Life's Social Side

Editor of Women's Page, Telephone 243. Private phone 857w.

On Friday, Feb. 16th, a very pleasant social event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Furst, 1291 Arsenal street, Watertown, N. Y., when about sixty friends and neighbors assembled as invited guests to celebrate their hosts' twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for forty-two in their spacious dining-room and at 1.30 p. m. a sumptuous luncheon was served, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Furst, cateress. The table decorations were pink and white carnations, while potted plants, and ferns and cut flowers adorned the house. After luncheon a very pleasing programme was given, including music, readings, monologues, etc., and Mrs. Henry Wordsworth, one of Watertown's talented singers, rendered "Oh Promise Me," in such a pleasing manner that she was called back several times. "Laddie" was also one of her selections. After the programme came the presentation of a beautiful and costly box of silver by twelve couples of the Watertown Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Furst being active members of the same order. Mr. Furst on behalf of himself and Mrs. Furst expressed their appreciation in a very feeling manner.

There were also many more beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass, linen and Pyrexware from individual friends. On account of catching trains and buses the party dispersed about 4.30 after wishing the couple many more happy years of wedded life and hoping to be present at their fiftieth anniversary. It will be remembered that Mrs. Furst was formerly Miss Hattie Struthers, daughter of the late Benjamin Struthers, Morton, Ont., and sister of Mrs. N. A. Johnson, Seely's Bay, where the marriage took place twenty-five years ago.

There was a good attendance of members at the Wednesday meeting of the Badminton Club and several tables of bridge were in play. Among those present were: Col. and Mrs. Victor Anderson, Col. and Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Francis Constantine, Col. Dawson, Col. and Mrs. A. E. Harris, Major and Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Charles Grant (Halifax), Mrs. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. F. W. Hill, Mrs. W. H. Macnee, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. W. P. Wilger, Miss Mollie Cartwright, Mrs. Jemmett, Miss Martineau, Prof. and Mrs. Keith Hicks, Col. Ogilvie and Miss Mary Ogilvie, Major and Mrs. Victor Williams, Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Marchie.

Mrs. R. J. Leach, Major Lafferty, Miss Yvette Lafferty (Quebec), Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Edith Carruthers, Miss Audrey McLeod (St. John), Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Laura Kilborn, Capt. Roberts, Prof. Bridger, Capt. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joseph expect to sail for Canada on March 23. They are still in Rome, where they have been for some time and before returning home will visit Naples, Venice, Florence and Cannes. Mrs. Joseph spent several weeks recently at St. Moritz, Switzerland, with her daughter, Miss Ethel O. Joseph and while there acted as a judge at a fancy-dress ball given at the Klum Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph had the honor of an audience with His Holiness, Pope Pius XI. on January 27th, in Rome and the following day visited the Royal Palace. They have also attended a reception at the British Embassy and a luncheon there recently.

Crowds of visitors filled Mrs. Grant Pyke's pretty home on Aberdeen avenue on Wednesday, when she received for the first time this season. Mrs. Pyke, who was assisted in blue satin and lace, was greeted by Mrs. George Pyke and Mrs. Alexander Macdonald, who were kept busy serving tea to the constant stream of visitors.

ONE HOUSEKEEPER'S FINANCIAL BUDGET

A friend has just sent me her financial budget. She lives in a town in the State of Illinois. Prices there differ, naturally, from prices at other places. But, on her husband's salary of $38 a week, it is interesting to see how she manages: "What I spend in a month: Rent, $35. Insurance, $10. Food, $40. Gas and Electricity, $5. Water, $1.25. Telephone, $2.25. Coal, $9. Laundry, $3. Dues, (Lodge), $4. Papers, $1. Garage, $3. Automobile: Gas and oil, $3. Clothes, $10. Entertainment, $6. Gifts, etcetera, $4. Savings, $10. The total of these amounts to $146.50. I enclose a menu which is one that my husband and I tried out, to help a friend of ours who could allow only $8.50 or 9.00 a week for food; Tuesday: Breakfast, Oatmeal 2c. Buttered Toast, 5c Bacon and Eggs 15c, Coffee 2c, Milk and Cream 10c. Noon Dinner, Pot Roast from snouter, 60c Potatoes 3c, Cauliflower 20c, Gravy and Garnishing 1c, Cakes with one-half pint of Whipped Cream 13c, Coffee and Rolls 12c. Supper, Rissoles (from pot roast) 3c, Jelly and left-over Whipped Cream 13c, Coffee, Bread and Butter 5c. Wednesday (I won't repeat breakfast, as they vary only slightly and run anywhere from 30c to 35c). Noon Dinner, Rice and Meat Croquettes 5c, Creamed Cauliflower 25c, Peach Pudding 8c, Lettuce Salad 5c, Coffee and Bread 5c, Milk and Cream 10c. Supper, Hash on Toast, 8c, Peaches and Cake 7c, Cocoa 7c. Thursday: Sirloin Steak 35c, Potatoes 7c, Lettuce with Dressing 7c, Canned Fruit (which the housekeeper can put up herself, but is now counting the cost of) 15c, Rolls and Coffee 12c. Supper, Rice Croquettes 5c, Tarts made from the left-over canned fruit from dinner 7c, Cocoa 7c. Friday: Dinner, Salmon 35c Potatoes au Gratin 14c, Asparagus Salad 12c, Sponge Cake and Berries 10c. Supper, Potatoes au Gratin 12c, Chicken Salad 7c, Coffee and Rolls 12c."

Tomorrow—Contributed Recipes

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use YOUR full name, street number, and the name of your city and province.—The Editor.

on this day will have a fairly vigorous nature and a mind leaning toward higher research.

Princely Courtesy.

A true story of the Prince of Wales, showing his fine qualities of kindness and courtesy, is given in the current issue of the British Weekly. One day an old man, whose sight was very nearly gone, was standing on the island site in Faccadilly circus, waiting with some anxiety for an opportunity to pass through the never-ending traffic. He was accosted by a young man, who offered his guidance, which was thankfully accepted. After crossing the roadway his dim eyes noticed that several hats were raised as he reached the pavement, and his young rescuer passed into the throng. A passer-by approached the old gentleman and asked him if he knew who had helped him across, and he replied, "Not in the least—but he was exceedingly kind to me." Then, to his surprise, he learned that it was the Prince of Wales.

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE
By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, FEB. 23.
According to the lunar transits, this promises to be a rather routine day, with events moving along in customary grooves. In social, domestic and romantic affiliations it would seem as though there might be friction or disappointment, although the inharmonious may not be more than a passing misunderstanding. The mind may be found eager, restless or speculative, with possibly a leaning toward the occult or to investigation of the finer forces or inventions.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a quiet year in business. The mind may lean toward investigation of the higher and finer forces and inventions with possibly a tendency toward metaphysical thought. Home and heart affairs may not be entirely harmonious. A child born

The Simmons "Banner" Spring

There is only one way to be sure a spring is a Simmons Spring built for sleep. Ask to be shown the Simmons Label. A genuine Simmons has the Simmons Label. No other kind has.

It's just old-fashioned Economy to buy a Simmons Spring

OFTEN the men of a family do not see how far-reaching a woman's economy is.

She buys a Simmons Spring. Pays about what an ordinary spring would cost. But a Simmons Spring lasts. It does not sag. It keeps springy.

Right there is one sound reason for insisting on the spring with the Simmons Label.

Here is another reason. Every Simmons Spring is built for sleep.

It supports the body correctly—gives at the right places to be comfortable and stays firm where it should stay firm. Your muscles and nerves relax. Sleep follows quickly—sound, refreshing sleep.

Yet this does not add one cent to price.

Look for the Simmons Label—only the genuine has it, no imitation has.

Simmons Springs—Built for Sleep $5.50 to $50.00

Simmons Mattresses—Built for Sleep Ostermoor $25.00

Also—Red Label—Green Label—White Label at prices to suit every purse.
