It appears that at the close of the last session at Ottawa, Mr. Crerar stated at the conference of Progressive members that he could not go on indefinitely holding the position of leader as well as being head of the Grain Growers Limited. It was not stated, however, which position he would relinquish, but sooner or later it would be necessary. At this meeting the possibility of a fusion with the Liberal party was also discussed, but since that time nothing further has been done in the matter, Mr. Kelner states that he has no knowledge of any conference to be held at Winnipeg, and feels that if such a meeting of western Progressives is to be held, he would know of

METHODISM NOW IS MORE TOLERANT

"Let Your Conscience Be Your Guide"; Liberty in Pleasures Recognized.

Toronto, Oct. 20.-Canadian Meth odesm is now adopting a more modified attitude toward amusements.

Years ago there was a positive command in the Methodist discipline to the members to refrain from indulgence in cards, dancing or theatregoing. Later, there was a footnote appended to the discipline, replacing the barrier, and while leaving the matter to the individual conscience. its effect was unfavorable to these The amusements.

Now the church, instead of banning amusements, calls on her people to use care and discrimination to distinguish between the wheat and the chaff. One of the final acts of the general conference was to approval to the following findings of the committee on the state of the whole work:

"We desire to recognize the liberty of all people to a full measure in regard to all legitimate pleasures, and yet urge that in pursuing the things of passing happiness we do not let our liberty become a cause of offense + to others.

"We urge our people to exercise all care and discrimination in all our · amusements.

"This is a pleasure-loving age, and our environment begets the disposition to become careless on many things which mean much to the life and welfare of the church.
