TO SCATTER HIS ASHES ON WATERS OF PACIFIC

Western Man Who Witnessed Cemetery Excavation Orders This in Will.

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 8.—The body of William Francis Walsh, aged 67, killed by a train near Regina recently, will be cremated. The ashes will be buried at sea along with those of his wife. Instructions to this effect are contained in his will.

When a young man, Walsh saw graves being opened to permit the construction of a canal in Ontario. He took a vow that the same fate would never overtake his remains. When his wife died last July the body was cremated and Walsh drew up his will. His own ashes and those of his wife are to be taken on board ship at Seattle and strewn on the waters of the Pacific.

NEWS FROM ODESSA.

Burial of Mrs. J. D. Thompson—A Hallowe'en Party.

Odessa, Nov. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Hockman, Tostenham, are guests of Dr. J. E. Maboe and Mrs. Maboe. Miss Stella Graham, Sydenham, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. James Young, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Young. The Tierney family are spending a few days at their home. Max Kenyon, Kingston, spent the weekend and Thanksgiving at his home.

The Hallowe'en party in the township hall last Tuesday night had a large attendance and the fancy costumes afforded a great deal of amusement. The music was furnished by Scott's orchestra, Napanee.

Mrs. Roy Graham returned Saturday from spending a week with her parents in Sydenham. W. J. Clark and Thomas Stuart have gone on a deer-hunting trip. They were accompanied by Iny Simmons and Mr. Stuart, Wilton. Mrs. Albert Baker is visiting friends at Parrott's Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Stover and family spent Sunday at Lewis Hartman's, Camden East. Charles Conway is spending the week-end and Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conway, Sydenham, who are planning to leave shortly to spend the winter in New York.

The funeral of Mrs. James D. Thompson was held from her late home last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. S. F. Dixon officiated. The remains were placed in Cataragi vault to be interred later in the family plot by the side of her husband, who predeceased nearly five years. To mourn the loss of a loving mother are Christopher and the Misses Fannie and

HEAD COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Itched Badly. Baby Cried At Night. Cuticura Heals.

"My baby's head was covered with head, red pimples. They itched so badly that she scratched them until they developed into sore eruptions. Her hair began to fall out, and at night she cried and kept me awake. I tried different remedies without relief until I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After one week's use I saw a great improvement, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment she was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. De Ste-fano, 78 French St., Bridgeport, Conn., May 11, 1921.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets exclusively for every-day toilet purposes.

ARE OFF HUNTING.

Thanksgiving Visitors Were Very Numerous.

McDonald's Corners, Nov. 7.—Rev. Dr. R. P. McKay, Toronto, will conduct the anniversary services in Knox church on Dec. 3rd. Miss Edna McBain is attending the Provincial Christian Endeavor Convention in Kingston. Many car loads of hunters passed through here towards the week-end. Clifford McDonald, John Wilson and brother Arthur, went from this part. Miss Helen Sergeant, who spent the summer in the west, has returned to her home.

Miss Mary McCullough left on Thursday to spend a few weeks in Montreal. Mrs. Hilton Beatty, Campbellford, has a visitor at the home of his uncle, William Miller, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Clement and daughter, Kathleen, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ally McDonald during Thanksgiving. Other Thanksgiving visitors were: Miss Iva Duncan, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bawden, Kingston, and Miss Sarah Sergeant, Franktown.

David Geddes and a party of hunters whom he was driving to Plevins, had a narrow escape from injury on Saturday. The steering gear of the motor car was overturned and rolled down an embankment. Fortunately none were seriously injured.

At Sharbot Lake.

Sharbot Lake, Nov. 2.—The weather for the last few days is ideal for this season of the year, although the hunters who have left for the north will be wishing for a fall of "the beautiful." H. Smith is busy at his new house. Mrs. H. McLean, Englehardt, was a caller at Mrs. Melgheon's and A. Hartman's Wednesday. Mrs. Martin, Tichborne, at A. Hartman's. Mrs. H. Martin is staying with her daughter, Mrs. McNabb, Union hotel, here. W. Davis and daughter Nina, returned Tuesday after spending a week at Trenton and Walter Deline's, Newcastle. Mr. and Mrs. Kimberly and Master Everett Davis went to Smith's Falls Saturday, returning Monday. W. Weir and bride, Wolfe Island, are visiting at his mother's, Mrs. W. Kimberly's, Doranville.

Adolphustown Briefs.

Adolphustown, Nov. 7.—All the farmers who have not completed their fall plowing are rushing while the fine weather lasts. Miss Edna Allison who has spent the summer with her father, J. B. Allison, left for the south last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Hawley, formerly of Melville, Sask., left on Wednesday for their new home in Buffalo, N.Y., after spending two weeks with Mr. Hawley's mother. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Loyst, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. A. Baldwin, a daughter.

A masquerade ball was held in the parish hall Friday night. Wilkie Dorland returned on Wednesday from Picton hospital, where he has been for some weeks, taking treatment for his broken leg.

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. W. Magee last Wednesday afternoon. There were no services in the Methodist church Sunday on account of the anniversary services conducted at Conway by Rev. A. J. Wilson, of St. Andrew's church, Napanee. Dr. Duffet is busy this week gathering in the taxes.

At Bunker's Hill.

Bunker's Hill, Nov. 8.—The weather has been fine here for several days. The cheese factory will soon be closed. Mr. Maguire, of Portsmouth, is in this city, purchasing some lambs. He killed some beef for Sanford Leeman, Mr. Crowder preached at Deyo's Corners last Sunday and delivered a fine discourse.

ROLL BARRELS ACROSS THE DOMINION.

Two veterans of the Canadian Forestry Corps, Corporal Lawrence McDuff (on left) and Sergt. Horace Negus, who are trundling barrels across the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The men have taken 81 days to reach Toronto from Amherst, Nova Scotia; they must complete the whole journey in six months. Negus went to France as a bugler when 14 years of age.

If you had a fine dairy cow—just outside your kitchen door

Your milk supply couldn't be any sweeter, purer, or more rich and healthful than St. Charles Milk "with the cream left in".

In fact it wouldn't be as rich, because most of the natural moisture is removed from St. Charles Milk, which reduces it to the consistency of cream.

And the supply wouldn't be as convenient, for St. Charles is put up in "a size for every need". Never too much or too little.

A few tins on your pantry shelf ensure an always available supply of fresh milk from choicest dairy cows. Your grocer always has St. Charles Milk—give him your order today.

OYSTER FRITTERS:—Drain twenty-five oysters and chop fine. Beat two eggs; when light add one-fourth cup St. Charles Milk and three-fourths cup water; then stir in a scant pint of sifted flour; beat smooth. Salt and pepper to taste. Stir in oysters lightly, adding one-half teaspoonful baking powder. Combine well, and fry by dropping tablespoonfuls into smoking lard.

FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL FUND

A Very Happy Evening in Mountain Grove.

Mountain Grove, Nov. 7.—The hunters have all departed for "the happy hunting grounds." Hallowe'en passed off very quietly. One of the principal events being a social evening at A. W. Thompson's. A large crowd gathered and a very pleasant evening was spent in music and games. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson proved very excellent hostesses and a dainty luncheon was served and the proceeds therefrom was added to the Sunday school fund.

The stork flew through this vicinity on Friday leaving baby boys at the homes of P. Barr and C. Lockwood. The Ladies' Aid gave a chicken pie supper at the parsonage on Saturday evening. A large number attended and a nice sum was realized.
