CLEMENCEAU INVADES NEW ENGLAND STATES

On His Campaign to Win America's Heart and Soul for France.

New York, Nov. 23.—With United States senators denouncing him and a storm on the verge of breaking in congress because of his remarks, Georges Clemenceau invaded New England to-day on his campaign to win "America's heart and soul for France."

The eighty-one-year-old French statesman left New York for Boston with no ceremony whatever. Newspapermen made up the "seeing off party." To the reporters, Clemenceau remarked excitedly, his voice shaking with emotion, that his trip here was "splendid, splendid." The procession from the Gibson home to the station consisted of Clemenceau's car and two taxis carrying reporters. Accompanying Clemenceau were his valet and secretary.

EVENT AT MOWAT HOSPITAL

Entertainment on Wednesday Night Much Enjoyed.

An entertainment of athletic events and music was put on at the Mowat Hospital last night, which was greatly enjoyed by the large audience which came out for the affair. The events included senior and junior boxing bouts, which were clean and fine, and very funny to watch in the case of the boys' bouts. Those taking part were Ken Dennison vs. Jim Robinson; Allan Renton vs. Don Sherman; Frank Holmes vs. Arthur Andrews; Holgrave vs. Ralph.

The wrestling exhibition, in which Harry Haunts and his partner demonstrated some Ju Jitsu and wrestling holds, was very interesting and merited the round of applause afforded it. The officials for the boxing events were provincial constables Clarke, Referee; Physical Director Blake, time keeper.

During the evening Mr. Duncan acted as pianist and rendered some fine selections.

The programme for next week at the Mowat will be in the nature of an "Irish Evening," and some fine talent is being arranged for.

Baron Scanno Stricken. Rome, Nov. 23.—Baron Scanno, at one time Italian member of the big four at the Paris peace conference, suffered an apoplectic stroke of the brain to-day. He is announced to be in a grave condition.
