URGES CLEANLINESS IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Justice Herbert Mowat Gives Some Pointers to the Grand Jury.

On Thursday morning when the sittings of the Supreme Court resumed, Justice Mowat asked if the grand jury were ready to make its report, and the foreman of the jury reported that the members had not completed the inspection of the public buildings. Justice Mowat stated that he was pleased to know that the jurymen were making a very careful examination of the public institutions of which there are many in Kingston. He drew attention to the fact that it was very important that the public institutions be kept absolutely clean. He referred to the grand jury in Toronto which recently made special reference to an office in one of the public institutions where cigar and cigarette stubs were all over the floor when the jurymen entered the room. He said that everything should be spic and span and nothing should be too small to notice. Cleanliness was very important.

Justice Mowat also made special reference to the passing of the late John L. Whiting, K.C. He referred to him as an old friend and clever lawyer. Justice Mowat said that he missed the late Mr. Whiting very much as he was a valuable official and good citizen.

The grand jury then left the court room for the purpose of inspecting the other public institutions.

IN MEMORIAM

CANNEM—In fond and loving memory of William Cannem, who died February 22nd, 1914.
There is someone who misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went,
There is someone who thinks of you daily,
But tries to be brave and content.
My lips cannot speak how I miss you,
My heart cannot tell what to say,
Only God knows how I miss you,
Aching hearts alone can say,
—His loving wife.
I mourn the absent voice and face,
That made home doubly dear,
But memory fits the vacant place
And keeps him ever near.
—His daughter, Mrs. A. G. Turner,
Ottawa, Ontario.
