What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

Rex Stock This Week.
There is no use our saying it, but the fact remains, the Rex Stock Company certainly draws bigger crowds with comedy than anything else. Not but what they play drama very well indeed, in fact some of their best work has been heavy drama, but nevertheless, as Rex says, "The customers want to laugh," and he seems to have made that his creed, and mission in life. Rex has the faculty of not going to either extreme. Absolute farce is not a good diet for an audience and they soon weary of it. On the other hand they have proved that they don't want drama, therefore the happy medium must be found, and Rex has hit it, with a line of comedies, that while they are comedy all through, have just enough heart interest, and human touch to please all and give a little substance to the play. His choice of play for this week is very good. Most of us are familiar with the story of "The Man on the Box," and we cannot imagine a more amusing coachman, or a more vivacious, pleasing and pretty Betty than Rex and Zana. Joe Kelly has the part of the young friend, and Bill Seymour plays Count Karloff. "The Man on the Box" will be the offering at the Grand for the last three days of this week, and from the look of the scenic department, it is going to have a very swaggar stage setting.

"Human Hearts."
Remarkable for strength of story, acting and direction, "Human Hearts," at the Allen Theatre today, stands forth as one of the greatest motion pictures seen here in many months. House Peters, the star, again proves his right to be termed one of the finest emotional actors on either stage or screen today. "Human Hearts" is the story of family life in the Ozark Mountains. Peters is seen as Tom Logan, a simple-hearted son of the soil, who looks about the world with trustfulness and helpfulness.

"Foolish Wives" Is Great.
Ask your friends who were at the Strand Theatre last night to see "Foolish Wives" what they thought about it. They will tell you they have not seen such a production for years. As to its story it is one that will make you talk, and for scenery nothing better has been shown on a screen in Kingston. "Foolish Wives" is the biggest picture of its kind brought to this city. It cost more than a million dollars to produce and when you see it you will believe that and wonder how they did it so cheaply. You will be amazed. Be early tonight.

ORANGEMAN 65 YEARS.

The Burial of Late William Hadden at Wellington.
Wellington, Oct. 21.—The funeral of the late William Hadden was held on Saturday afternoon from his late residence, Station street, to Wellington cemetery, with Rev. J. W. Robbins officiating. The services were held under the auspices of the Orange lodge, of which the deceased was a member for sixty-five years. His brother who died two years ago, was the oldest Orangeman in Canada at the time of his death, which was in his ninety-eighth year.

Bert Davidson has purchased L. Smith's farm, and also the residence of W. Richardson on the Lake Shore road. Mrs. Richard Grant visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKenna last week. Charles Pearce has purchased the residence formerly owned by William Clinton, at Concession and Main streets. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McFaul have gone to reside at Ploughs-kepin-on-the-Hudson.

The death of Mrs. John Tice occurred at her late home here on October 15th. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Ameliasburg. She leaves a husband, one daughter, Mrs. Walter Nelson, and one son, Bruce. Service was held to Wellington cemetery, Rev. J. W. Robbins officiating.

T. G. Raynor, Ottawa, visited relatives here on Sunday. Mr. Dixon, Kingston, was the guest of Albert McDonald this week. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morrison attended the funeral of J. J. Morrison this week. Dr. J. B. Ruttall is confined to his bed with a serious illness. Mrs. Sanford, Eldorado, has been visiting her two sisters here. Mrs. C. E. Bowerman and Miss Benson. Robert Purtell, Picton, conveyed the Sisters of Mercy to Wellington, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. McMahon. Mr. and Mrs. Burdett and Mr. and Mrs. Harna, Ameliasburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robbins on Sunday last.

Orphan's Guild Euchre.
In spite of the disagreeable weather the euchre held in the recreation hall of the House of Providence, under the auspices of the Orphan's Guild, with Mrs. P. Melville and Mrs. J. Melville, convenors, was quite a success.

These ladies were assisted by Mrs. P. Grattan, Mrs. J. Kehoe, Mrs. M. Murphy, Mrs. E. Roberts, and the Misses B. Bedore and L. Kehoe. Mrs. C. Diamond presided at the entrance. Mrs. P. Haffner was the winner of the ladies' prize, the gentleman's prize going to F. J. Todd. There were twenty-nine tables in play.

A Workman Injured.
On Tuesday morning a workman named Compeau sustained a painful accident at the new Queen's heating plant when some pipes fell and struck him on the left ankle. He was conveyed to the General Hospital where he was attended by Dr. I. G. Bogart. Mr. Compeau is married and his family reside at 17 Rideau street.

L. O. D. E. TO ASSIST.

G. W. V. A. Members in Their Poppy Sale on Nov. 11th.
The ladies of the local branches, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, have offered their assistance in the poppy sale on Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11th, according to information received at the Monday evening executive meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association.

The arrangements for the big Poppy Day planned for this year were discussed at length by the members present, and if the weather is favorable, the receipts should be very satisfactory. In accord with the custom inaugurated last year, a percentage of the money contributed will be donated to relief work, and this year it has been decided to give the money to unemployment and poor relief of the city.

COL. GRANT MORDEN
He has resigned from the board of the Empire Exhibition management following the quarrel over the use of Empire products only. Some of the members of the board stated Canadian goods and Canadian wood were not good enough for use in the Exhibition.

A SYDENHAM EVENT.

The St. Paul's Anglican Anniversary Dinner and Entertainment.
Sydenham, Oct. 23.—The anniversary dinner and entertainment in connection with St. Paul's church, Sydenham, was held on Wednesday evening last. An organ recital given in the church by the Rev. Canon Smith, Cataragui, was much enjoyed. A sacred solo, well rendered by J. Sedgwick, and one by Miss Mary Leech, were much appreciated.

Dinner was served from 6.30 to 8.30 in the basement which was decorated for the occasion by the young people of the church. The tables looked very inviting. A capable committee supervised the preparation of the dinner and many who partook thereof expressed their appreciation of the same. A bevy of ladies and young girls waited attentively at the tables. A number of young men poured hot tea and coffee.

After the meal was served, an enjoyable programme was given consisting of community songs, a brief speech from Rev. Canon Jones, Kingston, Rev. Mr. Stafford and Mr. Sine. Dean Starr, of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, then gave a brief outline of his recent visit to the Old Land and France, referring in touching terms to the poppies blooming amid the crosses over the graves of the late war heroes. He referred also to the hopeful spirit of England at the present time amidst all her trials.

Rev. Canon Smith, of Cataragui, favored the audience with the stirring song "The British Lion." Miss Smith sang very sweetly "The Same Old Story." Miss Daisy Woodcock, Harrowsmith, a young girl of promise, sang very acceptably "Smilin' Thru." Mr. Sedgwick, always a favorite, gave a solo in his usual happy style. Percy Foxton also sang a solo. Mr. Foxton is always heard with pleasure. Dr. Craig, Verona, delighted the audience with several songs. Dr. Craig is bubbling over with music and cheerfulness. Mr. Sine testified to his having been a good student and quite a favorite while attending the Sydenham high school, and also referred in appreciation terms to the efficient manner in which Mr. Sedgwick acted as accompanist.

The rector, Rev. T. Leech, thanked Mrs. Sedgwick not only for her kind helpfulness on this occasion, but on many former occasions. He also expressed his thanks to all who had helped with the programme and dinner. The National Anthem brought a happy evening to a close. Messrs. A. Campbell, and G. Barclay acted as vestry and basement doorkeepers.

AMARDALE STILL WINS RACES ACROSS BORDER

Amardale, the famous Wolfe Island pacer, sold last year to Rochester, N.Y., stables, is still winning races on American tracks. He won the 2.10 pace and Free-for-All at Hemlock, N.Y., and the 2.12 mixed at Rochester after five heats. His numerous colts about Kingston have a record to live up to, and their owners all expect to develop Amardale II.

Queen's Suffered The Most.

The Toronto Globe says: At Hamilton on Saturday Queen's and Tigers were penalized so often for offside interference that the crowd was yelling for the whistle to be taken away from Ross Craig, one of the officials. While one side was perhaps penalized as much as the other, Queen's had the misfortune to draw their penalties in situations where it cost them dearly.

They Go All Ways.

There will be a general exodus from Kingston to Toronto over the week-end and the travellers will go as best they can. The latest way has been offered by J. D. Godkin, who will charter his big closed Ro bus to a reasonable rate. His big closed coach would make comfortable and chummy travelling and it will not be long before his offer is snapped up by some Kingston group or college club.

THE MERCANTILE LEAGUE

Baseball Representatives Wind Up the Season on Monday Evening.

An executive meeting of the Kingston Mercantile Baseball League was held in the Whig building on Monday evening, when the business of the past season was concluded and arrangements for 1923 considered. Encouraging reports were presented concerning the past playing season, and the officials and members of the league are very optimistic concerning the future of this growing organization.

The financial report, as read by Treasurer Buffam, showed a net balance of almost $230, and when it is considered that the league started the season with a balance of $6, some idea may be obtained of the efficient management and splendid support given by the Kingston fans to the league under the leadership of President "Jimmy" Kane.

The members present at the meeting were shown the trophies to be presented to the Plumbers and the Retailers, as champions and runners-up respectively in the league. The former team have been awarded splendid silver shields as emblems of their success, while each member of the Retailers will receive a leather belt with a silver buckle. These trophies, together with the Arthur Stiver cup, emblematic of the Mercantile championship, will be on exhibition in one of the local stores probably at the end of the week.

There was considerable discussion concerning the prospects for baseball next year, and plans are already going ahead to give the fans of Kingston baseball of the very highest calibre. The annual banquet of the league will probably be held within the next two weeks, and this promise to be a gala affair. A special committee was appointed to make the arrangements.

A hearty and unanimous vote of thanks to President Kane, Vice-President Harrison and Secretary-Treasurer Buffam for their efficient work during the season, and everyone present at the meeting voiced their approval of the service rendered by these officials who have placed the league on its present sound and popular basis.

AMAZING RUSH OF TORONTO TICKETS

Supply Falls Far Short of Demand at Queen's—Johnston Hurl.

There has not been such a rush on tickets for a Queen's game out of town on the part of Queen's supporters since 1896, as that now on Queen's Athletic Board was allotted one thousand seats at Varsity Stadium for next Saturday's game. Of these eight hundred were set aside for Queen's students and Kingston

SEMI-FINAL MATCH OF INTERMEDIATE

At Richardson Stadium Tomorrow Afternoon Between R.M.C. and McGill II.

Tomorrow afternoon the George Richardson Stadium will be the scene of a snappy rugby match when R. M. C. and McGill II meet in the semifinals of the Intermediate Intercollegiate. During the past few years McGill has not won many times in the intermediate but always they manage to put up a stiff battle and a game worth watching. The cadets are figuring on an even harder row to hoe this season and Gr. Angell has just finished hard work in preparation for the event.

When the two Red and White squads take the field tomorrow the fans will have an opportunity of seeing, not only two of the highest class of intermediate teams, but individual players who will in many cases be figuring in the senior Intercollegiate next year or that following.

All Quiet at Queen's.

Everything is quiet in senior circles at Queen's this week. The hardest game of the year is ahead of the tricolor squad in Toronto on Saturday next and every man connected with the rugby squad knows it from George Awrey down. "Billie" Hughes and his pal "Bohoo" are not raising any particular fuss, but "Bohoo" has been noticed taking particular pains with his daily exercise and spends much time preparing his beautiful coat of fur for the eventful trip. There has been nothing definite given out concerning special transportation arrangements for Kingston fans, but many of them intend going if they have to ride bicycles. A special train would mean the biggest contingent that ever left Kingston for Toronto for an athletic event.

Favor Varsity to Win.

The Montreal Gazette says: "On their showing Varsity appeared to greater advantage than Queen's did here the week previous, and as far as McGill followers are concerned Varsity are favored to retain the championship. The blue and white played as fine a game as has been exhibited by any team here in many seasons. They were perfect in every department from the line to the kicking half back and the team work was beyond reproach, the plays moving fast and with precision."

Soccer Game a Tie.

In a game filled with exciting and close plays, the R.M.C. staff and R. C. A. teams fought to a 1-1 draw in a scheduled soccer game at the R.M.C. grounds on Monday afternoon. At full time, the captains of the two teams agreed to let the fixture stand as a draw, and the fixture will be decided at a later date, providing the result should have any bearing on the championship.

For the college staff, Capt. Finney, Ashton and Harrison were the stars, and their splendid work on attack and defence kept their team in the running from start to finish. Campbell was the outstanding player for the artillerymen, while the rest of the team played a steady, though not brilliant game. The teams:

| R.M.C. Staff. | Goal. | R.C.A. |
|-----------------------|-------|--------------------|
| Middleton | | Bramall |
| Pew | | Backs. |
| Campbell | | Morris |
| Laurier | | Capt. Finney |

people and every one of them sold in about one hour's time yesterday. The waiting list for any possible returns is now almost as long as the list of tickets sold and another five hundred could easily have been disposed of. A wire to Toronto revealed the fact that there is not a single ticket to be had from there, and the Queen's office has received requests from Toronto for tickets.

It was amusing to see the desk of Athletic Director George Awrey piled high with letters containing money orders, cheques, and cash this morning, none of which could be accepted. In some Queen's circles, where pools have been circulated to send one representative, the winner of the pool has been unable to buy tickets.

The players are receiving lectures every evening after practise and attendance at training table on rugby science and are reported to be in good shape. "Whitely" Johnston, wing man, who played on the senior squad two years ago, and is again on first team lineup, went to the General Hospital to-day with a fractured cheek bone and will likely be out of the game for the season.
