INDUCTION SERVICE AT COOKE'S CHURCH

Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson, the New Pastor, Introduced to the People.

The induction of Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson to the pastorate of Cooke's Presbyterian church took place on Friday evening, with an exceptionally large attendance of the congregation. The ceremony, which was brief, was very pleasing, and the minister was received with great cordiality by his new congregation.

The Kingston Presbytery met previous to the induction ceremony, with Rev. Dr. Dyde as moderator, and with Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, Dr. Jordan, Rev. E. H. Burgess, R. J. Black, W. Anderson and D. A. Shaw in attendance. After being constituted, the members entered the church and Dr. Jordan made the customary address to the minister. Dr. Dyde, as moderator, asked the usual questions of Mr. Ferguson, which were answered, and then an eloquent address to the congregation was rendered by Dr. Macgillivray. A brief outline of the traditional duties of the minister was given by each speaker, special stress being laid on the importance and dignity of such an occasion.

Dr. Macgillivray is an old pastor of Mr. Ferguson's, and was also one of the latter's professors while Mr. Ferguson was a student of Queen's theological college.

At the close of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were introduced to the members of the congregation by W. H. Claxton and W. Anderson. Letters of greeting from two former pastors, Rev. J. W. McIntosh, Prince Albert, Sask., and Rev. W. Taylor Dale, Dexter, N.Y., were read by D. A. Shaw.

DIED QUITE SUDDENLY

Mrs. Dignem, Wolfe Island, was Active All Friday

The death occurred at her late residence on Friday, of Margaret Dignem, wife of Thomas Dignem, Wolfe Island. The late Mrs. Dignem had been about her duties all day and was suddenly stricken with heart failure and passed away. She was a Roman Catholic in religion, and a member of the Sacred Heart church. Mrs. Dignem took an active interest in all charitable and church affairs. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her kind and charitable disposition won for her most of friends. She is survived by her husband, also two daughters, and four sons, Mrs. W. B. McDonald, Toronto; Mrs. F. Allor; H. J. Dignem, Brandon, Man., and William Thomas and Harold at home. There are also three sisters and one brother, Sister Frances Bogia, Notre Dame Convent, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. LaPlair, Miss Joanne Flynn and John Flynn, Wolfe Island.

Now in the Penitentiary. Two officers from Simcoe arrived in the city on Friday night with a young man sentenced to two years in the Portsmouth penitentiary, on a charge of burglary. The young man spent the night in the police cells, and was taken out to the "pen" on Saturday morning. The accused escaped from the Industrial School some time ago and afterwards was taken into custody for burglary.

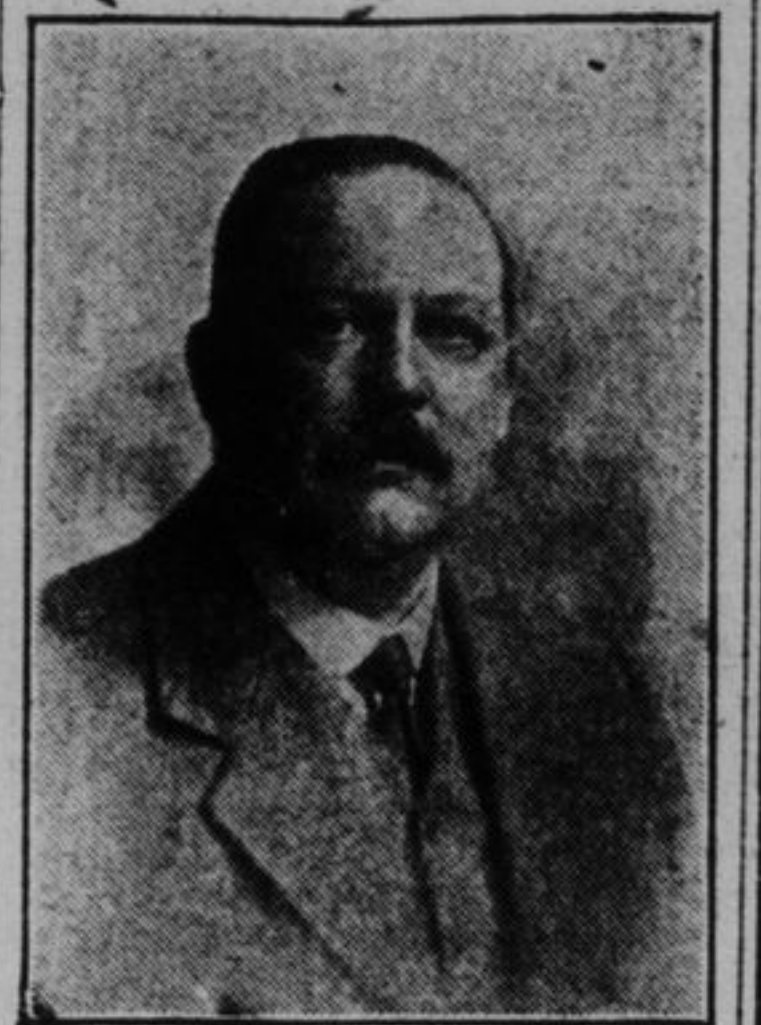

The officers took no chances on the young fellow making his escape while in their custody, as the handcuffs were placed on him the minute he was liberated from his cell in the police station.

Steamer Reaches Island Wharf. As a result of the steamer Wolfe Islander being able to reach the island wharf on Friday afternoon, a large number of islanders came to the city on Saturday morning. Practically all of the islanders had baskets full of eggs. Since Thursday morning, when the steamer made her first trip of the season, she experienced considerable difficulty on account of the ice. On Saturday morning it took one hour and ten minutes for the steamer to come from Wolfe Island on account of the ice being massed.
