Exhibition Hockey At Clinton, N. Y., on Thursday night, Queen's hockey team of Kingston, defeated the Hamilton University team by 3 to 4.

Teammates vs Frontenac

The Young Teammates and Frontenac play-off their tie in the recent championship game of the junior city championship at the Arena on Saturday night. The winners of this game will play Regiopolis on Tuesday night, and the team that emerges victorious will then meet St. Mary's for the junior honors.

Infour Baseball

H. Q. R.C.A. defeated Field Ambulance by 13 to 11 in a scheduled baseball game at the amphitheatre on Thursday night. The game was fairly interesting, although both teams were weak as a result of players being sick. Lawless and Clarke pitched good ball for the Medicals and H. Q. respectively. The loss eliminates the Medicals from the running for group honors.

District Headquarters defeated No. 1 (H) Battery in what was supposed to have been the second game.

Senior Juvenile Champions

St. Mary's won the championship round in the senior juvenile series by defeating Regiopolis last night by 10 to 3, taking the round by 15 to 7. The game was played at St. Mary's rink and a very large crowd was in attendance. McGrath and Amodeo starred for the game and goal, while Boyd and McHugh were the best for St. Mary's.

St. Mary's were junior juvenile champions in 1913-14 and senior juvenile champions in 1911-12-13. St. Mary's—Gibson, goal, Yorkes and England, defense, McMahon and Cousins, wings, Boyd, centre, and Lawless and Carey, subs. Regiopolis—Lawrence, goal, McGrath and James, defense, Amodeo, centre, Tetso and M. McGrath, wings Fitzgerald and Connolly, subs. Referee—L. Gairney.

To Play at Ogdensburg

The Queen's senior basketball team left for Ogdensburg, N.Y., on Friday noon to play an exhibition game with the crack team of that place. The Queen's students have made a good showing and should put up a good exhibition.

GUESTS OF GOVERNOR COCKSHUT AT TORONTO

Kingston Mayor, Aldermen and Officials Were Royally Entertained on Thursday. The Kingston mayor, aldermen and officials who went to Toronto as guests of the Lieutenant-governor at the Government House on Thursday enjoyed their trip very much. They found themselves in the company of about one hundred and fifty aldermen, councillors and officials of other municipalities of eastern Ontario and all sat down to luncheon at 1.30 p. m. Lieutenant-governor Cockshut presided and proposed the toast to "The King." The toast to the Lieutenant-governor was proposed by W. F. Ninkie, K. C., M. P. P. who met the Kingston party at the Prince George Hotel. There were no further addresses.

Many of the aldermen and city officials returned to Kingston Friday morning, but Mayor Angrove remained over and will await the arrival of the members of the utilities commission who go to Toronto Friday to confer with the Hydro-Commission over the charges for street lighting.

Among the other matters to be taken up with the Hydro will be the purchase of a site by the local commission for the purpose of erecting an office building which the city council has declared is not needed. The Hydro commission is the final authority, when it is constituted, regarding the expenditure of any surplus from electricity but no such surplus has come to light in the controversy between the utilities commission and the city council to show that Hydro was ever asked to contribute in the payment of surplus revenue to the city as corporation funds.

DISPOSE OF ASSETS CREDITORS AUTHORIZE

Not Likely to Realize 40 Cents on Dollar—Seven Depositors Among Creditors

Hamilton, Feb. 14.—Assets of the W. E. Sanford Co., of Hamilton, clothing manufacturers, will be disposed of—material on hand by auction, the real estate by tender, and the manufactured stocks by private sale—so the creditors who met yesterday in the office of G. T. Clarkson, official trustee, decided. Assets are estimated at $418,227, and liabilities $778,713. Stocks of various kinds total $311,424, and there is a nominal equity of $106,803 in real estate. At the outside, not more than 10 or 20 cents on the dollar will be realized for the creditors. A suggestion was made that perhaps the Sanford interests and the banks might get together and make an offer for the assets, to simplify liquidation, but the Bank of Montreal representative doubted the possibility of this.

Among those attending the meeting was General Mewburn, representing Mrs. Sanford. There seemed to be no disposition to ask questions as to how the collapse had come about. Mr. Clarkson explained that when the failure took place there were certain stocks delivered, which by unanimous consent of the creditors were returned to the shippers, as they had been ordered after the firm became insolvent. It was agreed by the same creditors that the manufacture of certain goods then in stock should be proceeded with by the trustees, in order to make the assets as large as possible.

Sale of Oak Hall

All the creditors were probably aware of the sale of the X-helm of stores known as Oak Hall by the Sanford Company in May. These had been sold to McCutcheon and Paterson for $700,000. Some of the notes had been paid to the company and some hypothecated to the Bank of Montreal.

"In that connection," he said, "the Union Bank of Winnipeg has issued a writ to set aside that sale under the Bulk Sales Act, on the grounds that all its conditions were not complied with. Messrs. McCutcheon and Paterson paid for the stock of the Oak Hall-stores 50 per cent. of the selling price.

"Also I applied to the court for instruction as to what attitude I should assume as trustee. I was instructed to take action as a plaintiff, if such were prosecuted, to protect the rights of the creditors, if there are any such rights. I do not think it is the idea of going ahead with the prosecution, as this action would possibly injure available assets while it would not do any good any other way."

James Bain, K.C., for the Union Bank, said there was no objection to the matter being left in abeyance provided the rights of the creditors were not prejudiced in any way. This assurance was given.

Mr. Clarkson explained that what order action had been taken in connection with the disposal of goods at the factory, and the shipments, was with the consent of 90 per cent. of the shareholders.

Mortgage For Loan

To Mr. Bain, Gen. Mewburn explained that it was a cash loan, not a mortgage, for $150,000, that was made in January, 1922, to the company by the Sanford estate, as security for which the mortgage was given. The usual resolutions were passed, approving of the trustee's decisions as above indicated, and to appoint inspectors, among whom were Col. Henderson, Hamilton, representing the Sanford estate; a representative for the Bank of Montreal; James Bain, K.C., for the Union Bank; R. K. Lockhart, for the English creditors, and Mr. Hepburn for the Sanford Company.

In the long list of creditors are a few whose losses wipe out practically all that they have. Among these are a few who, as employees and friends of the Sanford firm, were privileged to place money on deposit at 8 per cent. interest, double what the banks pay.

Among depositors who suffer are Mrs. Oliver, Hamilton, $5,333.23, R. R. Wilson, Long Beach, Cal., $3,125.98, Mrs. H. W. Edwards, Denver, Col., $1,820.24, Mrs. Purkis, Hamilton, $1,574.21, Mrs. F. Stockton, Hamilton, $735.50, Thos. Webb, 567 Mountain Top, Hamilton, $110.40.

While Mrs. Sanford is not altogether in this class, she is one of those who will lose heavily. Her advances to the firm amounted to $152,174, and with a further sum of $321,568 against the Sanford estate, the losses exceed $500,000, and will practically wipe out all that Mrs. Sanford has.

No one in Hamilton has a wider reputation for charity than Mrs. Sanford. She established a summer home, at Hamilton Beach, known as "Elsener," which enabled working girls from this city and Hamilton to obtain a holiday outing at a minimum of cost. She was the friend to whom all of the employees looked to when in adversity.

Habits That Pay Dividends

Catalogue anyone's habits—and you have a pretty accurate idea of the person. Bad habits seem to come in for most attention, maybe because they're more evident, maybe because they make more interesting conversation.

But good habits—habits of kindness, of honesty, of thrift—are the ones that pay big dividends in friendship and character and comfort. And because we are interested in the virtues that the A-B-C Classified Section can give to an increasing number of thrifty people in this city, we suggest that you make it one of your good habits to consult these changeable little ads every time a need for spending money arises.

There are few wants of everyday life that cannot be satisfied through a regular reading of the offers in the scores of interesting classifications that make up the Whig's Classified Section.
