

FEMINISMS

By Annette Bradshaw

THAT AGES-OLD CRAZE FOR THE EXCLUSIVE.

Miss Sportswoman—Ah, I'm so glad to see that you have a really fair assortment of sportswomen canes to carry in the country and at the resorts, but—please!—won't you make one just for me and then forget the model?

PRODUCTION AT ODESSA.

"Safety First" Presented—Girls Entertain Miss Mildred Storms. Odessa, Feb. 26. —The farce comedy in three acts "Safety First" given by the Volunteer workers of Fourth line last Thursday night in the township hall, was considered one of the best entertainments of the kind for a long time. The actors took their parts wonderfully well. The Odessa four piece orchestra played several choice selections between the acts.

John Graham left last Tuesday for his new home in Deseronto, Arthur Shane is moving on his farm, recently purchased from Mrs. Sanford Thompson and known as the Gardner place. Andrew Robinson is moving on the Vrooman place, formerly known as the Denyes farm. John McKnight is moving on the H. S. Davy farm, vacated by Arthur Shane.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Denyes entertained a few of their friends last Wednesday evening.

Twelve little girl friends and school-chums arranged for a little surprise party for Miss Mildred Storms, Friday night, by meeting at her home and presenting her with a handsome remembrance. Miss Storms is leaving to make her home in Yarker and will be missed very much.

Thomas Mills, Moscow has purchased the house at present occupied by Clarence Giddy, from William Frink. Roy Storms is moving to Yarker. Mr. and Mrs. Storms' many friends are very sorry to have them leave the village.

Mrs. Woodcock passed away at her home in Oshawa, last Thursday. The remains were taken to Napanee Friday afternoon and placed in the vault there to be interred later in the family plot. Mrs. Henry Atkinson and Mrs. Fairbanks are daughters of the deceased.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR. There is hardly a neighborhood in the United States where women cannot be found who have derived benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For nearly fifty years this botanic medicine has been overcoming some of the worst forms of female ill. As one woman has been benefited by its use she has told others who have used it with the same good results; so the use of this great medicine has spread from shore to shore by the recommendation of those who have found it good. Therefore, ask your neighbor; let her tell you from experience the benefit which all women derive from its use.

son and Mrs. Fairbanks are daughters of the deceased. Mr. Fenwick Connelly, Yarker, is spending a few days, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Thompson. Miss Hattie York spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Sanford Thompson. Mrs. Mark Fraser spent Monday with friends in Napanee. Fenwick Connelly and Mrs. D. F. Thompson spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Simmons, Wilton.

The many friends of Miss Mamie Gardner will be interested to know, that she was married last Thursday in New York to J. C. Wolf, Rutherford, New Jersey. Miss Gardner lived in New York over twenty years and visited her relatives, friends and her old home here last summer.

Though there may be many rich, many virtuous men, fame must necessarily be the portion of but few. Every absurdity has a champion to defend it, for error is usually talkative.
