Adam and Eve Seek Divorce - And It's All Over an Apple, Of Course

Carl A. Sutter shooting an apple off his wife's head.

PORTLAND, ME.—Adam and Eve are about to be divorced, and it's all over an apple. The famous "first pair," impersonated by Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sutter, the couple who went into the Maine woods about a year ago clad in the latest Eden fashion and lived by their own hands and wits for three months, have come to the parting of the ways.

Eve, (Mrs. Sutter), who is suing for divorce, says she has grown tired of having Adam, (Mr. Sutter), shoot an apple off the top of her head in their vaudeville act—and sometimes fail to miss her. Mr. Sutter blames Eve and the Serpent, impersonated by "Prince Lazuli," a vaudeville actor, claiming his wife left him for the "prince," taking his bankroll with her.

Meanwhile the "Garden of Eden, (in this case the Sutter's flat) is conspicuously labeled with a "Fox Rent" sign.

Every Day They're Getting Younger And Younger - These Kid Prodigies

Jeddy Wright, Jr. SWINGING HEAD DOWN FROM THE RINGS -

Johnny Salvatore

CHICAGO—"Why, when Johnny was only a year old he could say 'this and do that'—" was a member when mothers used to brag about their offspring in this fashion? Not any more. Nowadays a mother has to be able to say "when Johnny was a week old he picked out 'Nearer My God To Thee' with one finger on the piano," in order to cause any kind of a flutter at all. To be precocious nowadays, an infant must be ready for "prep" school at one year and college at three. Witness the extremely early "take-off" in life managed by Johnny Salvatore, left on the doorstep of a Minneapolis athletic director when 12 days old, at 10 months able to chin himself, walk, talk and deliver a Dempsey punch on the jaw to any obnoxious baby-talking aunties. Going him one better, Teddy Wright, Jr., also 10 months old, chins the bar, walks on his hands, turns eight somersaults in succession, swings head down from the rings, swims and floats. And Miss Norma Loeb, a sub-deb of nine weeks, has been sitting alone for a month, walks with assistance, looks you in the eye like a paying teller and takes setting-up exercises!

How To Be 92? "Don't Smoke," Nonogenarian Warns; Others Disagree

YOUNGSTERS, OVER 92, AT MEASURER DINNER

Cyrus Meeker

NEW YORK.—How to live to be 90? "Never smoke or drink," warningly quavered John Armstrong, bachelor, 93, and a total abstainer. "Live an outdoor life, smoke and drink when you can get it," retorted James R. Silliman, Civil War Veteran, 91, who said he had smoked since he was seven years old.

Both were guests of Ezra Meeker, 92, who seventy years ago blazed the Oregon Trail, and who came to New York at his advanced age for the purpose of booming the trail as the best route to the northwest.

Meeker was host to a group of nonogenarians at a dinner in the basement of the Holland Building, and invited his aged guests to tell how they achieved long life. Recipes differed and often were directly contradictory. There was no single rule to which all could assent.

In some parts of India sheep are used as beasts of burden. Fifty pounds of ivory is the average yield of one elephant. Deserts cover 24 per cent. of the earth's surface. A whale is capable of swimming 12 miles an hour.
