A CONCERT AND DANCE HELD IN THE ARMORIES

By the P.W.O. Regiment on Tuesday Evening—Over 400 Were Present.

The Princess of Wales Own Regiment held a very enjoyable concert and dance at the Armories on Tuesday evening, with an attendance of members and friends of well over four hundred. The entertainment was very successful, and a great deal of appreciation was expressed by the guests of the regiment.

The band concert commenced at 8 o'clock when a number of selections were furnished by the band under the direction of Bandmaster W. Christmas. A feature of this part of the programme was the inclusion of the chimes, presented to the regiment by Lt.-Col. A. B. Cunningham, a former commanding officer, in one of the pieces.

The music for the dancing which followed was furnished by the regimental string orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Christmas, and the floor of the armories was well crowded with young couples. During the dance, the officers' mess was open, and a number of the officers and their wives received many old friends of the regiment there. The sergeants' mess was also open, where hospitality also reigned supreme.

It is the intention of the P.W.O.R. to stage a big military entertainment at the armory, probably in the early spring, the performance to take the nature of a "tattoo," when a demonstration of many interesting and spectacular military events, ranging from reveille to tattoo, will be shown.

Rotary Club Activities.

The club has invited the principal and one boy from each of the city schools. The boys' work and entertainment committee are preparing a special programme. An out-of-town speaker will be secured, who, will give the boys a talk.
