The Beauty of A Plush Coat

depends on the freshness of the pile

Your last season's plush coat looks shabby when contrasted with the new coats your friends are wearing.

Send us your old coat and you won't feel "second best" to anyone after we have cleaned and steamed it. Our special process possible only in a modernly equipped plant revives the pile and restores the richness and lovely softness of the plush.

WHY BABIES CRY

It's often hard to find the trouble—it may be teeth—it may be stomach—but oh! so often it is just a chafed irritated skin on which poor Soap has been used.

The remedy for this is so simple! Hours of suffering—night after night of disturbance—have been avoided by mothers, who have insisted on—Baby's Own Soap. Of course it costs a little more, a very little more, however—than what is often bought and used—but four generations of Canadian Mothers are there to vouch for its purity, for the soothing healing effect on Baby's delicate skin, for the lovely pure flower fragrance it leaves when Baby fresh and clean is taken from his bath.

Don't you think, Madam, it's worth paying the 15c a cake, a little less if you buy a box (3 cakes) which your dealer asks for Baby's Own Soap. Adv.

What the Editor Hears

That the Woman's Institutes in the three counties from which we receive news of the activities of this live organization, have contributed largely to the aid of the sufferers in the fire zone.

That the all black gown is giving place to the black gown with a touch of color at the girle and in the embroideries.

That St. George's cathedral branch of the Junior Auxiliary sent the loveliest Christmas bazaar to Cumberland House, Saskatchewan, with presents, sweets and nuts for 36 little Indian boys and girls. The little girls dressed the dolls, making knitted sweaters and caps, and on Christmas Day will have the joy of remembering they have made other people happy.

That the Toronto National Club will run an excursion to Kingston for the Queen's-Varsity match.

That Kingston has had a lucky escape from Patricia O'Connell, the pretty Irish girl who pulled the wool over the eyes of the Ottawa Y. W. C. A., the Montreal business men and the manager of a first-class Quebec hotel, where she got credit that ran into three figures, saying she was a bride-alect waiting for her husband, a New York doctor, who would marry her in Quebec. She is at present in jail in Cornwall awaiting trial.

That Ellen Terry visited Bath recently to unveil a mural tablet in memory of Mrs. Siddons, who, before she made her debut in London, played at the old Bath Theatre, and the tablet was placed on the house where Mrs. Siddons lived more than a hundred years ago.

A Simple Home Supper. Your family will enjoy the following simple yet nourishing supper:

- Steamed Salmon
- Cheese Straws
- Cocoa
- Food for the Gods Dessert

Steamed Salmon: One can of salmon, one egg, one cup of bread crumbs, two tablespoons of cream, butter size of an egg and salt and Cayenne pepper to season. Pick the salmon into small pieces and put it into a baking dish mixed well with the beaten egg, the bread crumbs, seasoning, cream and some of the butter melted. Sprinkle more crumbs over the top, dot with the remainder of the butter, and bake, covered for one-half hour in a hot oven, set in a larger pan of water. During the last few minutes remove the cover to allow the crumbs on top of the dish to brown.

Cheese Straws: Mix together, to a paste, one-half cup of grated (or finely chopped) mild cheese one-half cup of bread crumbs one-half cup of flour and one-half cup of butter. Season with a few grains of Cayenne pepper one-fourth teaspoon of salt and a pinch of mace. Roll this paste out into a thin sheet and cut it into long thin fingers. Place these on a greased pan and bake six or eight minutes in a hot oven.

Foods for the Gods Dessert (Contributed): "One cup of sugar, one-fourth pound of dates, one-fourth pound of almonds and three tablespoons of cracker crumbs. Beat whites of three eggs stiff and add one heaping teaspoon of baking powder, then add the ingredients mentioned above. (The dates and almonds should be cut into small pieces.) Turn the mixture into a pudding pan,

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, NOV. 10.
This day may be considered rather unimportant as influenced by stellar operations. It would be wise, however, to keep business well in hand, as there are certain minor testimonials for annoyance and anxiety. A similar anxious and disquieting condition may obtain in domestic, social or affectional matters although in neither case is the outlook ominous or grave. Plans for new projects may be taken under advisement, as clear vision is favored by a friendly Neptune.

Those whose birthday it is should devote themselves to their business, which may offer some anxieties or annoyances. Similar perplexities may visit the realm of heart and home. A child born on this day will be popular and good-natured, and may make its best success in the employment of others.

BUTTONHOLES FOR YOUR TYPE

The woman with suburn or bright red hair has rather a difficult problem, if she, too, loves to wear artificial flowers. The only imitations permissible are white waxy lemon or orange blossoms. Some of the blooms that "never were on land or sea" are more becoming to her than reproductions of real flowers. She will probably find what exactly harmonizes with her crowning glory in a millinery shop. Green or black velvet roses and silk poppies in black, brown or green, look well on her.

The most difficult type of all is the overly plump one. She must be as brave about turning her back on showy flowers as she would be in renouncing candy. Only a very small unobtrusive French bouquet is suitable to adorn her fur neckpiece; she should avoid flowers made of satin; think long and hard before wearing a corsage knot, and never,

"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffat, Roxton Falls, Que., writes:

"I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. Today I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."
