QUEEN'S BIG INITIATION

is to Take Place at the Richardson Stadium on Thursday.

This is "initiation week" at Queen's University, and sophomores and freshmen are keyed up with expectations of considerable amusement. Freshmen and freshmen have been attracting attention for the past week with their queer garb. Each faculty has forced the freshmen to don a different costume and their supremely ridiculous appearance has aroused comment in every quarter. The chief efforts have been directed to headgear and arms men possess large straw hats tied with green ribbon while the Meds. have "white ladies" frame hats also tied with green. In addition, vests and collars are turned back to front, trousers are worn inside socks and highly colored garters complete the strange garb. For the big initiation, Thursday has been chosen and the Richardson stadium will be the scene of action.

The freshmen have also been attracting attention in the class rooms and on the streets. Some of them are wearing different colored stockings, others have huge green ribbons on their hats with their coats turned back to front, still more have green ribbon bows tied around their ankles and the most comical of all have strawberry "pill boxes" tied with green ribbon on their heads. All freshmen are receiving a hearty welcome in classes where their ludicrous appearance draws heavy stamps of approval from the lordly seniors. The freshmen's initiation will be held on Wednesday evening and they will make the customary vows of allegiance to the Levana bear, and a full ceremony of initiation will be held.

Motor Boat Burns.
Picton, Oct. 11.—A cabin-cruiser motor boat belonging to Percy Hart was burned to the water-edge at Adolphustown. The occupants, Mr. Hart, Arthur Goodwin and one other, had to jump and swim ashore to save their lives. The fire was caused by one of the members of the party looking for a leak in the gas tank with a match.

Smith's Falls council voted $500 for relief of Northern Ontario fire sufferers.

HIS GOOD WORK.

The Part Dr. MacLachlan Has Played in Smyrna.

The Toronto Globe of Tuesday has the following:
"It will be news to most people that the head of an important educational institution in Smyrna, which was the scene of recent outrages by the Turks, including the destruction of a large part of the city by fire, is a Canadian. This is Dr. Alexander MacLachlan, President of the International College, a native of Ontario, who graduated from Queen's University, Kingston, in 1884.
"Although now 70 years old, Dr. MacLachlan has taken an active part in the defense of Armenians and Americans in the recent troubles, and has been mentioned in messages to recent British papers. The London Daily Telegraph of September 14th says in a message from Smyrna: "Dr. MacLachlan, head of the International College, was attacked and severely beaten yesterday by a band of 20 brigands, who took all his money and valuables. His wounds are not serious." The Times of September 20th reports, in connection with trouble in Smyrna, that Dr. MacLachlan "was advised to seek safety on board a ship, but refused to do so, and remained to look after his Armenian students."
"Dr. MacLachlan, following his graduation at Queen's, attended the Union Theological Seminary, New York. The International College is the outgrowth of a boys' school begun in 1891 by Dr. MacLachlan. In the course of its evolution it became a college, with its present name, in 1903, and its trustees legally incorporated in the United States.
"In spite of the very abnormal conditions subsequent upon continued warfare in Asia Minor since 1904, the college was able to maintain its work without interruption, and, in addition, it assisted very materially in relief activities during the war and after the armistice. For many years the college observatory supplied the city of Smyrna with standard time; until the outbreak of the war daily bulletins were prepared and sent to the Meteorological Offices in London and Washington."

ASOP'S FILM Fables
THE FABLE OF THE TWO EXPLORERS

EVERY MAN FOR HIMSELF

Paul's Jones

A cat and mouse sailed to and fro ballooning o'er the Arctic snow. Their air-ship sank and they fell out. The Eskimos chased them about; The cat then ditched the mouse—poor soul—
Fled home, and claimed he'd found The Pole.
In time the mouse reached native land And showed the cat up for a fraud.
