BRITAIN HAS VERY HEAVY POTATO CROP

Raises Half a Million Tons in Excess to Its Home Needs.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Great Britain has a heavy potato crop. According to advices received by the department of trade and commerce, the production of potatoes in England, Wales, and Scotland this autumn will amount to from 4,500,000 to 4,700,000 tons. As 4,000,000 tons are sufficient to meet normal domestic requirements, there will be a surplus of about half a million tons.

The acreage under potatoes in Great Britain still remains about 25 per cent. above pre-war level and the general yield this year is expected to be about 10 per cent. above the average.
