City Council Meets Tuesday.
 Owing to Monday being Thanksgiving Day, the city council is to meet on Tuesday evening. Arrangements will then have to be made for the city elections to be held on the 4th of December as nomination day is the 27th of November.

A Queen's Attraction.
 The Queen's Alumni re-union this week-end should attract a record number of graduates of the university, owing to the splendid showing of the rugbyists this season, and it will give the "old boys" an opportunity to watch the team in action against McGill on Saturday.

For Fall and Winter.
 We have received all our fall and winter goods, consisting of Boys' and Men's overcoats, Boys' and Men's suits, also a large range of cloth for suits made to measure at reasonable prices. Prevost, Brock street.

Special Rate Arranged.
 At a meeting of the new council on Oct. 24th, it was decided to allow a special rate for electric heating during the winter months of one half cent per K.W.H. on current consumed over and above the largest gross bill for 1921, or in some cases 1922, this rate to go into effect November 1st, 1922, and expire May 31st, 1923.

Honor Memory of Heroic Dead.
 At the request of King George two minutes of silence in memory of those who gave their lives during the war, will be observed throughout Canada on Armistice Day, November 11th, commencing at 11 o'clock in the morning will be observed in Kingston.

More School Holidays.
 The city school pupils will have the benefit of holidays on Friday of this week and Thursday afternoon of next, owing to the sessions of the Kingston Teachers' Institute on those days. With Thanksgiving Day on Monday, the "kids" will have a fine old time with these holidays in view.

Steamer Portland Repaired.
 The steamer Portland, which has been at Ogdensburg shipyard about seven weeks undergoing extensive repairs, left Thursday for Oswego to take on a load of coal. Captain John J. Curran is in command. The vessel was released some weeks ago from a lodge near Treasure Island east of Ogdensburg after she had been abandoned.

Gurt-Lafleur Wedding.
 The Presbyterian manse, Pembroke, was the scene of a quiet wedding Thursday, when Miss Mary H. Lafleur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lafleur, Pembroke, became the bride of Hermann Court. The young couple left for a short honeymoon in Toronto, after which they will take up residence on Moffat street.

A. E. Malmes Dead.
 Allen Edward Malmes, aged fifty-three, after a lingering illness, passed away at Sophiasburgh, on Oct. 14th, and was buried in Glenwood, Picton. Mr. Malmes was a kind, father, and will be greatly missed. He leaves to mourn, his widow, three sons and three daughters, Mrs. P. J. Tenny and Mrs. George Fox, Sophiasburgh; Mrs. Lloyd McKee and Edward F. Malmes, Toronto; Oscoe A. and Hermon at home.

Community Dance.
 Parties are being made up daily to attend the big Community Dance in the Armouries next Tuesday under the auspices of the Princess of Wales' Own Regiment. The event will take the form of a grand promenade and dance, and will be a commemoration of Armistice Day. The admission price, twenty-five cents, is ridiculously low, and a large crowd will be on hand. Tickets are now being secured at Best's and George Vanhorne's.

Richard Cornell Dead.
 The death occurred on Thursday at the Belleville Hospital, of Richard Nelson Cornell, after a serious operation. The late Mr. Cornell was in his seventy-sixth year was born in Thurlow township, having lived in Belleville for the past twenty years. Surviving are his wife, five daughters, Mrs. M. Huddleston, Belleville; Mrs. Cousno, Watertown, N. Y.; Mrs. Russo, Milton, N. H.; Mrs. Johnston, Rochester, and Mrs. Metcalfe, Cleveland; two sons, Thomas, Belleville and William, New York.

Again Rejects Bids.
 The town of Prescott considered tenders this week for a second time on an issue of $30,000 5 1/2 per cent. twenty-year sinking fund bonds, and for a second time rejected all bids. It was but two weeks ago that the former tenders were declared unacceptable, and it is interesting to note that on this occasion the bid was even less favorable, the cost to the town on the basis of the high bid being 5.60 per cent., whereas on the former occasion the cost would approximate 5.53 per cent. Tenders are again called up.

How Story Originated.
 The story has come to light as to how a Toronto morning newspaper this week printed a report about body snatchers operating in graveyards in the county of Leeds. Lieut.-Col. Andrew Gray, M.P.F., who is in Kingston, throws light upon the matter. It appears that prominent Toronto members of the Masonic Order were attending a burial at Westport on Monday last, and at the vault, it was told that years ago body snatching in Leeds was very common and that the people of the rural districts began to build vaults for protection against ghoulis. This was the basis of the story published in Toronto.

The Late Fred McWilliams.
 The sudden death of Fred McWilliams, Camden East, on Nov. 1st, came to the family and vicinity as a shock. He had been ailing for some weeks with heart trouble. Mr. McWilliams was out having a little exercise when the family missed him, when found he was dead. Heart failure was the cause. He was a Methodist and will be greatly missed by his large circle of friends. He leaves a wife and daughter, one sister and four brothers. The funeral was held in the Methodist church, Camden East, on Friday at one o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Nickle, after which the remains were placed in the vault awaiting interment.

Christian Endeavor Union.
 The Ontario Christian Endeavor convention opens in Cooke's church on Saturday afternoon, and will continue till Monday night. Among those who will take part are Miss Van Mere, Hamilton; Rev. J. A. Wilson, Hamilton; R. H. Trener, Kingston; Canon W. F. FitzGerald, Kingston; Rev. W. A. McTaggart, Toronto, president of the Canadian Christian Endeavor Union, who will preach the convention sermon; R. H. Hayward, president of the Ontario Christian Endeavor Union; Miss A. Morrison, Toronto; Ray Horn, Hamilton; W. E. Taylor, Toronto; Rev. J. E. LaFleur, Kingston; Carleton Sherwood, field secretary, New York state. Between sixty and seventy outside delegates are expected to attend.

The Bancroft Marbles Limited have secured contracts to furnish marble for the interior and exterior decoration of several large public buildings in London, Ont., and other parts of Canada.
