Piccadilly Young Man Charged With Seduction

At a special session of the police court Thursday afternoon a young man named Garnet Reynolds appeared before Magistrate Farrell on a charge of seduction, the charge being that he had "unlawfully seduce one, Stella Percy, who lives at Bell-wood." The accused, who lives at Piccadilly, pleaded "not guilty," waived examination and will elect before a judge. The girl in the case lives at Bell-wood.

Wedding Ceremony Performed at Wolfe Island on Wednesday

At Wolfe Island on Wednesday morning, Miss Ella McRae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McRae, was united in marriage to Kenneth Kenny, son of Captain James Kenny, both of Wolfe Island. Rev. Father Fleming officiated. There were in attendance many relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

Thursday Market Prices.

There was a small market on Thursday. Fresh vegetables and fruit were the chief articles for sale. They were not plentiful and the prevailing price was 40 cents a dozen. Chickens sold at 90 cents and $1.00 each. The prices asked for cauliflower are high compared to those for all other kinds of vegetables ranging from 10c to 25c each. Apples are cheaper, as they are being offered in larger quantities. The farmers are not yet bringing lamb or pork to the market, but as the weather gets colder, dressed lamb and pork will appear.

The Bank Clearings.

The total bank clearings at Kingston for the week ending Oct. 12th, 1922, were $679,677.82; previous week, $808,009.31; week, 1921, $776,735.63.

Today (Columbus Day) is being observed by the Frontenac Council, Knights of Columbus.

The occasion will be marked by a complimentary supper which will be held this evening in the Knights of Columbus hall. A quiet wedding was solemnized in Belleville on Sept. 27th, when Agnie Olive, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher, Tweed, became the bride of Frederick Payne, Trenton.

The question of accepting or rejecting was out, introduced by the Canadian railways, and affecting their shippers, will be submitted to a referendum.

At the Brockville assizes the action of Datoe vs. Warren for alleged alienation of affections was settled out of court.

A STEAMER AFIRE IN PACIFIC OCEAN
