Drawback for Business. The inclement weather on Saturday night was a great drawback to business. The rain and wind kept many citizens indoors and the majority of those who did venture out were forced to do so.

Married in Gananoque. Mr. and Mrs. David Butler, Gananoque, announce the marriage of their second daughter, Greta Mae, to Charles Cartwright, on Thursday, January, 18th, Rev. D. Mick officiat-

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. H. Becker, Brighton, Ont., wish to announce the engagement of their only daughter, E. Marie, to M. H. Keith Roblin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Roblin, Brighton, Ont., the marriage to take place the latter part of January.

Ceased to Work. "What's become of the Mormons?" citizen asked the other day. There appears to be a cessation of activity on the part of this denomination in Kingston lately, and they were no doubt discouraged by the small attendance at the few meetings held Rain on Saturday Night. Kingston had a January thaw on Saturday night. It rained very heavfly, and as a result the roads and the sidewalks were in a terrible condition. The roads were in a very dangerous state for both sleighs and and many citizens did not venture out with their cars.

Organist Engaged. R. T. Cowell, A.R.C.O., who conmusical services in Grace church, Gananoque, has been permanently engaged as organist and choir master. He will be there about February 1st to assume his duties. Mr. Cowell has been in church music all his life and is a gentleman of exceptional ability both as an organist and director.

Dissent From Information, Both the city solicitor and Francis King, K.C., who are the solicitors in connection with the spur agreement between the city and the C.P.R., dissent from the statements published in the Whig, on Friday, on information in the matter given by the mayor and the city industrial commissioner. The solicitors will be very glad to give the facts of the case to any interested Kingstonians.

A Jinx at Work. The managements of the various hockey teams in the city appear to bave a jinx following them around this winter. Almost every night that there has been a game, the weather conditions are against a large turn-out of the fans. On Saturday hight for instance the downpour of rain kept many fans close to their firesides who would otherwise have gone to the game at the Arena.

Faith in Mankind. members of at least one church in this city must have great faith in their fellowmen. A Whig man had occasion to walk into a cermade of oil of mustard and other home | tain church building on Saturday afternoon, where the building was lighted and the front door ajar. He found nobody in the building, but noticed a valuable fur-coat hanging on the wall in the rear of the church, a fur scarf thrown carelessly
