The teams, as might be imagined. were just about as evenly matched as THREE each case had to fight a long up hill battle, and overcome a lead, to eventually win out. The curtaines raiser was productive of the most excitement, as the two teams remained 2 all, from the end of the second regular period to the middle of the third ten minute over-time session. The second contest was equally good from a hockey standpoint, both teams being stronger than on their initial appearance.

The race in the local league being exceptionally close this year, and the class of hockey touches the best offered in the so-called "big" games which are staged here at fancy prices. The fans have "hollored" considerable about the high prices charged for the O.H.A. games, and yet they pass up a stellar double-header for "two-bits" in the senior city league. Irishmen vs. A.O.H. Before the opening game had been in progress three minutes the fans were confident that this game would be a grand old battle, and they were more than borne out in their prophesies. It was a nip and tuck race from bell to bell, and the spectators were soon hoarse with yelling for their respective favorites. Up and down, in and across the players raced -a swift shot, thud went the goalie's pad and the cituation was saved for a few seconds and the danger shifted to the other end of the rink. Slam, crash, into the boards, perhaps three players all in a heap, back and forth, at top speed, the play continued. every man working like a second Newsy Lalonde, a Babe Dye and a Mike Goodman rolled into one. Gosh, what a pretty battle it was. It was apparent that the teams that had the breaks would win out. After ten minutes of play, Buzz Lanes rushed in on Logue and tallied from a difficult angle. Not to be outone, Terry Millan pulled off a lone rush two minutes later and slipped a pretty one past Taugher. The teams went to the dressing room with the score tied. In the second round, the boys kept the same hefty pace, and the two scores made by each team were hard-earned. Tommy Angrove and Fred. Brown tallied for Irishmen and Driscoll for the Harps. The third period was a great fight, but no scores were chalked up. Without any rest, the boys entered the first evertime period with just as much spirit as at the start of the game, but the deadlock remained. Ditto the second stretch. Just before the bell rang to change ends in the final seesion, Fred Brown slipped in a hot Queen's University and University shot, and his team played on the de of Toronto were the winners in the fensive until time was called.
