ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.
 The Letter Carriers Were "Love-Laden" On Their Rounds.
 The Kingston letter carriers were "love-laden" on Wednesday morning and this was due to the fact that it was St. Valentine's Day. Many were the messages of love and esteem which found their way into the homes during the day.
 The day of the alleged comic valentines is over or in other words, "them days is gone forever." Tuesday afternoon the down-town stores were filled with people purchasing valentines. It is a day well remembered by the children. In the junior grades at the various public schools, the scholars turned out very pretty valentines, and presented them to their parents and friends.

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"Maytime in Erin"
At Grand Tonight

Walter Scanlan, popular local favorite, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House tonight, one night only, in a new Irish romantic comedy, entitled "Maytime in Erin." From advance reports it is said to be a charming comedy of youth with a pretty love story running through its three acts, and deals with the adventures of Miles O'Dowd, a young Irish barrister, in love with a winsome lassie, an orphan, whose father mysteriously disappeared on a voyage to Australia. "Maytime in Erin" is from the pen of the distinguished author, Edward E. Rose, who wrote "Irish Eyes" for Mr. Scanlan last season, with the scenes laid in the picturesque hamlet of Ballybane County Kilkenny, Ireland, and Mr. George M. Gatsis, has chosen a strong cast to support his young popular singing star. Mr. Scanlan will render the following new songs during the action of the play, viz., "Puff O' My Pipe," "Mother's Paisley Shawl," "I Was a Pilgrim in Loveland," "Old Irish Air," "Some Day," and "Jolly Bachelors."

Old Bill, Bert and Alf Back Once More

Old Bill, Bert and Alf, the three famous musketeers, are known the world over and are brought to life again in the wonderful motion picture "The Better 'Ole" which will be the feature attraction at the Allen theatre for three days beginning Thursday. The secret of the story's wonderful success is its close and true analysis of the spirit which kept them cheerful under conditions almost indescribable. The army was full of Old Bills, Berts and Alfs, with their sorrows and pleasures—pleasures that made the very word seem a mockery—but true reflections of what the daily life of the boys was "Over There." "The Better 'Ole" will do more than raise a laugh, it will make the people understand as never before why the great war was fought to a bitter finish and how much was due to the Berts, Alfs and Old Bills who stood as a living wall of protection for the people at home. Those of our patrons who have not yet seen Norma Talmadge supported by Eugene O'Brien in "The Voice From The Minaret" should make a point of seeing it tonight as it will be their last opportunity.

"The Pride of Palomar"

A virile story of California with a powerful theme is "The Pride of Palomar," a Cosmopolitan production from Peter B. Kyne's noted novel of the same name, which will be at the Strand theatre tomorrow. The leading roles are portrayed by Marjorie Daw and Forrest Stanley. The story tells of the struggle of a World War veteran against crushing interests in his native state, the fight centering around the possession of the family ranch, which he finds on his return from overseas service, has all but fallen into the hands of the enemy. Making the story highly dramatic is the fact that the father of the girl whom the young man loves heads the opposing interests. There is also the great problem for the girl of deciding where she ought to stand in the fight between her father and her sweetheart. She loves both, and novel way of meeting the situation is thrilling. The picture has an all star cast and has been well produced by Frank Borzage, who directed "Humoresque." Forrest Stanley and Marjorie Daw have the featured roles, and other important parts are portrayed by James Barrow, Warner Oland and Joseph Dowling.
 In addition to the feature, Eddie Jackson, held over by popular demand, sings Broadway latest song successes. Last round of the New Leather Pushers and Strand News, complete this DeLuxe programme.

OBITUARY

The Late William Knox.
 A very sudden death occurred in the village of Harrowsmith, on Monday afternoon, when William Knox, aged fifty-three years of age, passed away. The deceased, who worked on the railway, was about as usual on Monday and worked all morning. He returned to his home for dinner and after he partook of the meal he went to the back yard for the purpose of splitting wood. While there he was taken with an acute attack of indigestion, and, although the doctors were called, he failed to rally and died at 4.30 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and seven children, three of them residing with their parents. The late Mr. Knox formerly lived at Verona and only recently moved to the village of Harrowsmith. He was a Free Methodist and the funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon, to Harrowsmith cemetery, and will be in charge of H. J. Knight, undertaker, Sydenham.

Late Mrs. W. A. Kelley.
 Margaret J. McCulla, widow of the late William A. Kelley, 115 Bay street, passed away at her late residence on Wednesday morning. Deceased was seventy-seven years of age and had been ill for some time.

Case in Police Court.
 There was a short session of the police court on Wednesday morning. Owing to the fact that the police court room is undergoing repairs, the session was held in the juvenile court room. There was one case on the docket that of a woman charged with securing money under false pretences, but the case was disposed of on the accused paying back the amount involved, about $45.

Late Mrs. F. Leaden.
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Frederick Leaden was held from her late residence, 14 Dufferin street, on Wednesday morning to St. Mary's cathedral under the direction of M. P. Keyes. The funeral was largely attended. A solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Hanley. The pall bearers were Alex Potter, B. Tiernay, B. Potter, R. Sargent, W. Arnell and G. Leaden.

TOO MANY SMALL BOYS SMOKING CIGARETTES

Chief of Police Asked to Investigate—Playgrounds For the Older Children.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Central council of Home and School clubs was held in their regular meeting hall with a splendid representation of the schools.
 At present there seems to be an increasing use of the cigarette by the small boy of the city, who is unquestionably under age. In view of this fact Trustee Norman and Mr. Kirkpatrick moved that the secretary write the chief of police regarding the matter, asking him to take steps to see the above matter be investigated as to the source of supply.

The council felt that the Board of Education should be congratulated for the splendid interest taken in the younger children by providing them teachers and playgrounds for the months of July and August, but they also think that the larger children should be provided with some supervised amusements for the summer months. On motion of Mrs. H. Rankin and Mr. Steacy, it was decided to ask the city council to see that playgrounds be established and properly supervised on the north side of the city.

In order to encourage athletics in the different schools, a series of league games are to be arranged for the month of May, the winning teams to have suitable trophies.

The committee interested in the concert reported all schools had arranged for their numbers. The selection and arrangement of the same are to be under the direction of H. Hill, musical director. This concert proves to be a very unique affair in that every school in the city and Portsmouth is to have a part.

To bring about more uniformity in the workings of the different clubs in the city, the federated council in Toronto is being asked to send down a constitution that may be presented to the different clubs for consideration. This matter was brought forward by Mrs. C. S. Ross and Mrs. C. L. Smith, Portsmouth.

 The petition signed by all the teachers in the city was brought before the members and read. This petition dealing with matters of advertisement detrimental to the schools is to be presented to W. F. Nickle, member for Kingston, and A. W. Gray, member for Leeds, who have promised to bring the matter up for legislation.
 Mrs. G. Prager, secretary of council, was appointed delegate to the federated council which meets at Easter time in Toronto.

CONCERT AND PIE SOCIAL

Held In St. Luke's Hall On Tuesday Evening.

A successful concert and pie social was held in St. Luke's church on Shrove Tuesday. The night was perfect in every way and the large hall was attractively decorated for the affair. There was a splendid crowd in attendance.
 At eight o'clock the rector, Rev. J. G. Wright, took the chair and a splendid programme of songs, recitations and choruses was presented. At the conclusion of the programme the ladies of the church served cakes, coffee, sandwiches and pie. Arbuckle's orchestra was in attendance and played generously throughout the evening.
 Among those who took part in the programme were the Misses Connor, Compton, Pringle, Duncan and Posselwhite, Madame Kettle and Messrs. Saunders, Marshall, A. Marshall and Frost. The entertainment broke up after the singing of the national anthem.
 Hon. Charles Murphy, postmaster-general, who left for the south in search of health, is far from well. It is not anticipated that he will be back for some considerable time.
 Robert Adamson, Hamilton, was sentenced to five years for the theft of two automobiles. He had a record of ten convictions against him.
