MEETING OF THE W.C.T.U. CHOWN MEMORIAL TABLET

Addressed by Dr. Sara Detweiler, Organizer of Travelers' Aid Work.

To Be Unveiled Friday at Queen's—"Bud" Thomas Is Tennis Champion.

An interesting meeting of the local Christian Temperance Union was held Tuesday afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. parlors. Mrs. H. W. Day presided, and during the afternoon, Dr. Sara Detweiler, superintendent and organizer of Travelers' Aid work in connection with the Dominion W.C.T.U., gave a talk upon this branch of the work, tracing it from its inception in New York city, in 1885, up to the present. She showed only too clearly how very necessary such work still is at all points in our dominion. Dr. Detweiler closed her remarks with an urgent appeal that all W.C.T.U. workers should ever remember their motto, "For God, For Home and For Country," and strive to do their utmost in seeking to put down the many evils that are being practised throughout the land.

The memorial tablet to be erected to the memory of the late G. Y. Chown, registrar of Queen's for many years, arrived at the college Wednesday morning. The tablet will be unveiled at the autumn convocation, to be held in Grant Hall Friday evening. At this gathering an oil painting of Hamilton Cassels, Toronto, past chairman of the board of trustees, will be unveiled.

Besides the awarding of the degrees in arts, science, medicine and theology, there will be the presentation of an honorary degree. The annual conference of the Queen's Theological Alumni Association is to be held at the college Oct. 30th to Nov. 3rd. An extensive programme has been arranged. The Chancellor's lectureship will be given by Dean O. D. Skelton, who, in three lectures, will speak on "Some Present Day Forces in International Relations." Among the other speakers on the programme are Prof. Roy; Rev. A. D. Matheson, Montreal; Rev. P. L. Jull, Lakefield; Rev. F. S. Milliken, Harriston; Rev. James Faulk, Cornwall; Norman Macdonnell, Toronto; Rev. Principal W. H. Smith, Vancouver; Rev. A. V. Brown, Picton; Rev. A. J. Wilson, Nanaimo; Vincent Massey, Toronto; Rev. H. W. Cliff, Arnprior, and Rev. R. H. Bell, D.D.

OBITUARY

Late W. H. Halladay, Lyndhurst. Lyndhurst, Oct. 16.—An aged resident of Lyndhurst, in the person of William Henry Halladay, passed away in Brockville on Thursday, Oct. 12th, following an operation. An almost life-long resident of Lyndhurst, he will be missed greatly in the community, where he was a prominent farmer. Deceased was born at Elgin in 1847, moving to Lyndhurst some years later. He was a staunch Liberal in politics and a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving are his widow, three daughters, Mrs. James Danby, Lyndhurst; Mrs. Samuel Morris, Soperston, and Mrs. Ford Whitmore, Plum Hollow, and four sons, Case, Chve, Harry and William, all at home. The funeral was held on Sunday from his late residence at Elgin Methodist church, and interment took place at the village cemetery. Rev. Mr. Que officiated. The pallbearers were Clive, Harry and William Halladay, James Danby, Samuel Morris and Ford Whitmore.

Death of Sister Mary Bertille. The Sisters of Providence mourn the loss of one of their bright young companions in the person of Sister Mary Bertille. Stricken with appendicitis, she was removed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital on Sunday, October 8th, where an operation was performed with apparent success. She grew better each day, and was expected to return home before the end of the week. On Monday evening at 5.45 o'clock, after partaking of some nourishment, she took a sudden change, and before the clock tolled the hour of six, she had passed to her eternal reward.

The lamented Sister was the daughter of the late Thomas Coyle, Rochester, N.Y., formerly of Wolfe Island. She was educated at the parochial schools conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph in Rochester, N.Y., and at the age of twenty-four entered the novitiate of the Sisters of Providence, Kingston. After her profession, she spent some time at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, but not being blessed with a robust constitution, she was recalled to the mother house. For the past year or more she has not enjoyed very good health, but was always able to assist at the religious exercises of the convent and attend to her other duties. Possessed of a sweet, gentle disposition and manner, she was dearly loved by all her companions, all of whom were shocked and grieved at her sudden departure.

Besides a sister in the community, Sister Mary Claudia of St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Brockville, she has two brothers living, James and Vincent, also three sisters, Miss Agnes, who was present at the funeral, Mrs. Uhl and Mrs. Orrell, all of Rochester, N.Y. Among other friends present were her three aunts, Mrs. Coyle, Kingston, Mrs. Dignam and Miss Flynn, Wolfe Island. Solemn requiem mass for the repose of her soul was offered by His Grace, Most Rev. M. J. Spratt, D.D., with Rev. Dean McDonald, cousin of the deceased, as high priest, Rev. A. J. Hanley, deacon, Rev. R. J. Coyle, cousin, as sub-deacon and Rev. E. M. Leacy, master of ceremonies. After the singing of the Libera the remains were taken to St. Mary's cemetery, and placed in the sisters' burial plot. The pallbearers were, Messrs. Roy Theriault, Edward Fleming, Barron McCarthy, T. James, Edward Brice and Howard Madden.

To Receive Degree. Lawrence B. Smith, B.A., Brockville, has been notified that he is to receive the degree of B.D. at the convocation of Queen's University on Friday, having successfully completed the course of study by passing the required examinations held last month.

"Bud" Thomas is the singles tennis champion of Queen's, having won out in the final game with MacLachlan. Three sets decided the contest. The doubles schedules is now being run off and the representatives of Queen's in the intercollegiate tournament being chosen. The tournament is slated to open in Kingston on Oct. 19th, and it is expected that the Rockwood courts will be used as Queen's are unsuitable. The students are making preparations to invade Toronto a week from Saturday, when Queen's rugby team plays there. Lists are being circulated through the years so that the A.M.S. may be able to ascertain the number that would go to Toronto if it were possible to get a special train.

AN ENJOYABLE CONCERT.

Given at Sydenham Hospital by Y.M.C.A. Mothers' Council. Tuesday night the patients and staff of Sydenham hospital were splendidly entertained by a concert party arranged by the Y.M.C.A. Mothers' Council. William Smith, purchasing agent of D.S.C.R., made a capable chairman, and on behalf of the boys of Sydenham hospital, welcomed and introduced the various entertainers, who contributed as follows: Solo, Miss Bruton, J. Alexander, Miss Driver, Miss A. MacDonald, Mrs. J. F. MacDonald; duet, the Misses Gordon; violin solo, by Mr. Duncan; reading, Miss Posselwhite. The accompanists for the various artists included Miss Posselwhite, Mrs. W. A. Patterson, Mrs. James Boss and Mrs. Leman A. Guild, the latter leading the entire audience in a fine sing-song, which was heartily enjoyed.

One of the pleasant items on the programme was the distribution of abundance and variety of tempting fruit by the ladies of the Mothers' Council, who also visited all the bed patients with tempting trays of fruit. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the entertainers. The concert which was also booked for the Mowat hospital Tuesday night was postponed until Wednesday owing to unforeseen circumstances.

Most citizens thought there was frost last night, but while the thermometer took a sudden drop it did not reach freezing. Queen's University observatory showed 38 degrees above zero, the lowest record so far this fall.

ANGLICAN GIRLS' CLUB.

Of Queen's University Elected Officers on Tuesday Afternoon.

The Anglican Girls' Club of Queen's University held the first meeting of the season in St. James' parish hall on Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Minnie Lenz; secretary, Miss Marjorie Booth; assistant secretary, Miss Helen Tofield.

An invitation was received from Mrs. J. C. Pomeroy, president of St. George's Cathedral Welcome and Welfare committee, to an afternoon tea at the Warden's residence, King street, on Tuesday, Oct. 24th, which was accepted. It was decided to give a party to the children of the Orphan's Home just before Thanksgiving, and other social service plans were discussed. Rev. T. W. Savary came in with a kindly word of welcome, and an invitation to use St. James' hall at any time, which was much appreciated.

ST. GEORGE'S A.Y.P.A.

Addressed by Dean Starr on His Trip to Europe.

At the weekly meeting of the A.Y.P.A. of St. George's cathedral, held Tuesday evening, an inspiring address was given by Dean Starr, who spoke on his trip overseas, his visits to the battlefields of France and Belgium, and visits to many interesting points in England and France.

Dean Starr in the course of his address, referred feelingly to the hundreds of graves of Canadians, who fell overseas, and spoke of visiting cathedrals in Europe. Dean Starr Napoleon's tomb, where he suddenly heard a familiar voice, and turning, encountered Miss H. Chown of this city. Continuing his address in regard to the battlefield, Dean Starr told of the blooming of the poppies in Flanders Fields while he was there, and the eloquent manner in which he told of his trip greatly impressed the gathering.

He also told of his visit to London, Paris, and other points, and of visiting some of the most famous Kingston's First Snowfall. Kingston had its first snow storm of the season on Wednesday morning, and while it was not of long duration, it was quite lively while it lasted.
