered a great loss in her death. Sympathy is extended to her daughters and relatives in their bereavement. The corn cutters are busy filling silos in this locality. The people are busy preparing for the bazaar in Perth in aid of the new hospital. The school fair is over for another year and the children have settled down to business again. Quite a number from here attended McDonald's Corners fair and report a fine display of fruits, baking and fancy work. George Ayerst, Maberly, was in the village on Tuesday.

Prince Edward

BONGARD'S.

Oct. 3.—The social held at Bongard's church on Thursday evening was a success. Mrs. Shepard was the lucky winner of the ring at the bean guessing contest at Picton fair. Mr. and Mrs. J. Allan Harrison were at Cressy on Sunday. Mrs. Wright has returned from visiting with friends at Picton and Bethel. C. Storms and wife spent Sunday at Greenbush. Mrs. Thomas Bongard is visiting friends in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Harrison, accompanied by Mrs. H. Clarke, Picton, were guests at Mrs. J. D. Bongard's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, Wampoons, were visitors at Mrs. Scott's recently.

OLDEST RESIDENT DIES.

L. H. Stover, Camden East, Passes Away in 84th Year.

Camden East, Oct. 4.—Will Burgoyne, Fenelon Falls, spent a few days with his brother James, also his sister. Mr. and Mrs. Caigh, Picton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John McCaul, Rochester, N. Y. motored here and spent Thursday of last week with old friends. John Simmons is having his house shingled. Rev. Mr. Nickle, Newburgh, was around making pastoral calls on Wednesday last. Mrs. Cummings, Morvan, and sister, Miss Raymond, Detroit, spent Wednesday last with Mrs. L. H. Stover. James Yeomans, Kingston, has purchased Frank Coakwell's residence. E. W. Longmore attended the Methodist Sunday school convention at Tamworth on Friday last.

Mrs. Fred Addis spent the week-end in Kingston with relatives. Miss Cecelia Oster, who is attending the convent at Kingston, spent the week-end at her home here. Mr. and Mrs. John Bell and children, Moscow, spent Sunday at her mother's, Mrs. Edmund Switzer. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Segsworth (nee Ruby Leroy), Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Riley and family on Sunday. Mrs. Charles Riley is spending a few days with friends in Kingston. The W.C.T.U. held a tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Perry, on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James Haydon, Kingston, were guests of Miss L. Martin, on Tuesday last.

The death occurred on Tuesday night of L. H. Stover. Deceased had been in failing health for a long time but the end came peacefully. He was the oldest resident of the village, being 84 years of age. The funeral was held in the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, under the Masonic Order, Rev. Mr. Nickle officiating. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife. The floral offerings were beautiful. The death also occurred on Tuesday night about twelve o'clock of Leo Hinch, son of James Hinch. He had been in poor health for about two years. Deceased was only about thirty-three years of age. In religion he was a Catholic. The funeral will take place on Friday morning to the Catholic church at Centreville.

In politics in this day and generation may be found formation, friction and fiction and the greatest of these seems to be fiction. Nowadays a man somehow manages to get along with questionable morals if he only has an unquestionable bank account.

Our main object in selling you for Fall is to sell you for LIFE, and whatever it is that brings you in this time, what you get at the LION will bring you BACK NEXT TIME. An honest measureful makes friends.

Suits and Overcoats made to your measure.

Leave Putting on Airs To the Phonograph

Suits and Overcoats made to your measure.

Wear a Suit or Overcoat that's correct in style—nothing else becomes any man. Wear what's right and you can't be wrong. The keenest minds in the country have worked together, planning Suit and Overcoat styles for you. Wear the newest, wear the smartest, wear what's right, and you'll find what's right at the LION and nothing else. We make it our business to have the sort of SUITS and OVERCOATS that invite yours. We are showing without a doubt the largest and smartest range of Young Men's Overcoats ever shown in Kingston, in all the smartest colors and the new shoulders—the Overcoat you ought to have or none at all. That's our IDEA in wishing to sell you here. ANYBODY can sell SUITS and OVERCOATS. Don't let "ANYBODY" SELL YOU. Get all clothes worries off your mind by getting a LION SUIT or OVERCOAT ON IT, at a popular price.

THE RIGHT HAT AND CAP FOR THE RIGHT FACE

The right Hat for a face that isn't right—the smartest and largest range in the city at those same low prices.

MEN'S ALL-WOOL JERSEYS

A regular $4.00 value—to go at $2.75

Smart combination colors.

MEN'S TWEED RAINCOATS

In sizes 38, 40 and 42. Regular $10.00 value. To go at $5.95

We are showing the largest and smartest range of MEN'S OVERCOATS in the city. All new English Cloths in the latest style. See the Balmoral—a real smart Coat.

HOOTS, MON

Louder Than Lauder

The new Scotch Ties have arrived in all Clans.

MEN'S TWEED RAINCOATS

Regular $16.00 and $18.00 values—to go at $10.00

Sizes 38 to 44

MEN'S EXTRA STRONG WORKING TROUSERS

To go at $1.75

Others up to $8.50 Match up that old Coat—over 3,000 pairs to choose from. Sizes 32 to 50.

MEN'S OVERCOATS

Regular $20.00 to $25.00 values. Only broken sizes.

To go at

$16.00

Fall weight.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS

in smart patterns. Regular $22.00 values. To go at $16.00

Sizes 34 to 40.

See our range of Men's Dress Gloves, Sweater Coats, All-Wool Pullovers, 50 different lines of Men's Working Shirts, 35 different lines of Men's Working Mitts, 20 different lines of Men's Underwear in Combination and Single Garments, 75 different lines of Men's Hose, including all the newest ideas in all wool English Hosiery, Genuine Velour Hats, the latest ideas in Caps, Gaberdine Coats, etc.

THE LION CLOTHING HOUSE

"LOOK FOR THE LION IN THE WINDOW" :: 356 KING ST., KINGSTON

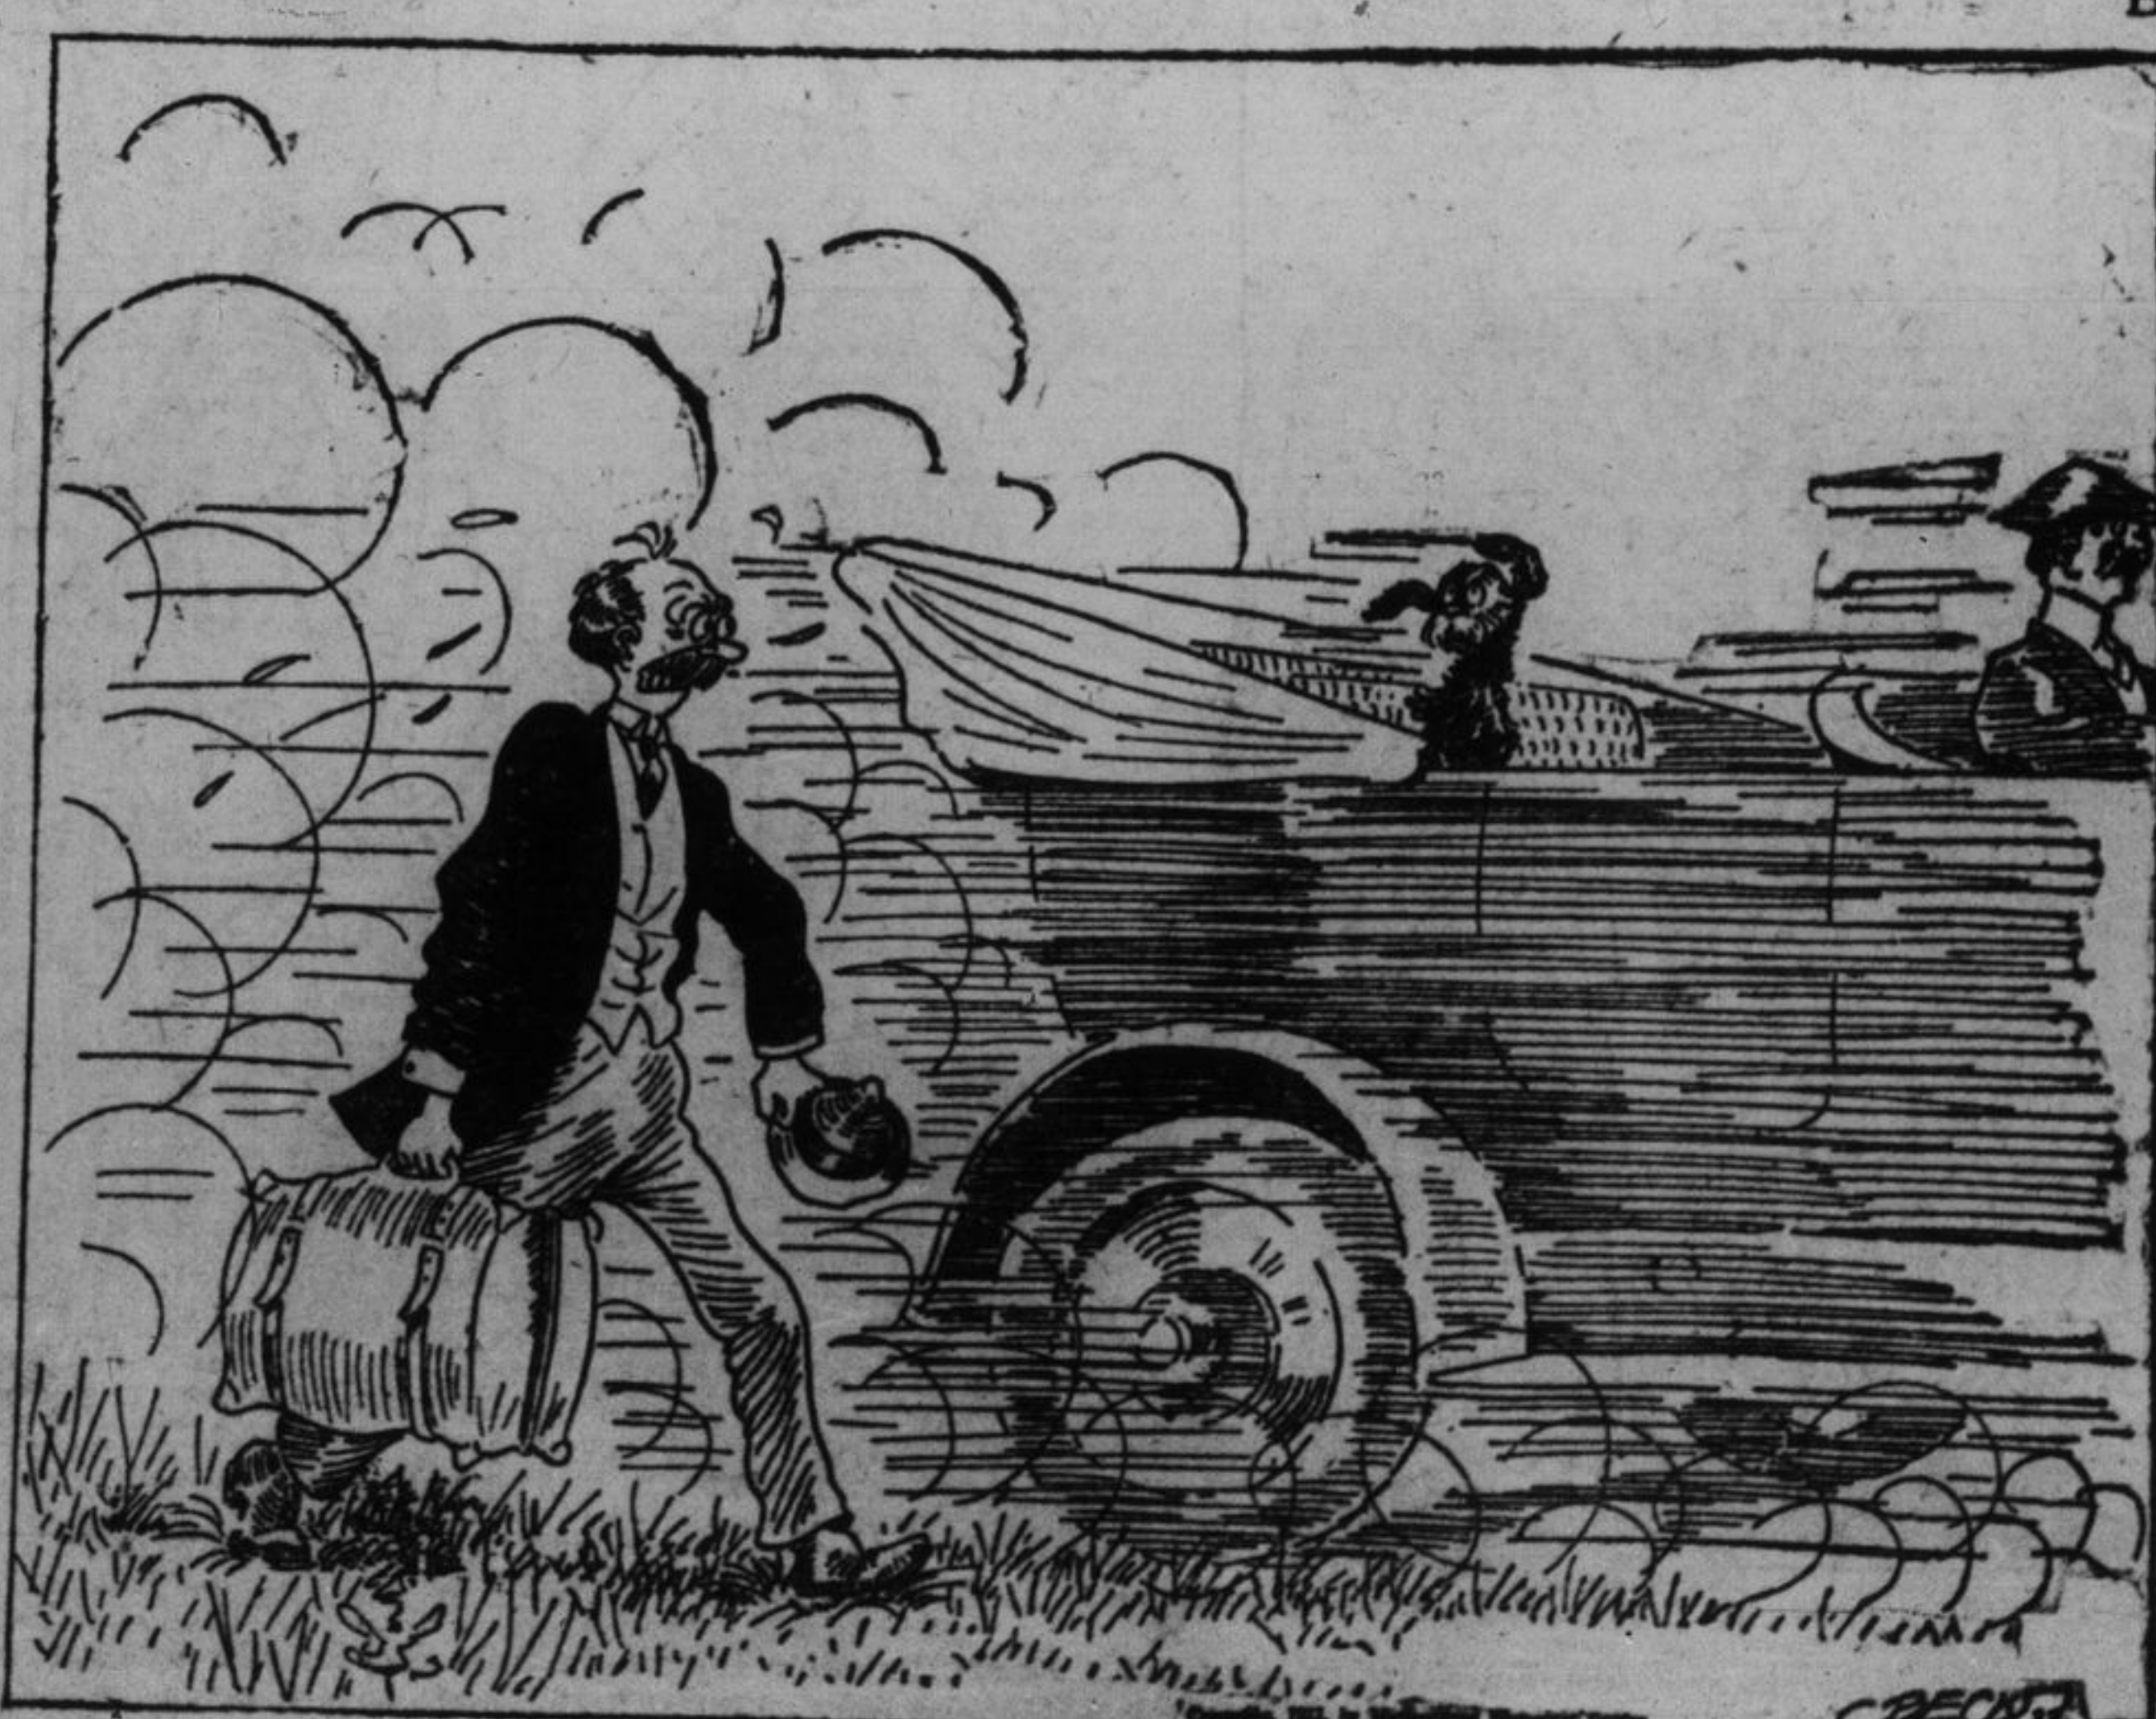

ONLY TEN DAYS FOR GRAND CIRCUIT RACING With only ten days of grand circuit harness racing proper, the 1922 season's championship honors for a driver are still in doubt. As regards mounts won, Thomas W. Murphy leads Walter R. Cox by a gross margin of less than $2,500, while their win race score is 29 to 25 in favor of Cox. Racing records to the close at Coakwell show that Cox has participated in no less than 123 of the 236 finished races, while Murphy's number has appeared in 96. As stated, Cox has topped summary lists in 35, as placed second in 28, third in 22, fourth in 15, and unplaced in 28, including two divisions in second and third position. Besides his 29 win races, Murphy has secured second position in 23, third and fourth 12 each, and unplaced in 20.

Another Record Gone. At Helsingfors, Finland, Hannes Kolehmainen, the Finnish runner, broke the world's record for 30 kilometres doing the distance in one hour, 47 minutes and 13.3 seconds. (The previous record was held by A. Stenroos, also of Finland, who finished in one hour, 48 minutes and 6.9 seconds in 1915.

DOWN THE ROAD

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY.

Sailors going on board the U. S. destroyer McFarland, bound for Constantinople.