GANANOQUE. Oct. 18.—The price of coal, which has been a bone of contention between the dealers and the consumers, again engaged practically the whole of last night's session of the town council. The final outcome was to leave the matter open until the price had been fixed for Kingston, when it was agreed to accept an increase of fifty cents per ton to cover the extra freight to Gananoque. There was a goodly representation of citizens at the meeting. This evening, Rev. Dean Kehoe will unite in marriage Mrs. Nellie Shine, John street, and G.T.R. Conductor Francis Benoit, Montreal. Mrs. Shine has spent practically her whole life in Gananoque, where she has always been held in highest esteem, and will be missed greatly by a large circle of friends, especially by the congregation of St. John's, as she was one of their ablest church workers. The couple will take up residence in Montreal. Dr. and Mrs. Mabey entertained informally on Tuesday evening by way of a little farewell musicale to Miss Eselle deLong, who is leaving Gananoque within the next few days. Among those present and who contributed towards a pleasant evening were Miss Gussie Dempster, Miss Sadie Meggs, Mrs. Stedman, Messrs. Sine, Allen, Clow and Scott, and the Misses Seal. Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor, King street west, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Frederick J. Loughton, Wednesday, October 18th. ST. LUKE'S PIE SOCIAL. Event on Wednesday Night Well Attended and Much Enjoyed. In point of attendance, programme, and refreshments, the social held in St. Luke's hall on Wednesday night, will go down into history as one of the best. The hall had been splendidly decorated for the occasion by the Ladies' Guild, who had charge of this affair and the various numbers were heartily enjoyed. At 8 o'clock the rector, Rev. J. de Pencier Wright, took the chair. Arbuckle's splendid orchestra put on the "curtain raiser," which received
