Terrible Headaches And Dizziness

Miss S. Raphael, 237 Kenilworth Ave. N., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I used to suffer from terrible headaches and dizziness. Last summer, while I was walking up a side street, I got a dizzy spell and fell in the middle of the road. An old gentleman helped me to get to where I was going and told me to get a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. Well, I did, and they did wonders for me. I don't know how to thank you, as I don't get headaches or dizzy spells any more."

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers, and the only way to keep well is to keep the liver active and performing its proper functions by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since. I have taken seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings."—Mrs. E. LANSBURY, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble.

Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmothers' time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

To thine own self be true.

NEW YORK HORSE SHOW.

A special correspondent to the Toronto Telegram says:

"Only a pre-war royal court could have rivalled the sumptuous magnificence of this year's Metropolitan House opera. Ermine cloaks were as common as rabbit-skins, chinchilla was everywhere, cloth of silver and sables, regal brocades and furs, they covered gowns of Oriental opulence. Old-time tiaras and the old jewelry display in the famous Horseshoe boxes was somewhat dimmed but the season's vogue for gorgeous head-dress made it even more picturesque. Eastern turbans of cloth of silver or gold and Russian head-band effects prevailed while the classic robed favored wreaths of silver leaves. Some ladies with huge jewel cases studied their head-dresses with real jewels with dazzling effect. Luxurious ostrich fans, with green, white or coral as favorite, were again a lovely note of color among the boxes. It was amusing to note that so many fans were carried by the occupants of certain boxes that it looked as if they would have to take turns in waving them, so cramped did they seem for room.

Just as Chalpin as the usurping Czar Boris had furnished his torturing vision of his victim's ghost we looked up at Vincent Astor's box. There was an uncanny feel in the air. When Chalpin sees ghosts you see them too.

There was a weird big grey thing that nearly covered the rail of the Astor box. Suddenly it moved. It expanded before you. You gasped. Then you looked again. Did other people see what you saw? It was moving to and fro. Then you saw what it was. It belonged to a pretty lady in a pink dress. It was a grey fan with eight plumes that hid at least three people when it was in operation. It looked like the complete tall feathers of one ostrich. In general effect it rivalled a smoke screen."

She JUST KEEPS HOUSE FOR ME.

She is so winsome and so wise
She sways us at her will
And oft the question will arise
What mission does she fill?
And so I say with pride untold
And love beyond degree,
This woman with the heart of gold
She just keeps house for me.

A full content dwells in her face
She's quite in love with life
And for a title wears with grace
The sweet old-fashioned "Wife."
What though I toil from morn 'till night,
What though I weary grow,
A spring of love and dear delight
Doth ever softly flow.

Our children climb upon her knees
And lie upon her breast.
And ah! her mission seem to me
The highest and the best—
And so I say with pride untold
And love beyond degree,
This woman with the heart of gold
She just keeps house for me.

TO-DAY'S FASHION

By Vera Winston.

This Toast-Brown Broadcloth Coat Is Banded in Mink.

As the winter months draw near, nothing seems quite so desirable as a long coat which is warm and becoming. Shades of brown are as smart for winter as the wares for fall, and brown cloth is never so attractive as when it combines with fur in a soft, matching brown. Deep brown broadcloth of a fine, silky texture makes the coat above, while wide bands of dark eastern mink add their finishing note. The single button is also of dark brown.
