Everybody In A Hurry.

Everybody is in a great hurry these days. There is a reason of course—Christmas.

Celebrated A Birthday.

B. L. Bissell, North Augusta, celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday on Dec. 19th. Several relatives of Mr. Bissell met at his home and dined with him and Mrs. Bissell.

Will Rebuild Again.

It is the intention of B. J. Oswald, who owned the two buildings in the village of Odessa which were destroyed by fire, to rebuild again. The foundation has been put in but the men have had to cease work on account of the cold weather.

Sale of Suits and Overcoats.

For the balance of this month we have decided to put on sale every Suit and Overcoat that we have in stock at great reduction in price. A call will convince you. All our Christmas goods have arrived. Prevost, Brock street.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Law, Cramp-ton, Ont., announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Inez Beryl, to Lloyd E. Bissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bissell, North Augusta, Ont., marriage to take place Christmas Day.

Had An Eye Injured.

E. Marslett, Upton Vale, Prince Edward county, was unfortunate by having one of his eyes put out by a stick of wood flying up and hitting his eye. He is coming on nicely and able to return home from the hospital.

Coming Events.

Our schools, churches and societies are constantly "pulling off" games, parties, and events too numerous to list. Each event has its needs; new clothes, hats, shoes, favors, cards, food, costumes, etc. Are your ads where the youngsters will see them when they come to their own big time?

Transferred to Kitchener.

George Ada, Canadian Bank of Commerce, King street branch, has been transferred to the Kitchener branch and will leave for that city in a few days. George has been very prominent in athletic circles in this city, notably in baseball, and his many friends wish him success in his new position.

Buying Useful Gifts.

What are the people buying for Christmas gifts? A survey made around the stores, shows that citizens are purchasing for the most part what might be referred to as sensible gifts, that is they are buying useful articles. While the Christmas business in the stores has been brisk at times, on the whole it is stated that the business has only been fair.

Heads Masonic Lodge.

Cape Vincent Lodge No. 243 F. & A. M. held its annual meeting and election of officers. The following were elected: Worthy Master, H. A. Almsworth; senior warden, J. M. Grant; junior warden, F. S. Bernhardt; treasurer, W. H. Grant; secretary, H. Roy Allen; chaplain, Rev. A. T. Cort; senior deacon, Warren Evans; junior deacon, Charles G. Allen; senior master of ceremonies, Judson Kilborn; junior master of ceremonies, Garret S. Jones; tyler, D. M. Borland; trustees, C. T. Sackett.

Because You Must Sell

In a hurry is not a sufficient reason for "giving away" your property. There is a fair rate of exchange for what you have to sell. Use our classified ads and find the man who appreciates value. He is looking for good things, knows them when he sees them, and is willing to pay a fair price.

A Golden Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reid celebrated their golden wedding on Dec. 18th, at their home on the 7th Concession of Sidney. The guests, all relatives to the number of forty, assembled at 11 a.m. and partook of a substantial dinner of Mrs. Reid's own preparation a rival to Christmas in its abundance and variety. Many beautiful and useful presents showed still more tangibly the love and honor which Mr. and Mrs. Reid have inspired among the people with whom they have spent the half century of their married life.

Seekink Christmas Hootch.

With Christmas Day at hand the local officials of the Ontario License Department, popularly known as the "vendors," have been besieged with "scrips" for hootch of every variety, though it is quite certain that many of the local scrip-writers have been unable to supply the demand for Christmas cheer. Many of the "invalids" require special kinds or brands of the fire-water, while others are quite satisfied to take just plain hootch, if their favorite something-syrup is among the missing. The "official bartenders," however, are allowed a certain amount of latitude at this time of the year, so that it is merely a case of first come, first served.

Women's Missionary Auxiliary.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th the members of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary, Cataract, held a pie social in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. In connection with it, the annual sale of useful and fancy articles was held. Mrs. Guess and Mrs. E. Cooke were in charge of the work table, and a very satisfactory amount was realized. A short and excellent programme was rendered by local talent. On Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary, a very impressive address on the condition of women and girls in Japan was given by Mrs. J. G. Dunlop. A solo was given by Miss Sigsworth, and refreshments were served. The annual donations and collection were taken, for the purpose of extending Christmas cheer to needy ones.

The Easiest Way.

My Love—"What are you going to do with the old piano since Dad gave you the Grand? It's perfectly good."
 My Life—"Oh, of course it's good. That's one reason I sold it so easily. The other reason is that I put an ad in Our Paper's classified columns. The nicest couple came and they are going to send for the piano in the morning."

Christmas at Barracks.
 The usual Christmas preparations are being made in Tete-de-Pont and Artillery Park barracks for the men of the horse and garrison artillery, and all hands are busily engaged in decorating the mess-rooms for the big dinner planned on Monday. The three units are competing with each other in an effort to design the most artistic decorations. The event is being eagerly looked forward to and it is expected that the holiday will be observed most fittingly this season. In addition to the Christmas dinner, the annual Christmas tree and entertainment given by the officers of the R.C.A. to the children of the regiment will be given in Ontario Hall on Thursday afternoon, December 28th

Relics for Christ Church.
 Miss Madeline Wilson, New York, has this Christmasetide presented to Christ church, Cataract, the holy communion table that was used by her father, the late Rev. Dr. Henry Wilson, for eighteen years before his death; also two small oil sketches of him, a small marble font in which his two grandchildren were baptised and five articles belonging to a communion set. Later, Miss Wilson intends sending her father's first hood of M.A. degree and his last hood of D.D. degree of Trinity college, Toronto. All these will be placed in the small room north of the sanctuary. The gifts will also include two handsome books of tributes to Dr. Wilson's life, one presented in Kingston about forty years ago and the other from the Seaman's Mission. The late Dr. Wilson was first rector of Christ church, Cataract.
