The need is for more square deals and fewer queer deals.

Sunday schools note an increased pre-Christmas attendance.

Another reason why Siki should be barred is that he hits too darned hard.

Getting back to normal is largely a matter of putting the "ex" in experts.

Germany is attempting her war payments the way she tried her war criminals.

A western bride is named Iona Mann, and we like the charming frankness in her name.

Correct this sentence: "The wife confessed her indiscretions to him and he forgave her."

Life is usually that way, and the postage-due letter is seldom worth the extra two cents.

One of the first things the Irish Free State should get is a fire-proof postoffice in Dublin.

The reason a man doesn't blush easily is because his Adam's apple registers emotion instead.

Some peoples seem to be getting along nicely, and others have some body's moral support.

If the jingoes keep on talking and planning for the "next war," they may not have long to wait.

One of the oddities is that every centenarian has either used whiskey most of his life or let it alone.

Mussolini will face his first crisis when his followers discover that he has not enough jobs to go around.

This is the age of naughty novels and memoirs. The next logical step will be naughty memoirs.

Ford urges people to spend their money freely. Sure; what is a mere million to fellows like us?

Lunacy may not be a cause for divorce, but at times we suspect that it is a cause for matrimony.

So live that it will never be necessary to whine about the way your friends are failing to stand by you.

Fable: Once a man left his car in a repair shop for a week, and the gasoline didn't evaporate from the tank.

One month from to-day you must pretend to like the fancy little dudud daughter is making to hang your ties on.

Now that the flapper and jazz are disappearing, we can resume the practice of blaming adenoids for everything.

Some warm-water fish are appearing in the north seas, but other poor fish are gathering at the winnow hotels as usual.

Those gentlemen who are looking for something to make steel harder might examine the mattresses in small-town hotels.

When the driver holds out one hand, that means he is going to turn; when he holds out one hand while holding his girl's hand, that means he is going to turn over.

THE QUEST OF YOUTH.

Dr. Alexis Carrel's reputed discovery of the secret of prolonging life by strengthening white corpuscles against the infinite variety of invading enemies will be rated as very timely.

Truly, Dr. Carrel has played into the hands of the optimists with his discovery. Ponce de Léon and others have spiced the pages of history with quests for youth and the means of combating old age.

But now that Dr. Carrel is pursuing the quest for longevity in the laboratories that deal in blood and its corpuscles, there is an excuse for renewed hope that the fountain of your youth may yet be found.

SOMETHING OUGHT TO BE DONE.

The modistes and fashion makers of the world are never happy unless they can be doing something to shock the sensibilities of those with a trace of modesty in their makeup.

But the fashion makers, who must be in league with the amoral forces of the world, did not stay moral long. They have found a new way to shock the world, and they propose to put it into effect at once.

This is the ultimate, box-score limit. Or at least we thought it was until we read the next line. The next line says that the lobe of the naked ear will be colored a delicate pink.

TRUTH NEVER GROWS STALE. "Never be afraid," said Gladstone, "to tell people what they already know."

There are times when man with a talent genuine but unrecognized modestly refrain from speech under the impression that it might be termed "cant."

WEEK DAY RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTIONS. There is a growing feeling everywhere in Canada that something should be done to instruct the children of the Public Schools in Bible knowledge.

Q.—How many child immigrants have entered Canada and where from? A.—70,000 child immigrants have entered Canada from England and Scotland during the past 40 years.

WANTS UNITED STATES TO JOIN WITH FRANCE

Boston, Nov. 25.—The "Tiger" of France stood in Massachusetts' historic hall of flags and cried out to the United States that she could not desert her war associates.

to its complete development, to have a thorough and effective training in religion and morals. Second, no person is adequately educated for the responsibilities of life, as a Canadian citizen, whose religious and moral possibilities have been left undeveloped.

BLUNDERS

Why Is This Wrong? The answer will be found among to-day's want ads. (What "Blunder" do you suggest?) Copyright, 1922, Associated Editors.

ALONG LIFE'S DETOUR

Nobody Home. The farmer who blew out the gas was foolish, we'll admit; but he was not as big a fool as he who steps on it.

Observations of Oldest Inhabitant. One way to become reconciled to present fashions is to give the old family album the once over and see just how hideous "sensible" clothes used to look.

That's Better'n Being Shot With a Gun, We Imagine. (Headline in Southern Paper) SHOT WITH IMPUNITY.

That Was Different. The tailor and grocer were walking down the street when they met Hardupp. "Just the man we want to see," they exclaimed, "we want you to settle an argument for us."

Make You Poor, Indeed. It's tough to lose your coin, but I'd like to observe it would be worse, by far, for you to lose your nerve.

Maybe a Little Glee Might Mend It. (Classified Ad. in Warren Tribune) FOR SALE.—Broke Beagle. Guaranteed. Call 1730-R. L. W. Moran.

Fool Questions. E. M. B. asks: "Does a woman with a fiery tongue always speak burning words? Well, she always makes it hot for husband, anyway."

Aha! Here's the Way to Get Fat—If You Don't Mind the Work. (Pleasant Copper Cor. Falmouth (Ky.) Outlook)

Joe P. Watson, who is only 72 years young, has been sick for the past several months. He says he has quit complaining of his ailments and gone to work, and in the past month has gained 10 pounds.

News of the Names Club. Tocy Winters is reported from St. Paul, but we hope she doesn't come here.

D. G. E., of Ft. Wayne, writes Will Standstill is the biggest hustler in town.

Daily Sentence Sermon. It is mixing dollars with sense that makes wealth a blessing.
