BRENNER SENT TO WEST.

Kingston Prisoners Given More Work in Prince Albert Penitentiary. Ottawa, Oct. 26.—Meyer Brenner, Toronto, is one of a party of seventy-five who were recently transferred from Kingston to the penitentiary at Prince Albert, Sask. There was plenty of work for convicts in the western institution, but not enough to go around at Kingston, hence the transfer. At Prince Albert a large farm is operated, over 15,000 bushels of wheat and 12,000 bushels of roots having been produced this year. John Doughty is still at Kingston.

At Lunenburg, N.S., bells rang, whistles blew and the town generally went wild with excitement when the victory of the schooner Blue Nose in the international schooner race was announced Wednesday evening. Everybody is praying for wind to-day.
