COOKE'S CHURCH LOSES REV. W. TAYLOR DALE

Its Brilliant Young Irish Minister Accepts a Call to Dexter, N.Y.

Rev. W. Taylor Dale, the popular minister of Cooke's Presbyterian church, Brock street, has received a hearty and unanimous call to a church in Northern New York state, which it is understood he has accepted. He placed the matter before his session Tuesday evening, and regret was expressed at his intended resignation. An effort will doubtless be made to induce him to remain.

During his holidays of last summer, which he spent at Chaumont, N.Y., he was requested to preach in the Presbyterian church at Dexter during the minister's absence. This he did on a few occasions, and the people were so pleased with him they have now invited him to become their permanent pastor. In order to extend the field of his labor, he was also offered the church at Brownville, nearby, with a fine manse at Dexter. It is understood that the salary and the opportunity are both much greater than he has enjoyed here.

Rev. Mr. Dale is a graduate of the Theological College at Nottingham, England, and of Dublin College. He came to Canada nine years ago, first serving on pastorates in Northern Ontario and in British Columbia. For some time he filled most acceptably the position of assistant at Cooke's church, Toronto, leaving there four years ago to accept the pastorate of his present church in this city.

Since coming to Kingston, Mr. Dale has identified himself with many movements that were for the uplift and benefit of the community. He is a member of the Rotary and Canadian Clubs, secretary of Queen's University Theological Alumni Association, and was last year president of the ministerial association of the city. In all of these organizations he was a force for good, a worker who could always be depended upon to do his share and a little more for good measure. If he decides to leave Kingston, the city will be much the poorer because of his going. Mr. Dale is still a young man, and one cannot but feel that this promotion is merely one of the steps upward that he is destined to take. He has been diligent in his particular business, and will doubtless fulfil the Biblical prophecy touching the diligent man; "He shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men." His hosts of friends, while learning with regret of his intended departure, will yet wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor.

Among the members of his new congregation will be Judge Aliverson, one of the younger judges of the supreme court of New York state.

Evidence of Earnestness.
"The boys tell us that Queen's will have the best football team ever this year, and I sincerely believe they will," said George VanHorne. "I do know by the sale of my Queen's sweaters that the students are in keen earnest, and already many of the boys who will gain in the assault on McGill have ordered suits for their first visit to the metropolis. One thing they can always depend on my promise of delivery."—Adv't.

For the Fire Sufferers.
Already the sum raised at Chalmera church, to be sent Prof. J. O. Watts and his family, following the big fire in Northern Ontario, has reached over $260, and other subscriptions promised will raise the fund to $300, which amount will be sent to Prof. Watts, from Chalmers congregation, in the course of a day or so.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our darling daughter, Phyllis E. Postney, who went to be with Jesus, October 11th, 1921.

Her weary hours and days of pain,
Her sleepless nights are past;
Her ever patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Rest on, dear Phyllis, thy task is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more,
A faithful daughter, true and kind,
None on this earth, like you we find.

One year has passed, and yet to memory dear,
Your name we breathe and shed a tear,
Time cannot sever love so good and true,
For this day brings to us grief anew.
—Mother, father, sisters and her faithful friend, Daisy.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Norman Wilson, who was killed in action in Flanders, on October 11th, 1918.

"Rest on, dear son, thy task is o'er;
Your willing hand will toil no more,
A faithful husband, both true and kind,
None on this earth like you we find,
Four years have passed, and yet to memory dear,
Your name we breathe and shed a tear,
Time cannot sever love so good and true,
For this day brings to us grief anew.
—Sadly missed by wife, daughter and son.

Interesting Styles of the Fall Season

Never were the styles more interesting than this season. Frocks, Suits and Coats are developed in rich woollens and silks, and artfully embellished with delightful bits of fur, embroidery or lace.

The warm shades of brown are well liked, and of course Navy Blue and Black are always fashionable.

Only a personal inspection can do the variety and individuality of this showing justice.

The New Winter Coats

Exact re-productions of the latest styles, fur trimmed and handsomely embroidered.

Never were Coats so pretty as they are this year. Such delightful models imported from Canada's leading style centres — rich fabrics, expert tailoring and handsome trimmings mark these Coats to be very stylish as well as practical. Many are luxuriously trimmed with fur and handsomely embroidered, while others are in plain tailored style with well-fitting collar, pockets, belt and perhaps a little embroidery at the back or on the sleeves. They come in fashionable shades of brown, and in numerous other colors that are very pretty and stylish too.

$25 and upwards.

Children Study Better When They Wear Right Shoes

When a child has a stomach-ache or other youthful illness, you soon find it out. But their shoes can be wrong without their knowing it. Soft, plastic foot bones simply give way before pressure at the wrong points, and the danger is often overlooked until too late.

The safest, surest, best way is to have each pair of shoes carefully fitted here—then their growing feet will develop naturally and be healthful.

Boys' Brown or Black Elk—size 1 to 5 1/2 $4.00
Youths' Brown Elk, 11, 12, 13 $3.50
Girls' Black Calf Strong Boots—size 11 to 2, $2.95
Child's sizes 5 to 10 $2.25
Infant's sizes 5 to 7 1/2 $1.95
Better Shoes at higher prices, but all good value.
