RLY. DR. R. J. WILSON'S SPECIAL APPOINTMENT

le is to Supervise the Promotion of Church Union Throughout Canada.

Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson, minister of Chalmers church of this city, has been chosen by a special committee to supervise the promotion of church union throughout Canada and the preparation of the Presbyterian church for this very important movement. Dr. Wilson's selection was made only after a careful canvass of the whole Dominion for a man to all this position, and it was finally decided that he was best suited to the task.

The story of his appointment as told to a Whig reporter by the Rev. Dr. H. T. Wallace, of Globe Presbyterian church, North Toronto, and formerly of the staff of Queen's University here, is as follows:

A special committee, entirely voluntary and having no connection with the General Assembly officially, has been actively at work for ome time in the Presbyterian church in favor of church union. This great movement has progressed so rapidly that its general adoption, the acceptance of one big union, seems but matter of a few months, and it is expected that something of that nature will be introduced at the next ession of the General Assembly.

Meanwhile, this committee needed man to take over the whole buren of promoting the movement and of looking after its interests in a big ay from now until the next ses-After due deliberation, Dr. Vilson, Kingston, was selected as the man for the position, and accordingly a delegation consisting of Rev. Dr. G. C. Pidgeon, Bloor street church, Toronto; Dr. H. T. Wallace, Globe church, North Toronto, and John G. Gibson, a lay member of the pecial committee, came to Kingston n Wednesday to interview Dr. Wil-

The matter was placed before Dr. Vilson and the joint boards of Chalers church. The needs of the comnittee were advanced, a guarantee eiven that this special committee ould see that Chalmers incumbency could be well supplied during the period of Dr. Wilson's absence, and the necessary three months' release as given by unanimous vote of the odies of the local church.

Accordingly Dr. Wilson will take over the duties of his new position with the beginning of the new year, with his headquarters in Toronto. he members of the joint boards of Chalmers, while regretting to lose Dr. Wilson for so long a period, ere very enthusiastic over the matter when once it had been explained, and appreciated the honor conferred on their pastor as shown by their manimous vote.

The progress being effected by church union and the great strides it has made in the past few years, may be clearly demonstrated by the fact that there are actually 984 union congregations within the Presbyterian church at the present time. It is estimated that in five years, following the present rate of progress. searcely five per cent. of the congregations west of the Great Lakes i Canada would not be union. There are 168 union congregations east of the Great Lakes, but, even there, where the people are by reason of et traditions and ways more inclind to be slow in changing, the ad ances made by church union have een remarkable.

Some idea of the vastness of the aion movement may be obtained by comparison of statistics. In the year 1877, two years after the union of 1875, there were 675 congregations within the Presbyterian church, all told. At the present time there are 984 union congregations, or 309 more union congregations than the total number at that time.

The members of the delegation from Toronto have returned well leased with their work. They were very anxious to secure Dr. Wilson
