QUEEN'S SPORTS FLOURISH AGAIN

Hockey, Boxing and Basketball Quickly Fill the Gap Left by Rugby.

The big gap caused by the close of the rugby football season at Queen's, with the last inter-faculty match between Science and Medicine over, is rapidly being filled up by the revival of the other lines of sport which follow football. The hockeyists are training daily, each day a little squad of boxers and wrestlers may be seen either working out or discussing plans, to be put into effect on their regular training nights, when "Billie" Hughes and Mr. Bews take them in hand, and "Bill" Shaw's senior basketball squad is rapidly rounding into good shape in preparation for its United States tour.

Just at present it is hard to say how the Queen's hockey teams will shape up. There should be an abundance of good material, but there are rumors that a good many of the stars, held up by rugby from their studies ever since the opening of college, are reluctant about turning out. One sound of the hockey sticks and skates, however, usually brings forth all the trawlers, and this annual occurrence is expected again this season. Suffice to say that Queen's will be heard from in both O.H.A. and intercollegiate series.

The boxers are shaping up well and taking their medicine regularly. Some promising material has appeared and nearly all the former members of the squad are back. "Billie" Hughes is taking a keen interest in the mitt-artists this season and Mr. Bews can be depended upon to turn out a first rate group of wrestlers.

The basketballers are looking forward with big hopes to their intercollegiate campaign this season. Their trip during Christmas week, which will bring them into contact

HUSTON'S INTEREST MAY GO TO RUPPERT

Reported $1,500,000 Involved in Negotiations for Half Share of Yanks.

Developments connected with the major league baseball seasons centered prominently around the affairs of the New York Yankees, American League champions.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert's formal announcement that he expected within a week to acquire sole ownership of the club by purchasing, for a reported consideration of $1,500,000, the half interest of Colonel T. L. Huston, was followed by authoritative reports that the Yankees had closed a deal with the White Sox to trade Aaron Ward, Bob Meusel and a pitcher to the westerners for Eddie Collins, veteran second sacker, and Dick Kerr, southpaw pitcher. It was said that official announcement of the trade, which has been rumored in diamond circles for some time, would be made at tomorrow's opening session of American League club owners.

The only possibility of a hitch in the deal, now outlined, centres around Kerr, who failed to report to the White Sox last spring and must secure reinstatement from Commissioner Landis before being permitted to play in major league ranks again. Ward played second base and Meusel in the outfield for the Yankees last season.

Colonel Ruppert's announcement as to the ownership of the club followed his partner's statement that he was negotiating for the sale of his interests in order to take a rest.

FIGHT PURSE FORFEITED.

Rosenberg Disciplined by N.Y. Boxing Commission.

The New York State Athletic Commission ordered forfeited the purse of Dave Rosenberg in his boxing contest with Mike O'Dowd at the Rink Sporting Club Thanksgiving night, because he lost the contest on a foul after repeated warnings.

Replying to reports that Rosenberg's left hand was in bad shape, the commission submitted with the decision today copies of letters from Dr. James E. Thompson and John Leon, president of the Rink Sporting Club, Inc., setting forth that they had examined Rosenberg's left hand on the day of the bout and "found absolutely nothing the matter with it."

SATISFIED WITH LANDIS.

Ban Johnston Declares Himself as Staunch Friend.

All reports concerning a difference of opinion between K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, and Ban Johnston, president of the American League, were dispelled at Chicago by Johnston himself previous to his departure for New York to attend the American league meeting. He declared that he was in full accord with the administration of Commissioner Landis, that the commissioner stands 100 per cent in his estimation, but that certain club owners in the major leagues were attempting through propaganda to start a controversy between himself and the commissioner. "I have no quarrel with Landis and have never criticized his office and will not so long as he does his duty to baseball," President Johnston said. "He will find me one of his staunchest supporters in doing anything to improve the game, and in that respect he cannot be surpassed."

NATIONAL SETS DATES OF 1923

World Series Next Fall Will Open Probably on October 9th.

Selection of Tuesday, April 17th, as the opening date for the 1923 pennant race of the National League was the principal feature of the annual meeting of the senior baseball organization Tuesday. President John A. Heydler stated that the National league magnates were unanimously in favor of opening the season a week later than has been the case in recent years.

Playing a schedule of 154 games and allowing for the usual number of dates, the league executive expressed the opinion that when the schedule is completed it will show the closing date as Sunday, October 7th. This would bring the opening game of the world series on or about Tuesday, Oct. 9th, he said, approx-
