

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

TO-NIGHT

EVG. 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00
Seats now on sale.

HARVEYS GREATER MINSTRELS

and OCTOROON BEAUTY CHORUS
Genuine Darkey Jubilee Singers and Coon Shouters

FOUR IN ONE
A MUSICAL-VAUDEVILLE-GIRL-MINSTREL SHOW COMBINED

FEATURING INTERNATIONAL STARS

50-Minstrel Songs and Queens-50
Traveling in their own Fine Steel Train

12 High Class-High Salaried 12
Vaudeville Acts

Something NEW in Vaudeville and NOVEL in Minstrelsy

The Greatest Singing "First Part" and the Most Sensational Vaudeville Ever Seen With Minstrels—Minstrels De Luxe

Street Parade Daily and Band Concerts in Front of Theatre Preceding Each Performance

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

3 DAYS, COMMENCING

Thursday, Oct. 19

OUR OWN

Rex Stock Company

REX IN A REAL REX COMEDY ZANA

"IN WALKED JIMMY"

VAUDEVILLE BETWEEN ACTS

PRICES 20c, 30c, 50c. GALLERY . . . 10c.
SATURDAY MATINEE: CHILDREN, 10c.; ADULTS, 25c.

Attraction Extraordinary

STARTING TOMORROW

Norma Talmadge

"THE ETERNAL FLAME"

THE DRAMA MAGNIFICENT—3 SUPREME REELS

For Norma Talmadge—for the Art of the Screen—another pillar of unique achievement. Vast scenes, magnificent in investment of color and crowd, will hold your eye—but ever holding your heart will be the glory, romance, drama, the ineffable appeal of this wonderful woman.

A-L-L-E-N ATTEND MATINEES TO AVOID NIGHT CROWDS

PRICES
Matinee 20c
Evenings 40c
Tax Included

Auction Sale

JOHN BURLEY ESTATE.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Instructions have been received from the Public Trustee, Administrator of the estate of the late John Burley, deceased, to offer for sale by Public Auction at—

THE BRITISH AMERICAN HOTEL, KINGSTON, ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17th, 1922, AT 2 P.M.

The following valuable properties, situate in the City of Kingston:

PARCEL NO. 1.—Solid grey stone building, containing store and offices known as 100 Princess Street, having a frontage on Princess Street of about 24 feet with a side frontage on Wellington Street of 40 feet more or less.

PARCEL NO. 2.—Solid grey stone building containing store and offices known as 102 Princess Street, having a frontage on Princess Street of 24 feet more or less by a depth of 30 feet more or less.

PARCEL NO. 3.—Solid brick building containing store and offices known as 188 to 192 Wellington Street, having a frontage of 40 feet more or less by a depth of 60 feet more or less.

PARCEL NO. 4.—Solid grey stone building containing store and offices known as 182 Wellington Street, having a frontage of 28 feet more or less on Wellington Street, with yard in rear.

TERMS OF SALE.—The properties will be offered subject to reserve bids. Purchasers will be required to pay 10% in cash on date of sale and to sign an Agreement to complete the purchase within sixty days thereafter or on production of deed when the balance of the purchase money shall be payable in cash.

The properties are sold subject to existing tenancies, particulars of which will be furnished at time of sale. Possession or receipt of rents and profits will be given on completion of sale. For further particulars apply to—

R. W. ALLEN, Auctioneer, or AMBROSE SHEA, Barrister, Cor. King and Brock Streets, K. W. WRIGHT, Osgoode Hall, Toronto.

JACKSON METTIVIER

Phone 1071. LADIES WEAR SUITS & CLOAKS Phone 1071.

Semi-Annual Sale

Women's Hosiery and Gloves

Commencing Tomorrow (Thursday) for one week only

This Important Autumn Event Brings Genuine Savings to the Women of Kingston.

PURE SILK HOSIERY
Every pair of Hosiery in this Sale is new fall merchandise—the latest and most-fashionable shades and patterns for Autumn and Winter wear—Stockings that are not only smart and attractive but that will give service and satisfaction to the wearer.

98c

ITALIAN SILK HOSIERY
Regular $3.50 to $4.00
145 pairs first quality, Ribbed, Glove Silk Hosiery, in all colors, pointed heels.

275 pairs heavy quality, plain, Italian Silk, pointed heels—Black, Brown, Grey and White. Semi-Annual Sale—pair

$2.95

Silk and Wool SPORT HOSE
Open-work Ribbed and Plain Silk and Wool Sport Hose—the latest novelty for fall wear. Shades are Cordovan and White and Black and White.

$1.95

Pointed Heel SILK HOSIERY
Heavy weight, first quality, full fashioned, pointed heel; all shades; limited quantity. Semi-Annual Sale—

$1.95

ENGLISH SPORT HOSE
Reg. $2.00
Fine quality, All-wool with Silk Embroidered Fox in the new shades for fall. Semi-Annual Sale—

$1.45

GREY SUEDE GAUNTLETS
Regular $4.00 quality; Perrin make; Grey Suede Gauntlets with gusset and strapped wrist. Semi-Annual Sale

$1.95

SPORT HOSE (All Wool)
Ribbed or plain, tan or heather shades; English make, in all the newest weaves. Semi-Annual Sale

95c

"HOLEPROOF" PURE SILK
First quality, ribbed tops, all colors, including the new shades of Camel and Lark. Every pair bears the maker's label. Regular $2.00. Semi-Annual Sale

$1.69

NOVELTY GAUNTLETS
Made in finest quality Chamousette Suede in the light shades of Fawn and Tan with strapped wrists. Semi-Annual Sale

$1.35

JACKSON-METTIVIER LIMITED
114 PRINCESS STREET

All Postage or Express Parcels sent prepaid.

They've stuffed the Ballot Boxes—only 900 voters in town and 1,743 votes are cast.

IF in your heart you are playing the game square, no matter what others may think, you'll win out in the end.

See DOROTHY DALTON

IN "THE SIREN CALL"

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

ALSO

ROUND THREE "THE LEATHER PUSHERS"

CHAPTER FOUR "ROBINSON CRUSOE"

TO-NIGHT "IF YOU BELIEVE IT, IT'S SO"

COMING! "FOOLISH WIVES"

STRAND

LAVISH IN PRODUCTION, SUPERB IN APPEAL, AGLOW WITH THE VINE OF LIFE—

Adapted from Honore Balzac's "La Duchesse de Langeais," with all the color and pomp and glory of the Second Restoration Period in the Court of Louis XVIII, it is an epic of the screen, and Norma, as the beautiful and flirtatious duchess, is superb.

Infuriated by the act of her husband, the Duc de Langeais, who wagers on her purity, she becomes the heartless coquette of the court. She toys with men's hearts once too often. General Armand de Montriveau, friend of Napoleon, learns he is but the object of her vanity, that she is laughing at his love. Transformed into a man of violent passion, he makes her captive to inflict a terrible revenge, but somehow he cannot bring himself to brand her forehead with the mark of infamy. He releases her. Then comes her suffering. She realizes her love for him. Her letters are returned unanswered. Every article she employs to attract him fails. Heartbroken, she goes to a convent, determined to renounce the world. Meantime her husband is killed in the wars and de Montriveau learns that her love is not abate. In a powerful denouement the lovers are brought together in happy reunion.

Magnificent are the settings revealed in this gorgeously spectacular photodrama. Particularly so is the great ballroom scene in the Court of Louis XVIII, with hundreds of cavaliers and their ladies on the floor. The photography is the last word in the art of the cinematographer, and the direction by Frank Lloyd is the work of a master craftsman. Conway Tearse, as de Montriveau, is a most convincing artist, and Adolphe Jean ing humanity, it at times brings out the smiles.

Adapted from Honore Balzac's "La Duchesse de Langeais," with all the color and pomp and glory of the Second Restoration Period in the Court of Louis XVIII, it is an epic of the screen, and Norma, as the beautiful and flirtatious duchess, is superb.

Infuriated by the act of her husband, the Duc de Langeais, who wagers on her purity, she becomes the heartless coquette of the court. She toys with men's hearts once too often. General Armand de Montriveau, friend of Napoleon, learns he is but the object of her vanity, that she is laughing at his love. Transformed into a man of violent passion, he makes her captive to inflict a terrible revenge, but somehow he cannot bring himself to brand her forehead with the mark of infamy. He releases her. Then comes her suffering. She realizes her love for him. Her letters are returned unanswered. Every article she employs to attract him fails. Heartbroken, she goes to a convent, determined to renounce the world. Meantime her husband is killed in the wars and de Montriveau learns that her love is not abate. In a powerful denouement the lovers are brought together in happy reunion.

Magnificent are the settings revealed in this gorgeously spectacular photodrama. Particularly so is the great ballroom scene in the Court of Louis XVIII, with hundreds of cavaliers and their ladies on the floor. The photography is the last word in the art of the cinematographer, and the direction by Frank Lloyd is the work of a master craftsman. Conway Tearse, as de Montriveau, is a most convincing artist, and Adolphe Jean

Norma Talmadge in "The Eternal Flame"

NORMA TALMADGE

At the Allen, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

AMUSEMENTS

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

Tonight Harvey's Minstrels. People who have visited the Hagenback-Wallace shows the past three years will remember the novelty act presented by the dark-skinned "Australian Waiters" known among the public as the "Australian Whip-Crackers" and were the one act that the people talked about after the show. This act has been secured by Manager Harvey for his Greater Minstrels which will be at the Grand Opera House tonight. The remarkable work done by these peculiar people is almost beyond description, coming as they do from a tribe of "head hunters," they acquired their talent in the wilds of Africa and Australia. This act is one of many which will be presented by Mr. Harvey in what he calls, "The Only Show of its kind in the World."

"IN WALKED JIMMY"

IS REAL REX COMEDY

Do you remember "Rex" in "The Man Who Owned Broadway" and "Two Many Crooks" and "Twenty-Four Hours of Truth" and many others of this like? It has been a long time since we have seen our little stellar comedian in a real "Rex" part, but next week he will have a chance to return to one of those comedies that seem to have been made for him. As Jimmy in "In Walked Jimmy" he is, to put it mildly—immense. This comedy is so different from anything else that the company has ever played, that it will be a surprise in itself. A comedy of optimism, it is rightly called. Never until you have seen this play do you really realize the value of a smile. Do you know there is psychology to color? Well there is. When you look out of the window, first thing in the morning, and it is pouring rain, do you feel the same as you would if the sun were shining brightly? If your room is full of bright pretty colors, do you feel as blue as you would if you had it filled with uninteresting drab colored things? Meet a man with a scowl, and he smiles from you, meet him with a smile, and he is yours. Well, anyway, aside from an evening of wonderful fun and entertainment, you learn at last just how much that little old smile of yours is worth. The Two Browns will appear again in vaudeville.

NORMA TALMADGE SCORES

NEW SPECTACULAR TRIUMPH

IN "THE ETERNAL FLAME"

After "Smilin' Through" it may sound almost too good to be true to say that Norma Talmadge has made an even better production. But after viewing her in "The Eternal Flame," the First National attraction which begins an engagement at the Allen Theatre tomorrow, it became evident that here beyond all doubt is the greatest photodrama of Miss Talmadge's career, her incomparable achievement to date.

Further than that, "The Eternal Flame" proves the supremacy of American art on the screen even over the most ambitious and massively spectacular productions of foreign producers. For "The Eternal Flame" is a massive and spectacular production, a great human drama that tugs at the heart strings, moistens the eyes, grips with its dramatic sweep and warms the soul. Yes, and in its all embracing band, the Duc de Langeais, who wagers on her purity, she becomes the heartless coquette of the court. She toys with men's hearts once too often. General Armand de Montriveau, friend of Napoleon, learns he is but the object of her vanity, that she is laughing at his love. Transformed into a man of violent passion, he makes her captive to inflict a terrible revenge, but somehow he cannot bring himself to brand her forehead with the mark of infamy. He releases her. Then comes her suffering. She realizes her love for him. Her letters are returned unanswered. Every article she employs to attract him fails. Heartbroken, she goes to a convent, determined to renounce the world. Meantime her husband is killed in the wars and de Montriveau learns that her love is not abate. In a powerful denouement the lovers are brought together in happy reunion.

Magnificent are the settings revealed in this gorgeously spectacular photodrama. Particularly so is the great ballroom scene in the Court of Louis XVIII, with hundreds of cavaliers and their ladies on the floor. The photography is the last word in the art of the cinematographer, and the direction by Frank Lloyd is the work of a master craftsman. Conway Tearse, as de Montriveau, is a most convincing artist, and Adolphe Jean Menjou is admirable as the Duc de Langeais. Others in the cast who contribute to one of the finest pictures of a decade are Wedgewood Nowell, Rose Mary Theby, Kate Lester, Thomas Ricketts, Irving Cummings and Otis Harlan.

Dorothy Dalton Tomorrow.

Dorothy Dalton has always been a favorite in Kingston, particularly when she appears in a real full blooded out-door picture. She will be the featured star at the Strand Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, in her latest Paramount offering, "The Siren Call." On the same programme will be Round Three of "The Leather Pushers," and Chapter Four of "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe."

The Yukon is a fascinating country. Anything about the life of that great wilderness is always interesting to the larger majority of citizens of Ontario. Dorothy Dalton, a girl who plays red-blooded roles better than many men, is giving a Yukon picture that promises to be as good, "The Flame of the Yukon." It is a story that teems with colorful action and takes the spectator back to the days of the Alaskan gold rush.

Dorothy Dalton is dazzling in her characterization of a dance hall girl who is torn between two emotions—love for a real man who appreciates her and duty to a faithless husband. David Powell is ideal as the leading man and Edward J. Brady makes a splendid villain. While the story is being unfolded on the screen some hair-raising stunts are introduced. One scene where a canoe goes over a water fall will make you grasp your seat.

"The Leather Pushers" has proven to be an attraction well worth the price of admission, and as each round is shown it grows in popularity. "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe" make excellent entertainment. Remember "Foolish Wives" opens next Monday and remains for only three days.

MARRIED AT NEWBURGH.

Miss Ruby Quail Becomes Bride of Clarence Hannah.

Newburgh, Oct. 17.—Potato picking is the order of the day and a good crop is reported. The Red Cross Society aided by the council and others have been helping the fire sufferers in Northern Ontario. The Public and High School teachers of our village attended Convention at Niagara last week. Miss A. Sat-ton, graduate nurse, of Watertown, N.Y., is visiting her parents here.

On Thursday evening of last week, Miss Ruby Quail and Clarence Hannah were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Quail.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fluke, Yarker, have moved into a house on Church street. John O'Connor has purchased the Wilson property adjoining his own. Claude Vandervoort, Yarker, spent the week-end with his brother here. Mrs. A. Joyce, Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Madden.

KINGSTON COAL PRICE TO BE FIXED SHORTLY

But Will Not Be Below $16.50

—Conference With Fuel Controller.

In Toronto on Tuesday afternoon, the city council of Kingston and the local coal dealers were represented before the Ontario fuel controller, J. A. Ellis, who heard an application from the city that he set the price of coal in Kingston for the winter. The price to be set will not be on the cargoes being brought in by vessel this fall but on coal brought in by rail, as much of the supply will have to come in cars after the season of navigation is closed.

The city council was represented by Mayor Corbett and Ald. Laturney and Graham, and the coal dealers by R. Crawford and J. F. Sowards. The arguments of both were heard, and Mr. Ellis said he would give a decision in a week's time. The coal dealers held that $17.50 was the best rate they could give Kingston, and produced their figures on costs.

The controller said that the basis of price would be that of Toronto which he had fixed at $15.50. As it costs one dollar more to bring a ton of coal to Kingston by rail than to Toronto, the price for Kingston could not be under $16.50. The price for Niagara Falls has been fixed at $15.50 and Ottawa at $16.50.

NO FORMAL MEETING OVER IRREGULARITIES

Principal Taylor, of Queen's, Makes Statement About Board of Reference.

The Montreal Star of Tuesday had the following item:

"Professor Brown, of McGill, President of the Inter-Collegiate Athletic Union, told The Star today positively that a meeting to discuss reported irregularities in Inter-Collegiate football and been held in Kingston last week."

REMOVAL NOTICE

W. H. FRANCIS, PAINTER

Has moved to 433 DIVISION ST. Drop a card or phone 185J and you will receive prompt attention. Workmanship guaranteed and prices right.

SPORTING NEWS

U. OF T. TO SEND TENNIS TEAM HERE

Although it was not expected that the University of Toronto would send a tennis team to the intercollegiate meet here on Thursday, the announcement of the members of the team has been made. The players are: J. Lyons, Larkin, Ham, N. J. Enderdt, Phillips and Williams. The tournament is billed to run three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday and will be played on the Rockwood Hospital courts.

Thomas Leads.

The elimination singles in the tennis tournament at Queen's resulted in a victory for "Bud" Thomas, the rugby player. On Tuesday afternoon he defeated Ian McLachlan, the runner-up, after a fast furious contest which attracted a large number of spectators.

First must give place to last, because last must have his time to come, but last gives place to nothing, for there is not another to succeed. Railroad rates in Po'and will be doubled, beginning with November 1st, it is announced in Warsaw.

An Announcement

F. C. HAMBROOK wishes to announce that he is opening a

NEW CAKE AND PASTRY STORE

115 BROCK ST.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21st

Choice assortment of all kinds of CAKES, PASTRY and HOME-MADE BREAD. Phone 1925w. on Friday for a trial order for Saturday delivery.