While in Carleton Place the Kingston deputation inspected the woolen mills which are running at full capacity.

Justice Mowat's address to the grand jury will appear on Thursday. Our crowded columns today prevented its appearance.

Rev. J. H. H. Coleman rector of St. Mary Magdalene's church, Napanee, will be the special preacher at the Lenten service in St. George's Cathedral this evening.

The court on Tuesday was late in opening on account of the fast train, on which Justice Mowat came from Toronto, being one hour late reaching the Grand Trunk outer station.

At a meeting of the Belleville Women's Canadian Club on Monday, Dr. S. W. Dyde delivered a very interesting address on the life of Jean Francois Millet, the great French painter.

A warm invitation was given Rev. Dr. Brown by the official board of Holloway street Methodist church, Belleville to remain for another year. Dr. Brown was formerly of Sydenham street Methodist church.

When the list of the petty jurors was called at the supreme court sittings on Tuesday afternoon four failed to answer. The four men were absent on account of illness, and this excuse was acceptable to the judge.

On Feb. 19th, Hon. Mr. Copp, for the minister of defence, said in reply to Dr. Ross, that the matter of converting Sydenham Hospital site into military headquarters or barracks was under consideration, but no decision has been arrived at.

The condition of Ralph Parker, who was seriously injured near Napanee on Monday evening, and is now in the Hotel Dieu, was reported to be much better on Wednesday morning. The unfortunate man is still in a semi-conscious state.

There was a pleasing incident at the opening of the sittings of the supreme court on Wednesday morning. Sheriff Vair presented Justice Mowat with a pair of white gloves, in view of the fact that there were no criminal cases on this court.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Jane Costello, widow of the late Samuel Costello, 65 Patrick street, was held on Wednesday afternoon from her late residence under the direction of S. S. Corbett. Interment took place at Cataract cemetery, Rev. A. F. Brown conducting the service at the house.

THOMPSON—In Sydenham, on Feb. 20th, 1923, Samuel Thompson, aged 77 years.

Funeral service on Thursday, Feb. 22nd, from his late residence, to Sydenham cemetery. Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend.

IN MEMORIAM.
FARRELLY—In loving memory of our dear mother, Elizabeth Farrelly, who passed away February the 21st, 1923.

A loving mother, kind and true,
One of the best the world ever knew,
God took her home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love her still.
One sad year has passed us by,
Since you left us here to pine,
But we hope to meet once again
In the land that knows no pain.

LAIDLAW'S
FOR YARD GOODS

"Laidlaw's For Yard Goods" is a slogan that has been conferred by custom. More than that, it is still being earned through procuring the new weaves, keeping in touch with what is new in colors, and thus being able to speak authoritatively on advance styles, and through careful guarding quality.

Not only in Silks, but in Woolens and Cotton goods as well, you will always find a pleasing choice at this store — facts which further support the truism, and its all-the-year-through application — "Laidlaw's for Yard Goods."
