KINGSTON ROTARY CLUB
AT HOTEL DIEU BAZAAR

Members Were Heavily Fined and the Proceeds Given to Bazaar.

The members of the Rotary Club held their weekly luncheon on Friday, in Memorial Hall, where the bazaar is being held in aid of the Hotel Dieu. There was a good turnout of the members, and the occasion was made a jolly one for all present.

The president, Leman A. Guild, presided, and following the very fine luncheon, the feature of which was venison steak, provided by Rotarian Cliff Nash, the fines came thick and fast on the various members of the club—in fact so fast that Rotarian "Matt" Graham the sergeant-at-arms, had to get a big pail to collect the money. And at one stage the money came so fast that Rotarian Rex Snelgrove had to act as a body guard for the sergeant-at-arms.

There was no speech making at Friday's luncheon but the members had their usual "sing-song" with Harold Singleton at the piano. Quite a number of fines were imposed early in the proceedings, when it was found that some of the members were wearing badges that did not belong to them.

Following the luncheon, however, the president called upon all the members and fined them for something or other. The money had to be secured to fill the big pail, so the president was not at all particular about how he imposed the fines or for what offence. For instance members, who were good enough to wear their own badges did not escape a fine. The president got off a fine lot of jokes and witty sayings in his cross examination of the various members and this part of the programme was a very pleasant feature of the proceedings.

Every Rotarian had to toe the line, and go down in his jeans to help the cause, and the money was produced cheerfully.

Rotarian Rex Snelgrove had a very important part to play about half time. The president appointed him as an auctioneer, and he was called upon to auction off a "stuffed cat" and knocked it down to "Teddy" Metcalfe for one dollar.

At the close of the luncheon, the president, on behalf of the club presented the pail of money to Mrs. O'Connor, who received it on behalf of the Hotel Dieu, expressing sincere thanks for the kind gift. Mrs. O'Connor referred to the fact that the Rotary motto was "Service Above Self", and pointed that the work of the Hotel Dieu was that of helping others.

The president returned thanks for the splendid luncheon, and to all who had assisted in making it a great success. Every cent of the money collected in fines was given over to the bazaar. No member of the club was allowed to escape a fine, and as a fitting climax, the president was very heavily fined for allowing the "session to go over the usual time for such events."

Was Born in Belleville.
 John McHugh, recently elected president of the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York, was born in Belleville. Left both motherless and fatherless when a small boy, he was reared by his grandmother. At eighteen, he started work in the office of the Grand Trunk Railway and advanced rapidly. He made a record which caused one of the leading banks of the great metropolis to reach out into the middle west, bring him to the world's financial centre, and later make him the head of its organization.
