CHALMERS ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED ON SUNDAY

Rev. Principal Clarence MacKinnon, Halifax, N.S., Was the Special Preacher.

Chalmers Presbyterian Church has passed another milestone. The services held on Sunday marked the seventy-sixth anniversary, and the congregation had as the special preacher of the day, Rev. Principal Clarence MacKinnon, D.D., Halifax, N.S., who delivered forceful sermons, and was listened to by two large congregations. The pastor, Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson, assisted at both the services. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. J. C. R. Dobbs, rendered a special programme of music. In the morning, the choir rendered the anthem, "Holy, Holy Holy" and a solo, "The Penitent," rendered by Clarence Skinner, Vancouver. At the evening service, Mr. Skinner sang "Lead Kindly Light," and Miss Craig rendered the "The Ninety and Nine," while the choir sang, "Rejoice, The Lord is King." The various numbers were given with fine effect.

At the morning service Principal MacKinnon spoke from Philippians II, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

Mr. MacKinnon appealed to his congregation to fulfill the task set out by the Master. To carry this out one must have the love for service. The great Gladstone on one occasion had been found sitting at the bedside of a lad employed as a London street sweeper, doing his best to comfort the boy. This was the spirit of the Master, and the solution of all our problems. We should base this spirit in our hearts. There should be the milk of kindness in our hearts. From the Atlantic to the Pacific, in cities, towns and villages, many men had lived, toiled, loved and died in faith and hope, because there had been men in the Presbyterian church who had never murmured at the minimum salary, and had never failed in preaching this grand old gospel of faith, hope and love. "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

"That is the story of our past," added the speaker, "and today God offers it to us. There should not be lust for gold, but a passion for souls. As followers of the Great John Knox we have traditions of which we should be proud."

Foreigner Wanted to Go to Jail For Two Months

The Kingston police had a call from a foreigner on Monday morning, who had a long story to tell, but the constables at the station could hardly understand what he was saying. The man said something about wanting to go to jail for a couple of months, and it looked as if he was looking for free board and lodging. As there was no charge against the man, the police could not accommodate him, and he left the police station rather down in his luck.

Harold Daniel Zurbrigg

The funeral took place on Saturday morning, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Zurbrigg, 598 Princess street, of their eldest son, Harold, aged three years and four months who passed away after a week of severe illness. Though his sufferings were intense, he bore them patiently. Many were his friends because of his sunny disposition. He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Dorothy and Flossie, one brother Roy and his grandparents, residing at 585 Princess street. The funeral was largely attended; the service was conducted by Rev. C. Cronin. The remains were taken to Cataract cemetery for interment.

Good Baseball Prospects

With the prospects very bright for good baseball weather this week, it is expected that the various junior, intermediate and senior teams of the city will get down to real hard work before Saturday. Several of the team managers are looking for exhibition games even now, and it is understood that one of the senior city league teams will stage a work-out with the Kingstons at an early date. Practices of this kind would be beneficial to all and would give the fans a good idea of the relative strength of the aggregation.

The finding of a woman's arm in the town dump of Carleton Place a few days ago caused a great deal of conjecture which has resulted in the discovery that it was used for anatomical purposes years ago by a medical student, was preserved in alcohol and buried after no further use had been found for it. The removal of a building recently caused it to be removed unnoticed to the dump.

NEW PASTOR OF COOKE'S

Began Ministry Here Sunday—Hazel Memorial Tablet is Unveiled.

Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson, B.A., began his pastorate at Cooke's church on Sunday under very auspicious circumstances. The church was crowded at both the morning and evening services and the sermons were eloquent and inspiring.

Before the morning sermon, the ceremony of unveiling a memorial tablet to the late Mrs. William Hazel was performed by William Anderson. The tablet was erected by the family.

The pastor expressed warm appreciation of the reception accorded him upon his coming to Kingston, and he said said looked forward with every confidence to a happy ministry in Cooke's church. On every hand he was received with expressions of kindness, which was most reassuring to any minister upon taking up his duties in a new church.

Taking for his subject "Like as the Hart Paneth for the Water Brook, so Longeth My Soul After Thee O God," he showed the great need of the human soul for communion with God as the source of divine power and love. There was at all times a consciousness of human weakness, error and failure that could only be overcome by the power of the spirit. He made a powerful appeal for a consistent Christian life as the only way by which the soul could reach its possibilities in beauty and strength and reflect the power and love of God in every day life.

Mr. Ferguson announced that there would be a church parade of the members of the Kingston lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows to Cooke's church next Sunday morning.

William M. Richey, former lock-master at Smith's Falls, and a well-known currier, celebrated his 92nd birthday recently, and is remarkably hale and hearty for one of his years.
