THIS YOUNG LADY
CAUSES BIG STIR

Her Appearance on Princess Street This Morning Talk of the Town.

If you are a young lady how much stir would you cause by appearing on Princess street? Would you like to have everyone nodding and smiling and saying "There she is," or "That's the one," or such remarks? Perhaps you would not, but there arrived in town this morning a young lady who caused a big stir at once and did not in the least mind all the attention she received. In fact, the more people took notice of her, the better pleased she seemed. Her name is Sally Ann Moir and the Whig man met her in Sakell's and again, later in the day, at the Crystal Palace. She wears a rich brown coat, is pleasingly proportioned, "made up" without too much display, and Oh, man, so sweet! Even the girls are crazy about her already, and the boys—well, they've just gone silly over the new arrival. Fear not, jealous young ladies, Sally Ann will not steal your young man, but he may share her delights with you, for Sally Ann is a chocolate, the latest output by Moir's and she certainly is some classy confection.

The Sally Ann is being sold and shown at Sakell's and the Crystal Palace along with window displays of many other of the Moir lines. The well-known X.X.X. sign on candies, the stamp of the super-fine Moir product, is recognized as a sure indication of perfection, and many varieties, in bulk and package, are being shown in the windows of the above stores. See the Theatre Package, the Casino Package, the Moir special Assortment, and many other attractive lines, but above all, ask for Sally Ann and give yourself a treat.

QUESTION OF REWARD IS NOW BEING RAISED

Following Disposal of Charges Against Upton Boys and Fred Bryant.

Now that the case of the Upton boys and Fred Bryant has been disposed of, the question of the payment of rewards offered has been raised, and it is understood that the matter is now receiving the consideration of the authorities. In the connection with the murder of Constable Richard A. Beard, at Napanee, the Ontario government and the Napanee authorities offered rewards for information which would lead to the arrest of the guilty parties. A reward was also advertised in the Kingston newspapers regarding the sensational robbery at Mahood Bros.' store. The Upton boys and Fred Bryant were placed under arrest following information received by the Kingston police. The goods stolen from Mahood Bros.' store were recovered.

WEDDING AT NEWBURGH.

Of Clarence F. Hanna and Miss Ruby Jane Quail.
The wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Quail, Newburgh, on Thursday, of their daughter, Ruby Jane, to Clarence Frederick Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Hanna. Rev. George Nickle performed the ceremony. The house was decorated with flowers and autumn leaves, the ceremony being performed under an arch of leaves. The bridesmaid was Miss Gladys Quail, and the groomsmen, Dr. George Pixley, sister and cousin of the bride respectively. The maids of honor were Miss Salata and Miss Rockwell, both sister graduates of the bride, from Faxon Hospital, Utica, N. Y. Little Miss Celia Paul acted as flower girl, while her mother, Mrs. George Paul played the wedding march.

The wedding gifts were very numerous, and the house was crowded with guests, only the immediate relatives of the bride being present. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace. Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Meriman and family, Poland, N. Y. After the wedding luncheon had been served, the happy young couple left on a motor trip through Western Ontario and New York state and upon their return they will reside in Newburgh.
