 ected a director of the Ontario Horticultural Association.
 Mrs. H. A. Hoskins, Belleville, left for Toronto, upon the receipt of the news of the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. H. J. Lacey.
 A sad death in Tweed district last week was that of Matilda Beesley, wife of Albert Cournoya, Hungerford, in her fifty-eight year.
 William Carnew, K.C., who underwent an operation early on Sunday in the Belleville General Hospital for peritonitis, is seriously ill.
 Recommendation in favor of the appointment of a Victorian nurse at Belleville to do community service, was made by the Belleville Ministerial Association.
 Dr. N. H. Sutton, Peterborough, has been appointed district officer of health, succeeding Dr. G. Clinton, Belleville. The headquarters of the district will be at Peterborough.

ODESSA I. O. O. F. EVENT.

Arthur Simmons, Wilton, Suffers Fracture While Playing At School.
 Wilton, Feb. 2.—On Thursday evening, Jan. 25th, the members of the Odessa Lodge, I. O. O. F. and their families attended the public installation of officers at the lodge rooms, Odessa. Addresses were given by the officers. A dainty supper was served by members of the lodge.
 Arthur Simmons, son of Guy Simmons met with a serious accident while playing at school by breaking a bone in his ankle. The bone was set by Dr. J. E. Makee, and Arthur is doing nicely.

At Chaffey's Locks.

Chaffey's Lock, Feb. 2.—Dr. F. F.
 Chamberlain has returned from visiting friends in Ottawa, Prescott and Brockville. Quite a number of the residents who have suffered from bad colds and grippe are convalescing.
 The sleighing is good, and people are taking advantage of it in hauling large supplies of wood. The Ladies' Aid held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith, owing to the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was small. Mrs. W. H.
 Fleming is visiting relatives at Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Smythe, Cornwall, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
 Fleming during the past week. D. J.
 Moore is in Lansdowne for the weekend. J. W. Simmons has returned from Kingston. The harvesting of the ice for summer supply is completed, with ice 14 inches to 16 inches thick. M. G. Henniger's cottage is nearing completion and will be ready in early spring. Thorburn's cottage has had some extensive repairs during the past few weeks.

 Allowed in Russian Drinks

Moscow, Feb. 6.—As an economic measure the council of commissars has decided to permit the manufacture and sale of liquors containing up to 20 per cent alcohol. Exclusive rights to manufacture liquors will be vested in the state vodka factories.

HOUSE BURNED AT ODESSA.

Three Meetings Held Last Week for the Farmers.
 Odessa, Feb. 5.—The home of Harry Beck was completely destruyed by fire last Sunday about noon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Beck were eating their dinner when it was first discovered and when help arrived it was too late to save the building. The house belonged to the Overton Powley farm and was partially insured. The fire was supposed to have started from a defective chimney.

Mrs. Leaman, Bedford Mills, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 John Heath. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Reilly, Moscow, spent Saturday guests of Miss Kate Kenyon. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gordon arrived home last Wednesday.

There was a party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Graham last Tuesday night, when their many friends met to wish them every success in their future place of residence and all regret very much that they are leaving here to make their home in Deseronto.

The Odessa public school hockey team played the Albert school last Friday afternoon. The score was in favor of the locals.

Miss Bernice Moore, who has been spending some time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kil-gannon, returned to her home in Watertown. She was accompanied by Mrs. Kilgannon, who expects to spend a month with her daughters, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Souva. Mrs.
 Robert Hamm and children, Harold and Hope, spent a couple of days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 Bristol, Bath. Stanley Fraser is visiting his son, Dr. L. M. Fraser, Gananoque. A baby boy arrived last Friday to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Heath.

There were three interesting days for the farmers last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday when Messrs.
 Cleary, Gault, and Barber, Brantford, delivered lectures and demonstrations under the auspices of the live stock branch of the Dominion department of agriculture, and the agricultural representative branch of the Ontario department of agriculture.

Quite a number of the young people drove to Kingston last Thursday night for a skating party. Dr. Munroe is moving in the O. H. Runion residence.

WHOLE FAMILIES LAID UP

At Clarendon With Influenza—Late William Gamble, Monteth

Clarendon, Feb. 3.—There is a regular epidemic of influenza in and around Clarendon, whole families being laid up at the same time. Among the most serious cases were Mrs. Richard Burke, Mrs. John Boles Jr., and Robert Boles. Mrs. George Burke, Perth, was called here on Monday on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. John Boles, at George's. George Craw has gone to Orillia to work for the C. P. Rly. Company's extra gang. The sidings are fast filling with pulpwood, lumber, etc.
 The Frontenac Lumber Company is loading lumber and ties at Roberts-ville siding. Thomas Fox and Frank Breman, Deseronto, are stopping at The Frontenac House. Mrs. Robert Francis called on Clarendon friends today.

Mrs. McDonald, teacher at Boles school has gone to Toronto for a couple of weeks, all the children being laid up with flu, and school closed. Mr. and Mrs. John Welsh and family are on the sick list. J. Campbell and E. Kirkham are loading lumber at Robertsville. Mr. and Mrs. John Crain are visiting their son, Harold at Lonsdale.

William Gamble received the sad news today of the death of his youngest son Willie, Monteth, New Ontario, aged twenty-one years.
 Deceased had been ill with influenza but was improving at the last written word. The wire telling of his death came as a great shock to Mr.
 Gamble and his sister, Mrs. Richard Burke. Much sympathy is extended to them in their bereavement.

Mrs. E. Boles, Winnipeg, has been dangerously ill with erysipelas. Her many friends here are glad to hear doctors now have hope of her recovery. Mrs. Boles was formerly Miss Finnigan, teacher at Clarendon.
 Charlie Cook took his son Robbie to Sharbot Lake yesterday where Dr.
 Bogart removed his tonsils.

Battersea News Budget

Battersea, Feb. 2.—Roads are in very good condition once more after the recent storms. Wood cutting is the order of the day amongst the men. Keeler Bros. from the Carrying Place, filled all the ice houses this week. The hockey players are not daunted by recent failures, but are practicing as lively and energetic-ly as ever. The many friends of Russell Balls are sorry to know he is very low. Mr. Lennon, Queen street occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday.
 He gave an interesting talk on education. Miss Jennie Clarke, Keeler-ville is visiting friends in the village.
 Gordon Duce's a improving nicely after his serious illness. Miss Margaret Jamieson, Albert College, is spending a few days at home. Fred Langford has been engaged as cheese-maker for the coming season. Mrs.
 Alec. Turner spent the week-end with friends at Sunbury. The Ladies Aid are preparing to have an oyster supper on Feb. 14th. Mrs.
 Bert Hartley and Mrs. Arthur Sparks are confined to their beds with the grippe. Mrs. Leonard VanLoven received word that her brother A.
 Teachon, Watertown, was dead.

Chatham's civic advisory board recommended that all large civi-grants to outside bodies be submitted to the ratepayers, and that a spending bodies have their estimate ready by the middle of this month.
