OBITUARY

Late Mrs. Mary Webster
Mrs. Mary Alexander Webster, widow of the late William A. Webster, a former well-known resident of this city, passed away at the residence of her son, Charles R. Webster, Frontenac and Union streets, on Wednesday after an illness extending over several weeks. Deceased was born in County of Tipperary, Ireland, eighty-six years ago, and after leaving her native land, resided in California for some years. Since 1885 she lived in Kingston. Her husband predeceased her in 1892. She was a member of Sydenham street Methodist church. Surviving are two sons, Charles R. Webster and C. E. Webster, both of this city.

Late Mrs. E. McCullough.
Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough, widow of the late William McCullough, this city, passed away at the Hotel Dieu on Wednesday evening. The deceased suffered a painful accident about six weeks ago and since that time had been confined to hospital. Her husband predeceased her about eight years ago. Her only daughter, Mrs. Edwin Parson, and her husband, Solvay, N.Y., both passed away within the last year.

The late Mrs. McCullough had been a nurse for a number of years and was known as a cheerful and willing charitable worker, especially among the poor of the city. She was a life-long member of the First Baptist church and took a very active part in the various societies and work of that congregation. She was seventy-six years of age but had retained her full faculties until a few days before her death.

Late Miss J. R. Drummond.
Miss Jane Redpath Drummond, eldest daughter of the late Andrew Drummond, Ottawa, passed away at her late residence, 223 Albert street, on Wednesday morning. She was seventy-seven years of age and was a life-long member of St. Andrew's church.

The late Miss Drummond was a member of a well-known Canadian family that had taken a prominent place in national and imperial affairs. She was the daughter of a distinguished Scotch-Canadian, who came to this country in his early youth, and for some years was manager of the Bank of Montreal in Kingston, later being transferred to Ottawa. His brother, the late Sir George Drummond, Montreal, was a very outstanding figure in the Quebec metropolis of some years ago. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Katherine, Kingston; Mrs. Frank Taylor, Winnipeg; and one brother, Robert Drummond, Gananoque.

An artist of rare talent, Miss Drummond was well known for her many water-colors of local historical interest. She had studied painting under some of the old masters abroad.

Letters to the Editor

What's The Remedy
Kingston, April 9.—(To the Editor): Mr. Puttenham's letter re why so many Canadians are leaving for the United States (or ought to be), something to make us sit up and take notice, as it concerns everyone especially those who run the show. They will need to put on a different picture to keep the house full. Talk about putting water into a sieve—that's just how all the immigration schemes are working out, only more runs out than goes in.

According to reports, Canadians of the last type are crossing over (with their families, too) in large numbers daily to Detroit and Buffalo, and believe me, Uncle Sam welcomes them, knowing they are the finest type of citizens in the making, he is able to get. If this influx keeps on indefinitely, its effect will not only be felt locally, but dominion-wide. What is the remedy? How can we keep them here when laborers are being eagerly sought in Detroit at $5 and $6 a day, and mechanics three times that amount? Is it not natural that the same men, doing the same work and getting about 50 per cent. less on this side, jump across, if only to make the coal money for next winter? The same applies to those on their way from the old country. They, too, will go jumping across, and so the money game will go on—now you see it! Now you don't! "The hat with false bottom, or no bottom at all, and the emigrant rabbit would keep tumbling through as fast as they brought him in. The farmer's in the foundry and the farmer's doing well. He's getting five and a half a day so the farm can go to—yes, Mr. Editor, your columns are always open for discussion and suggestions: let's start something. What's the Remedy?"

Yours truly,
—H. RALPH—

A Worthy Cause
Kingston, April 10.—(To the Editor): Re Tag Day, April 14th, for Infants Home. This is for the purpose of raising the balance of sufficient money to needed to build a sun room where the little 'o's (all under three years) may get the healing rays of the sun, a necessary aid in the well-being of children.

I am pleased to hear that Mrs. D. Lakdaw through her generous gift of $200, has given the home a fresh hope of having this longed for sun room at last a reality.

The home has also lately received a gift of $137 from the Canteen Fund, Sydenham hospital, but at least $700 more is needed to carry out the necessary plans. It is to be hoped that the citizens will give generously towards such a worthy cause on the tag day for the home, Saturday, April 14th.

ICE IS WEAKENING.

Break-up in Harbor Is Looked For in Couple Days.

Marine men state that with a couple more days of mild weather, the ice in the harbor should be broken up. On Wednesday some of the residents of Wolfe Island, who came over to the city reported that the ice was getting very thin in spots. Capt. John Dix, who looks after the Calvin interests at Garden Island, and who came over from the island on Wednesday afternoon, stated that the ice was very weak in places. The ice punt broke through a number of times. Had it not been for the fact that a strong wind was blowing, the punt, which is propelled by the use of a sail, would have broken through the ice many times.

Patrick McDermott, Wolfe Island, claims to be the last islander to cross to the city with a horse and sleigh this winter. He had the last trip on Monday, April 9th, and did not break through the ice during the day.

The management of the steamer Wolfe Islander is rushing the repair work along, so that the steamer will be ready for the opening of navigation. It will take a couple more days to finish the painting of the steamer.

Closed Their Engagement.
Capt. M. W. Plunkett's "Dumbells Company" closed its engagement at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday, playing to capacity audiences in the afternoon and evening. The company made a decided hit, and so long as the company continues to put on an entertainment of this calibre it is assured of big business in Kingston. The company was greatly pleased with its reception here.

The Infants' Home needs your help—Tag Day next Saturday.

At Belleville on Wednesday, the death occurred of Mrs. May Howd Carruthers, wife of Walter S. Carruthers, aged fifty-seven years, and a resident of Belleville many years.
