CONCERT AT THE MOWAT.
Given by Concert Party From Cooke's Church.
On Tuesday evening a concert party from Cooke's church gave a fine concert at Mowat's Hospital. The dearborn of the Mowat provided, and Miss Bessie Rogers, choir leader and organist of Cooke's church, accompanied the various artists in their numbers. The programme included solos by Miss C. Dick, Allan Kerr, Alan Lemmon, Mrs. E. Treneer; violin solos by Miss Jean Douglas; duet Mrs. Treneer and Mr. Kerr; ladies' quartette comprising Mrs. Horton, Misses K. and M. Eason, Mrs. Treneer; male quartette including Messrs. T. Donnelly, Harry Filson, H. W. Newman and A. Lemmon; mixed quartette consisting of Miss Eason; millinery chorus by the choir, and two new Scotch songs introduced by Jack Elder in full kilts and regalia. These numbers were interspersed by rousing selections from the orchestra composed of Bert McAuley, Matt Donnelly, George Newlands, J. Dunn, J. Foden and W. Christmas. Daily refreshments were served by the Cooke's ladies to the infirm patients who attended the concert, and after the concert had presented votes of thanks to the choir, the orchestra, and the secretary, the gathering dispersed with the singing of "The King." The committee have arranged that next week's concert will be provided by the Women's Auxiliary of the local "Y," and on the same evening (next Tuesday) the Mothers' Council of the "Y" will also provide an entertainment for the patients at Sydenham Hospital where the recreation room is now ready for weekly entertainments.
