City Hockey League Tonight will witness the final scheduled games in the senior city hockey league when Irishmen and Live Wires will settle their differonces in the opening contest and the Hibernians and the Artillerymen will battle for the collar honors in the final contest. The last game in which the Sons of Ireland and the Live Wires classed will be long remembered by the fans. They battled for thirty minutes' overtime to a draw and the return match tonight will arouse unbounded interest among the fans.

A meeting of the city hockey league, has been called for Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock; when several important matters will be considered. The juniors will have a protest game to be decided upon, while the seniors will have to cogitate concerning the arrangements for the play-offs in both groups.

AT SUPREME COURT

Members of Kingston Bar Extend Congratulations to Hon. Justice Mowat.

There was a very pleasant feature 15 to 3, thus taking the round by 24 at the opening of the sittings of the to 3 for the Elliott trophy. They supreme court on Tuesday afterwill now enter the finals with the noon, when G. M. Macdonnell, K.C., senior member of the bar association Play was exciting throughout but in Kingston, on behalf of the memdonnell stated that the members of the Kingston bar wished to extend to his lordship, their heartiest congratulations. It was a pleasure to extend congratulations to a representative of a family which had for a century at least been concerned in the building and making of King-

> Mr. Macdonnell stated that his recollections carried him back to the days of the grandfather of his lordship, who was a charter member and one of the founders of Queen's University. His name appeared on the royal charter.

> The speaker also referred to the fact that the father of his lordship was a very eminent theological pro" fessor at Queen's University, while his brother, J. McDonald Mowat, also a member of the Kingston bar. died a glorious death in Flanders Field. The speaker expressed the hope that his lordship would live many years, to uphold the traditions of his family in Kingston.

Hon. Justice Mowat replied feel-10 ingly, and recalled the fact that as 5 a boy, he had spent much time in this same court room. He said that the bar of Kingston had always stood up as eminent, and recalled James O'Rielly, who was the senior lawyer in his day. His lordship also recalled some of the men of the Kingston bar, including Sir John Macdonald, B. M. Britton, John Mc-Intyre, T. H. McGuire, Dr. R. T. Walkem, J. B. Walkem, R. V. Rogers and G. M. Macdonnell and remarked that there was no better bar. "You have traditions to live up to," said his lordship, "and it is indeed a great pleasure for me to His lordship also referred to the fact that his grandfather had property, erected 106 years ago, at the corner of Bagot and Princess streets. Of general interest to the citizens | His lordship also stated that he was

Legislature Division-Ontario Has a Surplus of Over a Million Dollars.

Toronto, Feb. 21,-The debate on the speech from the throne was wound up in the legislature last night when the first division of the session gave the government a maicrity of twenty-seven, the vote being 50 to 23. The division was on the adjournment of the debate, moved by Col. J. A. Currie, southeast Toronto. The government refused to consent to an adjournment. Col. Currie stated that he wished to submit an amendment, but that owing to a cold, was unable to speak last night. George Halcrow's amendment calling for redistribution was ample.
